Billy Sunday Picks All-Bible Foot-Ball Team

Bars Goliath Because He Needs Team Work and Giant Was Enemy

Here's an all-Bible football team which Billy Sunday picked for Tech men in Jacksonville: "Let's see," said Billy, "I'm going to pick my center first. Samson is, without the shadow of a doubt, the man for center. A guy who could pull down the pillars of the temple would be hard to get through.

"The best man for quarterback is Solomon, the wisest gink of history. He would of course call the signals on the team.

"My two halfbacks are Jonathan and David. They were great team workers and had much speed."

Billy had in mind a man for fullback, but couldn't think of his name right off the bat.

"He would be a bearcat for fullback," said Billy, "because when he went out to kill a bear he would kill him by falling on him. Give me that Bible again, Ma."

And after a five-minute search Billy found what he was looking for. His name was Beniah," said Billy. "That's the bird I want for fullback."

At tackles Billy placed Jacob and Esau, and at guards Gideon and Nehemiah, the latter being the man who built the walls of Jerusalem. For the ends he chose Daniel and Joseph.

"Why did you leave Goliath off your team?" he was asked.

"I am picking a gang for team work," replied Billy. "That guy belonged to the enemy."

Billy's all-star Old Testament team follows:

- Samson, center.
- Daniel, end.
- Joseph, end.
- Gideon, guard.
- Nehemiah, guard.
- Esau, tackle.
- Esau, tackle.
- Solomon, quarterback.
- David, halfback.
- Jonathan, halfback.
- Beniah, fullback.

Man and Mother-in-Law He Wed Freed by Court

Her Daughter Married Again and How Can She Furnish Two Sons-in-Law? Asks Judge.

Paducah, Ky.—A joke in the statute—that is County Judge Lang's view of the law prohibiting a man from marrying his mother-in-law.

So he dismissed Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thornton, arrested last week on the charge of violating the Kentucky statute forbidding such marriages and providing a fine of from $500 to $5,000 and a prison sentence unless terminated.

"Besides," the judge said, "Thornton's divorced wife, now his daughter-in-law, has married again; and how can one daughter furnish her mother with two 'legal' sons-in-law?"

County Attorney Wickliffe will carry the case to the highest court. "Law is law. Once a mother-in-law always a mother-in-law," he said, "I will take the case before the grand jury."

Judge Lang was sitting only as an examining court. Judge Lang's opinion was lengthy. He concluded by stating: "The incongruity of this statute is manifest and it would not stand the test of the higher courts, nor before the court of public opinion."

He advised the defendants, however, that they might remedy the tangle by remarrying in a state where the laws were not so stringent. This they indicated they would do if further legal procedure is attempted.

Thornton's former wife, who is trying to regain possession of their child, married Walter Woods, an I. C. shopman, the day the decree was issued, it has been learned.

"Mother's welcome to Walter," she said recently. I had to divorce him because he would not support me and ran around with other women. Maybe she can make him toe the mark."

Ring Out, Ye Merry Bells

Ring out, ye merry bells! Welcome bright icicles!
Welcome, old holly-crowned Christmas again!
Blithe as a child at play, keeping his holiday,
Welcome him back from the snow peak and plain.

Up with the holly bough green from the winter's brow,
Lock up your ledgers and cares for the day;
Out to the forest go, gather the mistletoe,
Old and young, rich and poor, up and away.

Up with the holly boughs, ay, and the laurel now;
In with the yule log and brighten the hearth;
Quick! here he is again, come with his joyous train,
Laughter and music and friendship and mirth.

Up with the holly boughs, high in each manor house,
Garnish the antlers that hang in the hall.
Yes, and the "neck" of corn with a gay wreath adorn,
Rich as the bloom on the cottager's wall.

Wealth has its duties now, Christian, you will allow;
Think, then, ye rich, whilst your tables are spread,
Think of the wretched ones, Poverty's stricken sons,
Weeping whilst children are asking for bread.

Ring out, ye merry bells! ring till your music swells
Out o'er the mountain, and far on the main;
Ring till those cheerless ones catch up your merry tones,
Singing, "Come, Christmas, again and again."

