

Make Your Preparation to Spend the Glorious Fourth in Dickson. A Big Time For All!

SPECIAL MEETING OF THE CITY COUNCIL

A special meeting of the City Council was held Monday night. Tom Taylor was elected a member of the City School Board to fill the vacancy caused by Dr. T. M. Harper recently removing from the city. A committee of four were appointed to take up the question with the Railroad officials in order to have the Railroad Company repair the Main Street crossing. The gentlemen composing the committee were J. T. Holley, Pitt Henslee, W. H. McMurry and E. W. Daniels.

Prof. W. P. Morrison, principal of the Public School, and Messrs. Pitt Henslee and F. H. Crow, members of the City School Board, were present and made a report as to the tuition collected by the school the last year, which was as follows:—Town's part on the boarding student's, $632.90; charged on tuition from pupils living adjacent to Dickson—who were entitled to the County-Free School, and charged for the City School—$272.82, making a total of $905.72. Of this amount $204.10 has been collected in cash and $449.02 in notes, leaving uncollected in open accounts, $227.60.

It was decided to elect a special traffic man for thirty days trial to report on the drivers of automobiles violating the speed limit in the city limits. Harry Davis was unanimously elected, and was given positive instructions to arrest all parties running over the speed limit. The Council adjourned to meet the first Monday night in July.

Weaver-Slayden Wedding One of Much Prominence

A beautifully appointed wedding and one of unusual interest was that of Miss Inogene Slayden, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. G. A. Slayden, and Dr. Hartwell Weaver, which was solemnized at 5 o'clock last Saturday afternoon at the Church of Christ.

Ferns, palms and an abundance of sweet peas blanketed the altar. Pink and green arches spanned the three aisles, and a pink arch suspended over the altar was lighted with pink and green candles. The pre-nuptial program was artistically arranged. Miss Gussie Kuykendall of Nashville sang, and Miss Mary Bailey of Memphis gave a vocal solo. Miss Helen Slayden of Ashland City, accompanied by Miss Bailey, sang a number, and Miss Slayden's vocal selection concluded the program.

The bridal party was led by the bridesmaids and groomsmen, who advanced down opposite aisles and formed couples at the altar. These were Miss Marion Fowlkes of Waverly and Geo. C. Collins, Jr., Miss Sophie May Bell of Murfreesboro and Dr. L. W. Edwards of Nashville, Miss Gladys Johnson of Little Rock, Ark., and Hugh T. Wynns, Miss Gussie Kuykendall of Nashville and Geo. W. Donegan. Then came the matron of honor, Mrs. G. L. Bouldin, who entered alone, followed by the little flower girls, Emma Leathers and Martha Joslin. The bride, who entered with her maid of honor, Miss Christine Hunt, was met at the altar by Dr. Weaver and his brother, Owen Weaver of Sikeston, Mo., who served as best man. The impressive ceremony was performed by Rev. E. B. Lavendar, of Paris, assisted by Elder I. B. Bradley, in the presence of a few hundred relatives and friends. The bride was beautiful in her wedding gown of duchess satin combined with Georgette crepe and pearls made with court train. Sprays of orange blossoms held the draperies of the skirt in place and also confined to an artistic position about her face and head the tulle veil, which fell the full length of her train. Her bouquet was bride's roses and lilies of the valley, tied with white satin ribbon embroidered in forget-me-nots. Her only ornament was a diamond brooch, a gift from her parents. The bridesmaids were lovely in costumes of pink and pale green. Misses Fowlkes and Bell wore green with hats to match, and Misses Johnson and Kuykendall wore pink with hats to match. All carried arm bouquets of pink roses. Mrs. Bouldin was very handsome in pale green crepe de chine combined with chiffon embroidered in silver and draped after a modish fashion. She wore a leghorn hat with pink roses and a touch of green. Her bouquet was pink roses. Miss Hunt was lovely in her exquisite gown of pink taffeta combined with Georgette crepe. She wore a picture hat of pink and carried pink roses. The little flower girls were daintily clad in white lingerie. One wore a pink sash, the other green.

Dr. G. L. Bouldin, S. G. Robertson and Joe B. Weems served as ushers. The bride's gifts to her maid and matron of honor were gold circular brooches, and to her bridesmaids, silver hatpins. The flower girls were given little gold lace pins. Dr. Weaver presented his attendants with gold tie clasps.

