ANNOUNCEMENTS

REPRESENTATIVE.

MILLER.—We are authorized to announce H. T. V. Miller as a candidate for Representative of Dickson County, in the next General Assembly.

SCHMITTOW.—We are authorized to announce T. R. V. Schmittow, Jr., as a candidate for Representative, subject to the will of the voters at the Democratic Primary, Sept. 7, 1916.

It might, however, be hotter.

Suffering in silence is commendable, but it is a dingy hard job to pull off.

Kicking may afford a certain degree of satisfaction, but it promotes doubtful results.

Mr. Hughes assures us that we are living in a fateful hour. Correct, but it is even better to live than to die.

A Boston professor has predicted an alliance between England and Germany. And, strange to say, he still survives.

That fellow who dropped in the other day from the north pole can probably give us an accurate description of the fires of hell.

Chicago has produced a gospel automobile, but the meek and gentle voiced occupants wisely keep on the shady side of the street.

No, sister, marriage is never a failure. It only slips a few eggs and smashes the rest and then forgets to hunt the repair men.

About every fifth day some enthusiast arises and declares a lasting European peace—in the newspapers—and the next day "hell breaks loose again."

The Germans want peace because they think they have won the war, and the allies refuse to accept it because they are sure they will win the war. Therefore, on with the carnival of blood.

United States prestige is said to be growing abroad, according to a Washington dispatch. No mention is made, however, of our standing with our dear friends across the Rio Grande.

"Europe has reached the point in the war where it refuses to count the cost," is the latest from over yonder. Possibly on the theory that it is easier to forget to count than it is to pay.

AGE OF SCIENTIFIC DISCOVERIES.

Several years ago a cumbersome contrivance on two wheels made its appearance and created a furor of ridicule, laughter and jeers. It was the bicycle. It was called a rich man's toy and a middle-class plaything, and a short life was predicted. But the prophets were at fault; the bicycle became the greatest craze of its day, and now is in general use as a practical necessity for people who find it necessary to cover ground hurriedly and yet cannot afford the more expensive means.

A few years later, another ugly looking monster puffed and snorted and rattled its way into public notice, leaving in its wake a streak of smoke and foul smelling odors. It was the automobile, and it, too, was greeted with wild shouts and grimaces of ridicule. The wise and the unwise both predicted its failure as a practical vehicle of motive power. Yet the millions in use today testify to the falseness of the great set of our prophets.

A few weeks ago there appeared in one of our Atlantic coast ports a great and powerful merchant submarine. It came from Germany and had nosed its way beneath the surface into neutral waters despite the watchfulness of the warships of the allies. Another furor was created and the newspapers were filled with accounts of the wonderful craft that had made its way across the Atlantic with a cargo of goods. Again, the prophets see failure ahead, but there are those who believe the Deutschland to be but the harbinger of a great fleet of underwater craft capable of con-

RENEWED TESTIMONY

No one in Dickson who suffers backache, headache, or distressing urinary ills can afford to ignore this Dickson man's twice-told story. It is confirmed testimony that no Dickson resident can doubt.

J. B. Bailard, painter, Church St. and Rickert Ave., Dickson, says: "My back ached and I had pains through my kidneys. My kidneys were also weak. I used Doan's Kidney Pills, procured from the Myatt Drug Co., and they made me well. I have had no trouble since." (Statement given February 15th, 1911.)

On April 8, 1915, Mr. Bailard said: "The cure Doan's Kidney Pills gave me has been permanent. Go ahead and use my statement, for I have found people who have bought Doan's Kidney Pills on my recommendation and have likewise been cured."

ducting commercial relations with other countries irrespective of blockades or enemy ships of war.

These few instances but illustrate the fact that the ingenuity of man is yet in its infancy, that the surface of scientific discovery has scarcely been scratched, and that our children and our children's children will look back upon 1916 as we think of the Dark Ages, when the mind of man was sleeping in its cradle of lethargy.

IN THE MAIL BOX.

Tia Juana, Mexico, July 26, 1916.
Editor of Herald, Dickson, Tennessee.

Don't think for a minute that I am patriotic enough to be here to fight. A business engagement brought me into this country, and I am thinking that a brief statement of the conditions along the border, as well as a short description of the country, might be of interest to some of your readers, so while I am waiting to get passage back to San Diego tonight, I will write you a few lines.

