MEMORIAL EXERCISES

Observed by Post 53, G. A. R., Their Families and Friends.

The memorial exercises of the G. A. R. this year were as beautiful and impressive as ever, and thirteen of the comrades were in attendance to observe the customary program. At the morning session of Post-53, G. A. R., J. G. Lankester, of Jasper, was elected Commander vice Thomas H. Hill, who died Nov. 18, 1915. It was voted to keep up the organization as long as there was a comrade living, and also decided to hold the annual reunion Saturday, Sept. 30, 1916.

At noon an excellent spread was served in the Town Hall, and the veterans, and their families and friends, sat down to a board loaded with good things. At 1:30 p. m., march was taken up to Owen cemetery, children with flowers and flags being in line, the Post with Flag Bearer Patton, heading the procession. A large number of others accompanied the procession. At the cemetery the graves of Union and non-Union soldiers alike were decorated with flowers, and flags placed on the graves of union soldiers. On the grave of Maj. Thomas H. Hill a large floral cross was placed by the thoughtfulness of members of the Post and other friends of Maj. Hill, headed by Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Lankester, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Minor and Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Haynes. The cross was a beautiful floral design of carnations and lilies with cedar background. It was a beautiful testimonial of the worth of Maj. Hill as a citizen and friend, and greatly appreciated by the family.

At 2 o'clock the regular memorial services were conducted in the Town Hall as follows: "America," Welcome Address by Master Joseph Ernest Darr, Jr., of Chattanooga. Song by Master Louis George Kelly, of Chattanooga. "Don't Bite the Hand That Feeds You." Both of these numbers were excellent, and given by very young representatives of the City by the Big Muddy. Song by the choir, "The Vacant Chair," Address by Commander, J. G. Lankester; Song by Choir, "Battle Hymn of the Republic," The oration by Rev. L. C. Cobb, of Jasper, was excellent, and closely followed, after which the hymn, "The Star Spangled Banner" sung by choir, closed the exercises, the large American flag being held in center of stage by children, while the comrades stood at attention.

Comrades attending the exercises were J. G. Lankester, Wm. Brewer, G. W. Brewer, S. E. Patton and Lot Warreu, of Jasper, E. S. Haynes, T. R. Harris and Wiley Parker, of Sequachee, Thos. Foster, of Cedar Springs, Dan Pittman, of Inman, M. V. Coffelt, of South Pittsburg, John I. Johnston, Louis Carleton and Capt. Heard, of Dunlap.

PROMINENT CITIZEN PASSES AWAY

Dr. S. T. Smith Dies at Dunlap of Diseases Incident to Old Age.

Dr. S. T. Smith died Sunday morning at 9 o'clock of illness incident to old age, having reached the ripe age of 80 years and some months. A year or more ago he suffered a nervous breakdown and had never regained his former good health. At first he was quite restless, for he led an active life and was on the go daily, but as time wore on he seemed to accept the inevitable and grew more composed. Only recently he had a long talk with a relative and related many bits of family history and went into details as if the events occurred only a short while ago. The end came peacefully. Apparently he dropped into a sweet sleep and never awoke.

The funeral services were held from the Baptist church Tuesday morning at 11:30 and with Masonic honors, of which order the deceased was a member for a long number of years, having joined in '66 at Jasper long before the local lodge was instituted. He moved his membership, however, to Dunlap as soon as the lodge here was organized. Rev. E. J. Baldwin delivered the funeral address and the Masons conducted the burial rite at the cemetery. A large audience packed the Baptist church auditorium and there were not many dry eyes in the audience as the minister told feelingly of the life of the "father, relative and friend."

Dr. Smith led a useful and active life. He always espoused the cause of right. He was intense in his antagonisms to all he considered wrong. He was liberal to a fault and gave unstintingly to religious causes. His had always been a home for ministers of the Gospel and he was himself at all times a regular attendant at church services. At the age of fourteen years he became a member of the Baptist church and had been a devoted and consistent member throughout his long and eventful life. When quite young he married Miss Amy Matthews, of James county, where both were reared, and to this union thirteen children were born, nine of whom survive, three sons and six daughters, George, James, and Polk Smith and Mesdames Lila Hixson, Docta Lamb, Bettie Barker, Mattie Colson, Florence Alexander, and Sallie Lewis.

Those who came from a distance to be present at the funeral and burial were: Mrs. James Hixson, Bernard and Raymond Hixson, Hixson's Station; Jno. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. M. N. Lewis, Paul Deakins, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Lamb and children, Chattanooga; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Barker, Misses Burnah, Ina Ruth, and Jamie Barker, Mrs. Robt. Myers, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Hixson, Pikeville; Rev. and Mrs. J. B. Alexander, Ferris, Texas.—Dunlap Tribune.

