PATTERSON WINS PRIMARY

CARRIES 49 COUNTIES WITH MAJORITY OF OVER 7000.

Gov. Patterson is the winner in Saturday's primary, having over 7,000 votes more than former Senator Carmack, with an accredited representation in the convention of 732 votes, a majority of 146. As far as can be learned, Governor Patterson carried 49 counties of the 96 counties of the state, has a popular majority of 7,137, and a delegate majority of 146. Patterson won heavily in Middle Tennessee, carrying some counties by unprecedented democratic figures, his total majority being 7,985. He also carried West Tennessee by 891 votes.

Carmack carried East Tennessee by 1,589 votes. These are not official figures, but it is not thought there will be any material change.

Of nearby counties, Bledsoe went for Carmack with 20 majority, Grundy for Patterson with 100, Marion gave Patterson 300 majority, and Sequatchie, 40. Hamilton county went solidly for Patterson by 2,304 majority.

Carmack will not make any contest, although there are charges of fraud, and probably many peculiar things were done by the liquor interest to secure the nomination of their candidate. Mr. Carmack made the following statement Monday:

"Neither Mr. Armistead nor myself have instituted or suggested any contest anywhere. I have heard, just as others have, of protests against corruption and fraudulent practices in various counties, but I have never contemplated making a fight to promote my own nomination or to defeat the nomination of Gov. Patterson against a majority of the popular vote. There is no way provided by which the corrupt and fraudulent vote can be sifted out of the mass and I shall not attempt it."

"But my candidacy is but one feature of this contest. The democratic platform is yet to be made, democratic legislators are yet to be nominated, instructed and elected. The fight for the utter abolition of the whiskey traffic and for other vital reforms must go on without a moment's pause. The enemy has won a Pyrrhic victory; this battle has been lost but the war has just begun!"

"They have immensely strained and weakened their resources to gain it. We are as strong as ever and can put up as good a fight every Saturday as we did last Saturday."

What He Would Be.

One of our exchanges tells of an old German who had a boy of whom he was very proud, and decided to find out the trend of his mind. He adopted a novel method by which to test him. He slipped into the boy's room one morning and placed on his table a bottle of whiskey, a Bible and a silver dollar. "Now," said he, "when dot boy comes in if he takes dot dollar he's going to be a beeznis man; if he takes dot Bible he's going to be a preacher; if he takes dot whiskey he's no good, and going to be a drunkard." Then he hid behind a door to see what his son would choose. He ran up to the table picked up the Bible and put it under his arm, then snatched up the bottle, took two or three drinks, picked up the dollar and put it in his pocket and went out smacking his lips. The Dutchman poked his head out from behind the door and exclaimed: "Merr! Got, he is going to be a politician."

A HAPPY MOTHER

will see that her baby is properly cared for—to do this a good purgative is necessary. Many babies suffer from worms and their mothers don't know it—If your baby is feverish and doesn't sleep at night, it is troubled with worms. White's Cream Vermifuge will clean out these worms in a mild, pleasant way. Once tried always used. Give it a trial. Price 25 cents. Sold by Sequachee Supply Store.

NOT GUILTY.

A Sunday school teacher inquired of his scholars: "Who led the children of Israel into Canaan? Will one of the smaller boys answer?"

There was no reply and the teacher somewhat sternly continued: "Can no one tell? Little boy, on that seat next to the aisle, who led the children of Israel into Canaan?"

The little boy, who appeared badly frightened, said: "It wasn't me. I-I just moved here last week from the country."—Cotton Seed.

Gauderbone's July Forecast

(Copyright, 1898, by C. H. Kiehl.)

It was July the seventh,

And Denver was gay

With flags and with bunting,

And hip and hooray,

And the man in the chair

Mopped the place where his hair

Was wanted to grow,

And he said, "Just to show

The humor we're in,

I am going to ask

For a bon mot from Bryan

Of Lincoln, Nebraska."

There was wit in his smile

As the Peerless One bowed

And stilled the applause

Of the good natured crowd

With a wave of his hand;

And he said in his bland,

Oratorical way,

"We are gathered today

On the bank of the Platte

Where its clear waters lap

The feet of the hills,

As you'll find on the map."

His smile was as soft

As the breeze in the oak,

And the multitude wondered,

Unguessing the joke,

Till he said, "Seeing that

We are right on the Platte,

It ought to be true

That the country will view

Our party, my friends,

To be just and exact,

As the only one having

A Platte-form in fact."

July was named for Julius Caesar

By Mark Antony. Mark was Caesar's protege. His career was very much like that of Mr. Taft. Caesar liked him, and whenever he came around the great dictator would slap him on the back with some such exclamation

as "Mark, I will make you a tribune!"

