In the Back?
Then probably the kidneys.

In the Chest?
Then probably the lungs.

COPPINGER COVE.

Special to the News.

As sure as you are born we came out at the little end of the horn Christmas. We could not bear a meeting nor hear even a song, so we aim to turn a new leaf on New Year's morning and sing aloud.

James Carlock, Levi Bowlin and Wash Dixon cut wood for us Friday. We are glad to have three such friends. They will be rewarded for it.

Everybody in the cove they say has enough money and quit work. O this is a money making place. Mr. Sherman pays money for even turning round rocks over in Dixon Cove, so it is done by wagons hauling hickory.

We heard of a worm in North Carolina that was said to be very dangerous. If it bites you it seems that you are anxious for it to bite you again. It lies quite close to a branch where it can get water when it bites you or it could not bite you any more. We have some of them in Tennessee. The best way to describe them is the worm of a still. Be scared of them.

Ed Curtis and Jesse Coppinger run a squirrel some distance and Ed went back after gun and dogs, and come back with the dogs and no guns. Jesse asked him why did you not bring your gun. Never mind that for as soon as that squirrel sees me it will say that is Ed with his twenty-two and will fall out of the tree dead as a beet. Whether they got it or not, we haven't heard.

While you are reading this remember to bring the corn to the Coppinger mill and get nice fine meal. Only two miles from Sequachee.

I saw corn come to the Coppinger mill the other day and it was not ground. The man who brought it would not let us grind it, for he carried it on his little toe.

I tell the old lady I am going to be down sick. She says not so, there is nobody to wait on you. Well I tell her if there isn't I won't get down then. She says bow wow, and I of course run. Not much fun me, her and the fice have together. You could hide all our fun under your little finger nail.

Austin Coppinger says the turkey he got at Sequachee Christmas was so fat.

When you hear the blow bug look out for Jesse, Sam and Billamabaw.

Santa Claus brought Mr. and Mrs. Isham Coppinger another Republican.

Millard Francis is visiting his daughter in Alabama.

Remember the first Sunday is Bro. Hart's appointment and Bro. Dugan's the night before. When the song begins we will be there. Some good singers are expected.

As this is my last correspondence in 1900 I earnestly and humbly ask God's blessing on us all. May he protect and guide us through a new year in ye writer's prayer. Wishing the editor of the News and its readers happiness and a home after this life in heaven, I bid adieu to friends in nineteen hundred.

COLD WAVE.

Lone Oak, Texas.

Special to the News:

Christmas passed off very nicely here and the farmers have begun to garner their corn.

Frost had its share of Christmas trees, only two. One for the little folks and one for the older people. Both were well fated.

L. S. Bacon is visiting friends in East Tennessee.

Ask Tom McClure about that present.

"A legalized man killer" passed through Lone Oak this week but we had no work for him.

There is one sentence that is sweet to Billy McClure. Ask him about it.

The outlook for a fine wheat crop is good.

Wish everybody a Happy New Year.
