

NO EXPERT WITNESS NEEDED

Quite Evident Mr. Miggs Was Right When He Testified as to the Handwriting.

"Label, indeed!" Old Miggs repeated the words to himself dully and uncomprehendingly, as he tramped along to the court, where he was to appear as a witness in a local libel suit.

Nervously he entered the witness box. The fierce looking lawyer eyed him calculatingly.

"Do you swear," he asked, "that this is not your handwriting?" "I don't think so," stammered Miggs.

"Now, be careful," intimated the lawyer. "Are you prepared to swear that this handwriting does not resemble yours?"

"Yes," answered Miggs trembling. "You take your oath that this does not in any way resemble your handwriting?" solemnly queried the learned man.

"Yes, sir," stammered the witness, now thoroughly frightened.

"Well, then, prove it!" denounced the lawyer triumphantly, as he thrust his head toward the witness.

This action woke the last spark of drooping courage in poor Miggs; and, thrusting forth his head, he yelled: "Cos I can't write!"

WHAT TO DO FOR HOT WEATHER SKIN TROUBLES

With hot weather comes the worst skin suffering for some folks. Eczema, hives, heat-rash, insect-bites, poison oak or ivy, sunburn, chafing, and a dozen other troubles make life unendurable. But YOU needn't worry. That soothing, antiseptic resinol ointment stops itching and burning instantly, allays inflammation, and soon restores the skin to perfect health, even in severe, stubborn cases. Doctors have prescribed resinol ointment for 19 years. At all druggists.—Adv.

Law's Uncertainties.

"When you poke a toad," said old Farmer Hornbeck, philosophically, "you can't tell which way he will jump, nor how far; an' it is just about the same way with a jury." "That so?" returned young Jay Green, in a noncommittal way.

"Yep. For instance, in the case of Plunk Jarvis, who has just been tried over at Kickyhasset courthouse for pullin' out his brother-in-law's whiskers by the roots in a fight, the jury discharged Plunk an' fined his brother-in-law 10 cents, the regular price of a shave."—Puck.

Outspoken.

Mrs. Smith's four sons, made the life of her old colored servant a burden. One day Uncle Andy was busy in the garden hoeing corn, and for half an hour Tom, the most mischievous of the quartet, had amused himself throwing clods of dirt at him. At last Andy threw down his hoe and stamped indignantly down to the house.

"Miss Ella," he said, to the little culprit's mother, "Ah jes' has to tell you dat dat boy Tawm an' de meane's chile yu got—an Ah tells you fo' yo' face and tells you behine yo' back!"

John Vincent Honeywell, the veteran life guard of Bar Harbor, was talking about bathing suits. "They tell me," said the wise old man, "that the girls 'll wear suits this summer to match the eyes."

He added with a chuckle: "Suits to catch the eyes 'll still be popular, too."

PRIZE FOOD.

Palatable, Economical, Nourishing.

A Nebr. woman has outlined the prize food in a few words, and that from personal experience. She writes:

"After our long experience with Grape-Nuts, I cannot say enough in its favor. We have used this food almost continually for seven years.

"We sometimes tried other advertised breakfast foods but we invariably returned to Grape-Nuts as the most palatable, economical and nourishing of all.

"When I quit tea and coffee and began to use Postum and Grape-Nuts, I was almost a nervous wreck. I was so irritable I could not sleep nights, had no interest in life.

"After using Grape-Nuts a short time I began to improve and all these ailments have disappeared and now I am a well woman. My two children have been almost raised on Grape-Nuts, which they eat three times a day.

"They are pictures of health and have never had the least symptom of stomach trouble, even through the most severe stage of whooping cough they could retain Grape-Nuts when all else failed.

"Grape-Nuts food has saved doctor bills, and has been, therefore, a most economical food for us."

ZAPATKA WILL AID IN PEACE PLANS

WASHINGTON GETS ASSURANCES FROM ALL REBEL LEADERS. WILL PACIFY MEXICO.

AMNESTY IS PROMISED

Carranza Sends Renewed Assurances of His Friendliness for United States—Will Give Guarantees Desired by Carbajal.

Washington.—Official advice revealed that the Washington administration was meeting with success in bringing Provisional President Carbajal, Gen. Carranza, Gen. Villa and Gen. Emiliano Zapata into harmony for the restoration of peace in Mexico.

From these four leaders—representing all factors concerned in the establishment of a stable government—came encouraging messages in answer to the counsel and advice which the United States has been lending to smooth the way to a complete agreement.

Gen. Zapata promised to co-operate with the constitutionalists in the work of pacification. Two emissaries from Gen. Carranza to Gen. Zapata are due in Vera Cruz, and will explain to Zapata the concessions and reforms planned by Carranza. Officials were confident an amicable understanding would be reached and did not attribute any significance to the activity of the roaming Zapatistas bands near Mexico City.

Gen. Carranza through the American consul accompanying him sent renewed assurances of his friendliness for the United States and indicated he would make satisfactory arrangements concerning the amnesty and guarantees desired by the Carbajal government. Carranza arrived at Tampico, while there he will meet Reginaldo Cepeda, his intimate friend, who has been authorized by Provisional President Carbajal to make preliminary arrangements for the transfer of the government to the constitutionalists.