National Defense and International Peace

Preparedness and Peace and the Engineer

THE United States desires peace, based on justice and maintained with honor. But to insure this kind of peace Americans must know that nations are now defended not alone by fighting men, but by fighting industries.

The Engineers of this country, trained as only American Engineers are trained, hold that truth to be as fundamental as the law of gravity. With the authority of the United States Government more than 30,000 Engineers and Chemists, members of five eminent American scientific bodies, are making for the first time in the history of the Government a minute, sweeping survey of the industrial resources of America. They will go to the factories and mines of the land and with their sole method, efficiency, and their sole motive, patriotism, form a vast, flexible organization, such as the world has never known.

Their work will be the basis for creating in this country a true line of defense in time of war—the ability to produce swiftly, abundantly and with sustained power all the thousands and one elements of modern warfare. Without such production there can be no efficient army and navy.

Military Preparedness wins the battle. But Industrial Preparedness wins the WAR! Industrial Preparedness involves no huge expenses. Only the KNOWLEDGE of what American Industry can do. To KNOW the extent of each plant, the equipment of each shop, the capacity of each machine, the ability of each man. THAT is the essence of Industrial Preparedness. That is the task to which thirty thousand Engineers are pledged.

The Engineers' work will lay for all time the ghost of the "munitions trust" by making it possible to have munitions made in thousands of plants. The vital work of the Engineers will supply the military authorities in Washington with information never before collected, and it is carried forward without a dollar's cost to the Government. And this advertisement is not paid for. The Associated Advertising Clubs of the World have prepared it without pay for the sake of National Defense and International Peace.

All Americans are asked to strike hands with the Engineers so that America shall have the means to resist any unprovoked attack of a foreign power.

NO "LAST REUNION" FOR "UNCLE TOM"

Editor News:

I have so many things to say concerning our recent reunion at Birmingham that I hardly know where to begin. I left home May 2nd, and visited relatives and friends in Cannon county stopping also in Murfreesboro to see some old acquaintances and relatives. Then I went on to Nashville remaining there until troop, A. Forest Cavalry, left for Birmingham. A jollier set of men never left Nashville than we were, full of sunshine and imbued with the spirit of kindness. We tried to make all we came in contact with feel that we were their friends. We saw no strangers, and that kind of policy soon thawed all of the ice among us and permeated the union no little. We went to have a social good time and, we sure had it. Our sponsor, Miss Martha Handy, contributed no little to our enjoyment from start to finish. Mrs. Lily M. Jones, chief matron of Troop A, lent a charm to the occasion. The boys will never forget Miss Caroline Minton, whose beauty and modesty won for her the admiration of Birmingham's young men. Miss Annie Hendly did her part to scatter sunshine and gladness in the ranks of the troop. Mrs. D. A. Dickey, another lady of Nashville, made us feel that in her the Confederate soldier had a friend. Mrs. Hardison, of Newborn, Tenn., also manifested a splendid social spirit that was helpful to the boys. Our first lieutenant, C. H. Gross, of Nashville, B. 22, Union Street, I am sure carries with him the highest regards and esteem of Troop A. Our first sergeant, Charley R. Temple, 331 Foster St., Nashville, Tenn., has endeared himself to the troop beyond any doubt, and I would be glad if the News Editor would mail Mr. Temple a bundle of the News to distribute to our company and friends to see what "Uncle Tom" has to say about the reunion. I found J. A. Kelly in the furniture business at Wartrace, associated with John E. Justice. Mr. Justice had charge of the interment of Captain John A. Mackey that fell in the grand march at the old Confederate hall in Birmingham. Captain Mackey had his wish granted for he wanted to die when every heart was full of joy and gladness and under the sweet strains of Dixie. He must have died happy for there was a smile on his face when we interred him at Wartrace, Tenn. This was the only cloud that shaded the reunion.

I was requested by Mrs. L. Laphorn 1916 Woodland St., Nashville, Tenn., for a copy of the News. Her home is Lead, South Dakota. Also Mrs. C. M. Faulkner, 2814 Clairmont avenue, S. Birmingham, Ala. These women are the daughters of Captain Mackey. The people of Birmingham certainly honored Captain Mackey and proved it by a magnificent funeral service which I am sure all Confederate vets appreciate, and the floral tributes that accompanied the remains to Wartrace shows he died among friends and not among strangers.

Birmingham was chock full of love for the boys who wore the grey.

Some people talk about our last reunion. There will be no last reunion, as long as enough lives to have one. Uncle Tom.