Immediately after the ceremony a buffet luncheon was served to the out-of-town guests and bridal party at the handsome Slayden home, which was especially attractive on this occasion. The reception and dining rooms were decorated in ferns and cut flowers. Mrs. E. W. Daniel and Mrs. G. L. Bouldin assisted Mrs. Slayden in receiving and serving the guests. Mrs. Slayden was gowned in a beautiful costume of blue crepe de chine and Georgette crepe.

Mrs. Weaver is a young lady possessing charming personality, and comes from a line of ancestry which has figured largely in business and social life of both Mississippi and Tennessee, and has numbers of friends who extended many congratulations. Dr. Weaver is a well known young man and one of Dickson's foremost physicians. He graduated from Vanderbilt in 1910, and will be remembered as prominent in fraternity circles. Dr. and Mrs. Weaver left on the evening train for a short eastern trip. They will be in Asheville, N. C., a few days, and on their return will be at home with the bride's parents.

A large collection of wedding gifts, consisting of silver, cut glass, china, linen and furniture was displayed in the reception rooms.

The out-of-town guests numbered about twenty-five. Previous to the wedding, Mrs. Weaver's friends extended her a round of social courtesies, which were a tribute to her popularity.

T. M. Alsop Ask For Re-Election As Constable.

Elsewhere in this issue will be found the formal announcement of T. M. Alsop, as a candidate for re-election to the office of Constable of the Fifth Civil District.

It will be remembered that Mr. Alsop was elected to this office a short time ago to fill out the unexpired-time of J. B. Cummins, who resigned to make the race for Trustee. During the brief period that he has served the district as constable, he has proven himself a worthy and capable officer, and we are confident that if he is the choice of the voters of the district in August, that he will continue to discharge his duty in a painstaking and business-like manner.

A Card.

To the Voters of Dickson County:

In view of the fact that it has been persistently rumored in certain sections of the county that I had withdrawn from the race of Tax Assessor, I desire to state that it is absolutely erroneous and without foundation. I cannot see why such should be circulated, unless it be by some one who desires to injure me in my race. I take this method of informing those who have manufactured the rumor and set it afloat, that I have access to the County Herald, and when I am ready to withdraw from the race, I shall take pleasure in notifying the voters of such action through the columns of said paper.

I wish to say now, once for all, that I am in the race to the end, as success is the goal of our ambition and it is found at the end of the way; therefore, unless health fails me, or some other providential hindrance, I shall be in the race to the election, matters not what may be said or done by others.

It may be thought by some that I am getting along very slow in my campaign, but if they will only give me time I will get around by the third of August, and I think that is time enough.

Very respectfully,
E. F. MILES,
Pardue, Tennessee.

DICKSON BOY KILLED BY TRAIN IN IOWA.

Clayton Ballard, the 20-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Ballard of this place, was killed Saturday morning by a train in Wapello, Iowa, where he had been for the past few months at work.

From the word that has been received here, it seems that his body was found on the track early Saturday morning, but the exact manner in which he was killed has not been fully learned.

He was so badly mangled that his body could not be embalmed, therefore his remains could not be shipped here for burial, and they were interred there Monday.

The heartbroken parents and brothers and sister have the sympathy of the entire community in their sad bereavement.

Pure Bred Cattle and Silos

The Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis Railway has in recent years been instrumental in the distribution of approximately five thousand blooded breeding animals in the agricultural localities reached by its lines. Such distribution has been effected through public sales directed by local live stock associations co-operating with the several national breeders associations. It is desired primarily, in addition to inducing an intelligent breeder here and there to establish pure bred herds to supply the rapidly growing Southern demand for registered cattle, to encourage the general use of pure bred sires on grade herds, thus improving and increasing the quality and quantity of beef, pork and mutton produced for the general market.

Recognizing the essential value of the silo in feeding live stock in the South, the Industrial, Agricultural and Immigration Division of the Traffic Department of the road, has published a comprehensive booklet on Silos and Silage, which has been given wide distribution along the Company's lines. The publication is still available without cost, and will be mailed to any address upon application to L. P. Bellah, General Agent, Nashville, Tenn. In fact the Company solicits requests from its agricultural patrons for this and other instructive literature.
