FOR CATARRH of the nose, throat, stomach, bowels and more delicate organs, take Hood's Sarsaparilla—it is a RADICAL CURE.

When you want a pleasant laxative that is easy to take and certain to act, use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. For sale by all druggists.

Among the campers last week at the Blowing Spring were the Misses Bennett, of Cedar Mountain and brother, Will Bennett.

The handle works is getting out a thousand dozen order of hammer handles this week for shipment to New London, Australia.

Chris Wagner of Wagnerville, was in town Saturday and extended a cordial invitation to the News staff to visit his pleasant home.

Walter Randle and W. A. Price made their usual flying trip on the tandem to Jasper Sunday morning to secure the Sunday Times.

A camping party, which includes Misses Anna Denkins, Juliet Hopkins and Verda Bennett, of this city, is located at Summertown above Jasper. Messrs. Earl Arnett, J. C. and C. B. Van Hoosier, of Nashville, representing the Fidelity Portrait Co., of Chicago, have been in the city this week.

TO FARMERS.—Your name and address on 250 envelopes for 75c; 100 for 30c. Have undelivered letters returned to you. The price is cheaper than you can buy the unprinted envelopes.

It is now the proper thing for gentlemen to wear kimonos to meet the trains, and it is quite taking. Several of the gentlemen connected with the campers have set the style.

Where are you sick? (Headache, foul tongue, no appetite, lack energy, pain in stomach, constipation, Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will make you well. 35 cents. Ask your druggist.

James Carlock, the herb man, has resumed his calls after quite a sickness. He reports his sales as good and if you do not see what you want in his stock ask for it and he will get it for you.

Not a cent wanted unless you are cured. If you are sick and ailing, take Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. A great blessing to the human family. Makes you well—keeps you well. 35 cents. Tea or Tablets. Ask your druggist.

Gilbert Pryor, grandson of Mrs. E. S. Haynes, got his left hand caught in a cider mill Friday, resulting in mashing his hand up severely, one finger being broken. Dr. Turner dressed it.

We are under obligations to Mr. D. Hopkins for cantaloupes, the first of the season, and in fact, the first we have seen this year. Mr. Hopkins also presented us last week with some tomatoes of his raising, which were certainly record breakers.

Miss Chapman, of Knoxville, president of the Woman's Home Mission Society, an adjunct of the M. E. Church, south, gave an address at Owen Church Thursday night. Miss Chapman is an excellent speaker, and gave an exhaustive explanation of the aims and objects of home mission work. The society was organized in Nashville in 1869 for the purpose of assisting pastors and building parsonages.

SOUTH PITTSBURG, TENN.

No, the Southern Railway has not yet arrived in Sequachee. It is only the driver on the Price & Randle tandem sounding warning for crossings, etc., when they are technically "bailing 'em up".

This office was favored by a call from Misses Lucile Wright and Edna Brundige, and Messrs. Tom Deethridge and Will Crozier, of the Camp Jolification crowd Monday afternoon.

Chas. L. Roberts, of Dunlap, the hustling produce dealer, was in the city Friday for a short time looking after his rapidly growing business. Send him your produce and he will give you the best treatment in the world.

Reaify your complexion with little cost. If you wish a smooth, clear, cream-like complexion, rosy cheeks, laughing eyes, take Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea, greatest beautifier known. 35 cents. Ask your druggist.

Henry Smith, of Oates Island, has convinced us that there are fish in the Tennessee River, which we heretofore had placed in fabulous history. Thursday morning he presented us with a monster cat fish which measured 29 1/2 inches and weighed 11 lbs. 5 ozs. It is evident there are a few whales in Tennessee River.

We are in receipt from Mrs. L. A. Farley, of Concord, N. H., of papers giving account of the arrival of thirty-three automobiles which left New York to establish an endurance record to the White Mountains and return, which was very interesting. One of the autos collided with a milk wagon and after the owner of the machine had promptly paid the damage the milk vendor asked, "Any more of them things coming?" "Oh, about thirty," was the reply. The milkman said not a word, but hitched his horse to a tree and sat him down in the shade to wait till the trouble was over.
