When next you need anything in this line give it a trial and you will be convinced that these oils have no superior on the face of the globe.	Groceries, Groceries We are unexcelled in the Grocery line. We carry Groceries in such quantities that it is hard to figure against us on such things as Flour, Sugar, Coffee, Meat, Lard, Molasses, Soap, Soda, Baking Powder, Canned Goods, etc. Come in and look over our grocery line.

There are a number of other things in the way of merchandise we carry, but we haven't room to mention them. But we want to say in connection with our stock, that last year we moved all of our old stock, just cleaned it out and moved it over to another building and later we sold out this store. Hence we have no old goods of any kind to offer the public. The stock is new, fresh, clean, so you need not hesitate on buying. Prices very little if any over old prices.

Notwithstanding there have been this year wars and rumors of wars, earthquakes, cyclones, strikes and dissolutions, the business of the Cash Economy store exceeds last year's business, when we had two stores in place of one. We attribute this gain to the High Quality of Merchandise we have carried, with our low prices and the Dresden Enterprise to tell of it. Our heart wells up in gratitude for this and we invite you to come and see for yourself

WILSON PROUD OF PARTY'S RECORD.

Accepting Renomination For President He Recounts Party's Achievements at Home and Abroad.

Long Branch, N. J., Sept. 2.—Senator Wilson formally accepted his renomination here this afternoon with an address recounting the legislative record of the democratic party, a vigorous defense of his Mexican policy, his dealings with the European belligerents and an outline of his view of America's obligations for the future.

With the members of the notification committee headed by Senator James grouped about him at Shadow Lawn, the summer White House, the president declared the republican party was "just the party that cannot meet the new conditions of a new age" and that the day of Little Americanism with "methods of protection" and industrial nursing were the chief study of our provincial statesmen" was past and gone.

"We can no longer indulge our traditional provincialism," said the president. We are to play a leading part in the world drama whether we wish to or not. We shall lend, not borrow; act for ourselves, not imitate or follow; organize and initiate, not peep about merely to see where we may get in."

Speaking of his diplomatic negotiations with the European belligerents the president followed a declaration that while property rights might be vindicated by claims for damages, the loss of life and the fundamental rights of humanity never could be, with this statement:

"The record is clear and consistent throughout and stands distinct and definite for anyone to judge who wishes to know the truth about it."

Immediately afterward he said: "I am the candidate of a party, but I am above all things else an American citizen. I neither seek the favor nor fear the displeasure of that small alien element amongst us which puts loyalty to any foreign power before loyalty to the United States."

Regarding his Mexican policy the president reiterated that the people of Mexico were struggling "blindly it may be—and as yet ineffectually" to free themselves from alien interests, "some of them Americans pressing for things they could never have got in their own country" and that he would do everything in his power to prevent anyone standing in their way.

"It is a hard doctrine," said he, "only for those who wish to get something for themselves out of Mexico." At another point the president said:

"Mistakes I have no doubt been made in this perplexing business, but not in purpose or object." He declared at another point:

"I am more interested in the fortunes of oppressed men and pitiful women and children than in any property rights whatever."

At the outset of his references to the legislative achievements of his party the president enumerated the laws placed on the statute books relating to business, including tariff revision, anti-trust revision of the banking and currency system, rural credits, rehabilitation of the merchant marine and creation of the federal trade commission.

"What other party has understood the task so well or executed it so intelligently and energetically?" he asked. "What other party has attempted it at all? The republican leaders apparently know of no means of assisting business but protection. How to stimulate it and put it upon a new footing of energy and enterprise they have not suggested."

At the conclusion of his review

Fair Catalogues Are Being Distributed.

Catalogues for the Weakley county fair, to be held at Dresden Oct. 11, 12, 13 and 14, are now being distributed. Many citizens of the county procured copies while here Monday and others have been mailed out and sent out by hand to the several towns of the county.

Secretary Webb is well pleased with the job of printing, stating to our foreman that it is the best job of catalogue printing done by this office.

As previously stated, the catalogue contains a number of changes and all interested in making exhibits would do well to look over the catalogue page by page. The special premium list is the largest and most attractive in the history of the association, and others will likely be added to this list before the fair opens.

This fair belongs to no section, no locality, no set of people, but is for the entire county and all the people thereof and all the people of the county ought to lend it their hearty support.

