LOCAL.

Mr. J. C. Wagner is reported sick. We thank Mr. M. C. Campbell for some fine sweet potatoes.

We are pleased to add Mr. Stuck of Dayton Ohio to our list.

Apples 20½ and 21 ounces, both apples weighing 41½ ounces Sept. 17

Mr. C. Wagner is at work repairing the buildings at the Thornton place.

Mr. Sherman is very busy harvesting his pea-hay, he says he will have 20 tons.

Austin and Hugh Coppinger and Dallas Dixon went to the Park Dedication Thursday last.

Mr. H. G. Slatmyer and C. and L. W. Gabel went to Peter Cave Fork and came back Sunday.

Dr. Morris of the Pikeville Banner enrouted home from the Park Dedication called on us Saturday.

Mrs. Jas. Degnan and baby left for Chattanooga Saturday to join Mr. Degnan, they came back Monday.

All our visitors to Chattanooga came back brim full of patriotism, and are satisfied this is a great country.

John B. Edridge has purchased four of the six shares of the Thornton estate, and now at work making repairs there.

Austin Coppinger says the dedication was a big thing, but there was too many people there, pretty hard to get about.

We had a pleasant call from Dr. J. W. Simpson of Jasper and Mr. McMasters his brother-in-law from Ohio Sunday.

We are glad to have the Dunlap Tribune on our exchange list. Dunlap is a pretty place and ought to succeed and build up, and we think it will.

The way the skeeters went for baby Degnan while there, was a caution, Charlie thinks if they had stopped there a week there would have been no baby to bring home.

Mr. H. G. Slatmyer, President of the Sequachee Valley Saw Mill and Lumber Co arrived here Saturday night accompanied by Mr. C. Gabel brother of Mr. L. W. Gabel, from Cleveland Ohio.

Miss Kate Haynes went to Victoria Wednesday evening,

The programe of school exhibition at Havron settlement is an interesting one, let every body be no hand.

M. T. Pryor and C. Gabel on Tuesday, killed two rattlers near the falling spring.

Now we know what the Governor of Vermont said to the Governor of Tennessee, let us hear what the Governor of North Carolina said to the Governor of South Carolina.

This is the time of the year when men go squirrel hunting, but hunting is the beginning and end of it, the squirrels are too wiley.

The state Board of Equalization who, it is clamed by Judge J. M. Estes of Memphis, have nothing to equalize this year, have raised the assessment 15 per cent in Bledsoe and 10 per cent in Sequatchie Counties. How thankful we ought to be to have escaped.

Reports from the mountain of potatoes weighing a pound and three quarters each and beets 7, 8 and 11 pounds are now current.

Wiggins prophecy did not come true unless the storm of oratory in Tennessee and Georgia last week counts. The American people will stand more talking to than any on he face of the globe.

told we should get apples a pound we were surprised, we suppose our three trees have yielded three barrels each which we have had much pleasure in eantig and distributing to our neighbours.

We call the attention of ourreaders to the letter of Capt. J. Frater of Victoria. We are more than pleased to find that the fruit in Victoria has come out so well, and also as endorsing our statements, in truth we have been surprised at the immensity of the fruit, and beleive that next year we can do better, when we were

We had matter prepared for an specially good and interesting paper last week, but Mr. W. C. Hill was taken sciously ill on Sunday Sept. 15th and was unable to leave his bed to his and our regret, we did the best we could, and our pony team came out strong, so to speak, but we missed the mechanical direction of the master and so were obliged to let our paper go out with many imperfections.