He kept his word, too, and always delivered the goods to Mark at the Roman conventions. Mark made the funeral oration for Caesar and he stirred up the Roman populace until it wrecked

the base ball park looking for Brutus and the rest of the Mafia. He was also the originator of the affinity idea.

His affinity was Cleopatra, and every time he returned from Egypt, his wife and his mother-in-law met him at the dock with a set of golf clubs. He eventually became virtual ruler of Egypt,

instituted local option and other reforms, barged with the queen upon the moonlit Nile and killed himself

while he was happy, knowing it couldn't last.

The bill sent in by Teddy's side

For services to date,

Has been received and duly filed

Till we can liquidate;

About the third the household bills

Will all come down the line,

But the Democratic party will

Not render us its White House Bill

Until July the nine.

July the Fourth will dawn again,

diverting circumstance, and the bubbling boy will light his punk before he

They'll also live on mountain trout and muskelonge and croaker, and Pa will try to pay for it with what he wins at poker. He'll cheat like Bret Harte's Chinaman, and when he shall beseech forgiveness down upon his knees and heaven seems out of reach, his plea shall be, "Forgive me, Lord, my folks are at the beach!"

And Helie dear will honeymoon

With Anna his to hold,

And he will sigh, "Ma chere, you are worth your weight in gold."

Whereat she'll say, while kissing him

Beneath her broad brimmed hat,

"But, dear, I don't weigh what I did

When Boni told me that."

And then hot August will return, and John D. get in line and pay his twelfth installment on that thirty million fine.

Jasper, 16; Tracy, 7.

JASPER, Tenn., June 27.—Jasper defeated the second team of Tracy City here today in a slow and uninteresting game, 16 to 7. The feature was a catch by H. Brewer at second in which after colliding with the short-top in going after a fly, he managed to grab it, but fell in so doing and turned a double summerer. He held the ball.

Johnson pitched his usual fine game, and made fine one hand pickup of a ground ball and a fast throw to first. Myers pitched the first part of the game for Tracy and some heavy hits were secured off his delivery, which aided by dumb plays in the outfield, gave Jasper runs galore. The pitcher who succeeded him, popularly known as "Dicky," succeeded better, and Jasper's batters found it difficult to solve his curves. The mountain lads were stronger in batting than in fielding and made several bad plays trying to catch the fast running Jasper boys. Johnson's fine pitching held them down at critical times. The game was very slow, taking some three hours to play.

This is what Hon. Jake Moore, State Warden of Georgia, says of Kodol For Dyspepsia: "E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, Ill.—Dear Sirs—I have suffered more than twenty years from indigestion. About eighteen months ago I had grown so much worse that I could not digest a crust of corn bread and could not retain anything on my stomach. I lost 25 lbs; in fact, I made up my mind that I could not live but a short time when a friend of mine recommended Kodol. I consented to try it to please him and was better in one day. I now weigh more than I ever did in my life and am better in health than for many years. Kodol did it. I keep a bottle constantly, and write this hoping that humanity may be benefited. Yours very truly, Jake C. Moore, Atlanta, Aug. 10, 1904." Sold by J. W. Simpson, Jasper, Tenn.

Orme.

Special to the News.

Orme played Bridgeport Saturday at Bridgeport, but couldn't win because it is a hard matter for nine men to beat ten men, especially the extra one being the umpire. The boys were treated very nicely by the Bridgeport players but the umpire was rotten. The score was 7 to 4 in favor of Bridgeport. We could not possibly have beaten them unless we could have shut them out, for if they had made first base the umpire would have given them the rest.

Miss Sadie Collins and R. J. Mackey attended the game, but were disgusted with it.

Ab McCoy and Miss Mattie Scott, Pat Sullivan and Miss Lula Scott, John Sullivan and Bessie Troxell, and Miss Della Sullivan made a flying trip to Edgely Saturday night in a wagon full of hay. Were so sore next day they couldn't go to Sunday school.

That Eclipse.

Local astronomers observed the eclipse Sunday through smoked glass and reported everything passing off according to Hoyle. The reason of the eclipse was that the moon got in between the earth and the sun, and why, eclipsed it, of course. Things were not so dark, however, as some people thought it would be. Nobody noted that the Star Arcturus, which astronomers say has been coming directly toward the earth for ages at the rate of 300,000 miles a second, was any closer than usual, and it is hoped that the earth will have sense enough to keep out of the way of that express train when it passes or it will get run over. However, don't get scared and think that Arcturus is going to knock spots off of your tomato vines next week, for it won't, and from present indications there will be more crops of tomatoes than you will be interested in before it will.