In coming across the border into Mexico the Mexican Government officials, instead of examining your luggage, greet you with a smile and a bow and are really painfully polite; on the other hand, when you go back into the U. S. our custom officers not only examine everything you have with you very closely as to what you bought in Mexico, but charge you duty on everything of value over $1.00 except tobacco, however, that has not bothered me, as I have only had occasion to make one purchase, and this was $1,000 worth of Villa money that cost me thirty cents. My headquarters have been at National City, Cal., right on the border where I can go across the line and back as I wish.

Troops, both regular and state, are lined up every where on our side, but their chief occupation seems to be playing cards and baseball. No one seems to have a disposition to want to fight, in fact, most everyone seems to be happy and cheerful. Gambling in every conceivable form is carried on openly and above-board, and seems to be one of the chief occupations and virtues. You can try your hand at most any kind of a game, but one time is usually enough. The big race meeting closed here last Sunday for a while, but the bull and chicken fight go on forever.

I am told that this part of Mexico—"Lower California"—has never been mixed up with the uprising over across the Gulf, the Governor of this section having never recognized the sovereignty of any of the so-called leaders or rulers.

If I just had Sil Tidwell, Mun Cortez, Sil Hicks (no Peruna here), Jess Holley, George Wright, and a few other old standbys, with Tom Dickson to entertain the crowd and Felix Hickerson to manage the finances, we could make a fortune buying this Villa money, then help him start up his government and make it good. Boys, don't forget to bring Pitt Henalee and Bob Boyte along to help out on the finances. We won't need them to fight, but you might bring Tom Patton and Jack Taylor for this purpose, and Henry Smith to talk Spanish for us.

You see from the above that I am kinder homesick. Well, the trucks are all washed out, and it is slow traveling, but I am back across the line.

About this country. You see thousands and thousands of acres of beans, barley and oats. I drove the other day through over 100 miles of orange trees, was in the centre of the lemon district, an orchard containing 50,000 acres. This fruit is being gathered here now—when they can get hands to work, plenty of laborers, but the most of them belong to the "I Won't Work" class. Figs, bananas, English walnuts and olive trees everywhere. This is called the garden spot of the world, and it looks it. I am making this letter too long, but I want to tell your readers that I have visited most of the countries in this old world, and to me there is no place like Dickson County. I believe one can live better and make more money raising tobacco in Dickson County than anywhere in the world—especially on Hortense land.

I will try and find time to write more about this country before coming back home.

Yours truly,
W. B. LEECH.

Old Hickory Chapter Meets.

Mrs. Eugene Payne was the gracious hostess at a most enjoyable meeting of the U. D. C's. at her home on Walnut Street.

The guests were received and seated on the lawn, which was very attractive with hanging baskets of flowers and potted plants. After the arrival of the guests, frozen grape juice was served by Misses Sara Payne, Hazel and Pauline Hooper.

Mrs. McMurry opened the meeting for business, and the Secretary read the minutes. Applications for membership were made by Mesdames Harry Hooper, W. C. Steele, Ola Jordan, and Miss Lillie Petway. The committee appointed to visit the sick were Mesdames Clayton Smith and James Watson. During roll-call the Daughters turned in their money which they had earned by their words, and told in rhyme how it was made. Quite a lot of talent was displayed in the poetical line, and $23.65 was received.

The meeting was then turned over to Mrs. Guerin, the historian, and the following splendid program was rendered: A paper, "Katie McCauley Tally," by her granddaughter, Mrs. W. A. Meadow; Music, Mrs. Raymond Joslin; A paper, "Dixie," Mrs. W. A. Moore; Music on piano and harp, Mesdames Vivere and Hooper; Reading, "Blue and the Gray," Mrs. Joe B. Weems.

The visitors present were: Mrs. Harry Hooper, Dennison, Texas; Mrs. Bow Hooper and daughters, Waco, Texas; Miss Florence Leathers and mother, New Jersey; Miss Fannie Roberts, Philadelphia; Miss Stephenson, Centerville; Miss Carr and Mrs. Vivere, Nashville; Misses Georgie Lee Jones and Eula Joslin; Mesdames Tally, Raymond Joslin and Lige Daniels. The hostess served a delicious salad course, after which she presented Mesdames Tally and Leathers with a remembrance, this being their birthday. As the guests departed the hostess served large bunches of grapes fresh from their vineyard. Mrs. Slayden will be the next hostess on September 6th.