Special prices are given on family and season tickets.

The Enterprise and Commercial Appeal both one year for only $1.25.

of the party record the president declared:

"This extraordinary recital must sound like a platform, a list of sanguine promises; but it is not. It is a record of promises made four years ago and now actually redeemed in constructive legislation." Then, later he said: "We have in four years come very near to carrying out the platform of the progressive party as well as our own; for we are also progressives.

The president's address was some 5,000 words long, one of the most lengthy he has delivered on any occasion since taking office.

Automobile Turns Turtle Near Como.

An automobile occupied by Messrs. J. N. Wright and T. W. Jimison, from Ridgeley, Lake county, and driven by Mr. Wright, turned turtle near the home of Ed Carmack, west of Como, on last Friday afternoon, pinioning both men underneath the car.

Mr. Wright was able to extricate himself, but a corner of the windshield held Jimison by the foot and Wright was forced to procure a fencerail to raise the car off Jimison's leg. After releasing the man's leg, Wright went across a field half a mile and got aid from hay balers to right the car, during which time Jimison remained underneath it.

Mr. Wright stated after reaching town that going over a sharp little rise in the road he ran into a soft, sandy place and lost control of the car, which went into a ditch and turned over.

Mr. Jimison's left leg was considerably bruised from the knee down to the ankle and his face was bleeding from a gash on the cheek. The windshield was broken to pieces and the radiator cap was bent in. Otherwise the car was not damaged and went on its way to Ridgeley. These gentlemen were here employing cotton pickers.

HOW APPENDICITIS CAN BE PREVENTED

Weakley county people should know that a few doses of simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-i-ka, often relieve or prevent appendicitis. This simple mixture moves such surprising foul matter that ONE SPOONFUL relieves almost ANY CASE constipation, sour stomach or gas. A short treatment helps chronic stomach trouble. Adler-i-ka has easiest and most thorough action of anything we ever sold. Sold by J. C. Ammons, druggist at Gleason, The Sharon Drug Co., at Sharon.

The Enterprise and Commercial Appeal only $1.25
The Enterprise and Home and Farm only $1.25

BATHED PIGS TWICE A DAY.

At That, Neighbors of New York Man Complained to Health Board.

New York.—Spotless town has been found. It is North Bergen, N. J.

Neighbors of Louis Tracassa complained to the board of health that he did not keep his five little pigs in "clean and sanitary condition."

Tracassa appeared before the board to defend himself. With an aggrieved tone he told of his sanitary precautions.

"I give those pigs a bath every morning," he said, "and my wife bathes them every night. What more to you want? Should I get up in the middle of the night to wash them again?"

"How do you bathe them?" he was asked.

"In a tub," said Tracassa. The board of health took the case under advisement.

PULLED STUMPS TO MUSIC.

Brass Bands Played to Lighten Labor in Canadian Army Camp.

Camp Borden, Canada.—Never before was stumping done to the accompaniment of martial music. Four battalions were engaged the other day in uprooting old pine stumps while their brass bands played in the midst to lighten the labor and to allay any pain old Mother Earth might feel in the process of extraction.

About a million stumps have been removed in the camp area. As the ground is sandy, the roots are easily pulled up with a stumping machine. They are then gathered together in heaps and set on fire. The sight of these bonfires on the plain at night in the vicinity of the camp is reminiscent of Homer's Iliad.

FINED $50 FOR KILLING BEAR.

Pennsylvania Hunter Was Also Forced to Surrender Cubs.

Warren, Pa.—It cost James Nolan of Morrisons, near here, $50 and costs for killing a mother bear out of season.

While Nolan was out fishing near his home he discovered a female bear with two small cubs wandering through the forest. He quickly returned to his home and, getting his rifle, went back to the forest and killed the bear with one shot.

After killing the bear Nolan took the cubs to his home, where he was feeding them from a milk bottle, when L. K. Hogarth, state game warden, placed him under arrest. Hogarth took charge of the cubs.

Disagreeable and Dangerous Trouble is Diarrhoea, but a speedy and certain cure is found in Mississippi Diarrhoea Cordial. Price, 25c and 50c.

AT LAST
perfected a wonderful prescription for the liver to take the place of calomel. Has a pleasant taste and will make you feel better, not worse. Van Lax, Price 50c.