Jasper

Fine weather and cotton pickers are rushing to get remaining cotton before bad weather. All seems to be quiet and everybody busy.

S. L. Rogers is having excavations made for a large cellar under building which to be erected on lot he purchased from Mrs. Rankin. He is using a concreting machine to make foundation. Mr. Rogers believes in building up the town. Also Lot Warren and William Haynes are running a line fence cutting off a vacant lot which may be improved in like manner.

Jess Wooten has moved in his house at Jasper.

Bro. Grant Ramsey will conduct prayer meeting at the Baptist church Thursday night. Bro. Wining conducted services Sunday night there, and talked to the people on the subject of the fall and redemption of man. He made an interesting talk and was assisted in prayer by Bro. Privett and others.

Hope righteousness will prevail over all difficulties. Without love of righteousness we are neither content nor enjoy life. Denver Guffey, of So. Pittsburg, was seen in the Jasper barber shop Saturday night receiving a nice shave and a shampoo. Sunday morning he was smoking a cigar and looked as tho' he was very proud of his new wife, who was up to visit her parents. She called to see her mother-in-law Sunday evening.

Mrs. Wm. Guffey is visiting her daughter in So. Pittsburg, who is expecting to go to Georgia in a few days.

The children are all anxious to see the News, many wanting to borrow it to read.

The drugstore is receiving a liberal custom thru advertising in the News. We must all work together for each others' interest to be successful.

A house divided against itself cannot stand. So it is with us. We must quit holding prejudice and all work together. Especially in our family circle let us be loving and good to one another. Let no evil words escape our lips. The tongue is the root of all evil. Let the youths of our country remember this.

Success to the News and all good undertakings.

SOLDIER WRITES FROM CAMP DIX

Special to the News.
Snowing seems to be the order of the day.

Several of our boys from Company M are going on recruiting service. Hope they will get several recruits.

Christmas is nearly here and the boys are getting several letters. I guess the girls want Santa Claus to visit them.

I heard Private Quarles say he was going to quit writing to the girls till after Christmas. Guess he has run short of stamps.

Private Holloway has made first class. I hope he will make good.

Our mess sergeant seems to be improving for we are getting more to eat.

We have a boy in our company that claims to be a Texas cowpuncher. If he punches cattle like he drills I bet he was some cowboy.

We are not drilling much now as the snow is too deep to get about in.

The boys are going to school every day. They seem to be learning fast.

Pvt. E. R. Rector seems to have the blues. Guess he hasn't heard from his girl in a week. Cheer up, Rector, she will answer your letter.

Pvt. Cay W. Quarles has just returned from New York. He reports a nice time. He had the pleasure of seeing the statue of Liberty.

I would like to read some more news from Dallas, Tex., but I guess "Lone Star's" eyes are still giving him trouble.

The paper seems to be improving. Hope all the readers will wake up and give us all the news.

Come on "Mama's Darling," I like to read your pieces.

MACON, GA.

Special to the News.
Dear editor, please give me space in the columns of the good old News for a few dots as to what this part of the world is doing.

Times are getting a little better here. The cotton mills ran 6 days last week but will run only three or four days this and next week, but after Jan. 1 they will run full time. This will be a great benefit as the people need work these days to live but everything is getting cheaper every day, for gingham that sold here at 40c per yard is now 16c per yard.

It is raining here, a very cold rain, and I think it will be snowing by tomorrow.

We had a big fire here today. It burned a half block on Second St. and Broadway, and one of the buildings was the railway express office. I do not know just what was the damage. The fire department had six fire engines and believe me they were sure throwing some water.

I was sure sorry to hear of Uncle Ben Rogers being sick so long and Uncle Chaudoin being so feeble.

The Case-Fowler Timber Co. is going to shut down Christmas for a week and will do some repair work on their mill. They have 350 car of logs stored on the yard so it looks like work to me. They get from 15 to 30 cars a day.

Little Ephie McClanahan is getting as fat as a pig since recovering from a fall when he fractured his skull.

Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year to the News and its readers.
J. F. M.