While Gen. Carranza is ready to grant an amnesty and give guarantees to those who have opposed the constitutionalists, persons criminally responsible for the assassination of Madero and Sarez will not be given immunity. As most of the guilty have fled the country the Carbajal government is not disposed to object to such exceptions, especially as it is intended to prosecute them through the courts.

Provisional President Carbajal himself sent for the Brazilian minister, who is caring for the interests of the United States in Mexico, and asked him to inform the Washington government that he and his associates wanted no share in the new administration, but simply an amnesty and guarantee for the property of all Mexicans, regardless of political affiliations. Mr. Carbajal's statement was transmitted to American Consul Silliman, to assist in preparing the way for the peace conferences to be held when Cepeda arrives.

Doubts which officials had expressed over Gen. Villa's attitude also were quieted, when word came from him that he would do all in his power to restore peace in Mexico, and would unite with the other constitutionalist leaders toward that common purpose. Villa's message was sent in response to the personal appeal of the Washington government. Officials felt, after the receipt of Villa's message, that even if political dissension did arise such friction would not be permitted by Villa to develop to the point of counter revolution.

A message was received from Charge Inaouss of the French embassy, who informed Secretary Bryan that an investigation by agents of the French government completely exonerated Villa from personal blame in connection with the killing at Zacatecas recently of two French citizens, members of the Order of Christian Brothers.

HUERTA ARRIVES KINGSTON

Kingston, Jamaica.—Gen. Huerta and the party of fugitives from Mexico accompanying him arrived aboard the German cruiser Dresden from Puerto Mexico.

Arrangements had been made in advance for the former Mexican dictator, with Gen. Blanquet and the rest of the party, to remain here for a week or more at a hotel where several other Mexican refugees already have taken up their quarters.

CEPEDA SELECTED AS AGENT

Carbajal's Envoy Goes to Sign Armistice With Carranza—Latter More Yielding.

Washington.—Reginaldo Cepeda, senator from the state of Coahuila and intimate friend of Gen. Carranza, has been selected by Provisional President Carbajal to negotiate the transfer of the government at Mexico City to the constitutionalists.

Mr. Cepeda, who was in hiding in Mexico City during the Huerta dictatorship, left Vera Cruz for Tampico to meet Gen. Carranza. He has full instructions and authority to arrange for the transfer of government.

Jose Castellot, personal representative of Mr. Carbajal, conveyed this information to Secretary Bryan, Messrs. Mangel, Novelo and Uruesta, who, it had been supposed, would constitute the Carbajal commission. It was learned, merely volunteered their services and have no credentials or authority from Carbajal.

As soon as Dr. Cepeda is received by Gen. Carranza an armistice will be formally signed as the first step in the negotiations. Gen. Carranza has indicated his willingness to declare a truce during the negotiations, and the Carbajal government is anxious to do likewise. The Carbajal envoy has been instructed to ask for only two things—a complete amnesty for political offenders and guarantees of protection to the lives and property of the Mexican people.

Secretary Bryan expressed confidence there would be no difficulty in the way of a Carranza-Carbajal agreement.

There are, however, two other factors in the problem—Villa and Zapata—causing uneasiness, but President Wilson said he was sure Villa would cause no trouble. Secretary Bryan made public dispatches from George C. Carothers, special representative of the state department with Villa, saying the fighting general would not break with Carranza.

Mexicans here who have been kept advised of Villa's antipathy toward Carranza say the breach has been healed but temporarily. They say Villa will remain quietly in Northern Mexico and when Carranza reaches Mexico City and a conference of generals is called Villa will make vigorous demands for a share in the government or in the promotions of his friends. Villa's potential strength will be his position in Northern Mexico, for it is said he will let envoys argue his case for him in the capital.

IN TOUCH WITH CAPITAL

Rebels Expect to Enter Mexico City Without Bloodshed—Advance Guard Near City.

Victoria, Tamaulipas, Mexico.—Direct telegraphic communication between Mexico City and Gen. Carranza, constitutionalist chief, was opened here. Officers with Carranza said afterward that the triumphal entry of the constitutionalists into Mexico City and without bloodshed is assured. Carranza is here en route to Tampico.

Gen. Carranza received a telegram from Robles Romo in Mexico City asking for instructions.

Dominiguez has been General Carranza's confidential agent in the capital since the beginning of the revolution. He also acted as intermediary during the Madero revolution and it was to him that Gen. Diaz turned over the government and the city during the time between his departure for Europe and the entry of Francisco Madero. Gen. Carranza's reply to Mr. Dominguez was not made public here.

Constitutionalist officials here regard it as certain that the preliminary arrangements both through Mr. Dominguez and with commissioners Carbajal is expected to appoint to confer with Gen. Carranza at Saltillo will be brief and that the first chief will enter the capital at the head of his victorious troops with little delay.

The opening of direct communication was not unexpected here. Constitutional officials assert that Gen. Carranza already had received information from diplomatic sources through his agents in the United States that Carbajal formally had expressed his inclination to turn over unconditionally not only the reins of government and the city, but also the federal army. The news of the opening of communication with the capital was communicated at once to John R. Silliman, President Wilson's personal representative with Gen. Carranza.

The journey of Gen. Carranza to Tampico was not continued because of the press of business. There was a general feeling of rejoicing here, as the impression prevailed that the fighting and bloodshed of the present movement in Mexico is at an end.

It was understood that every precaution would be taken by Gen. Carranza, as well as by the authorities in Mexico City, to prevent disorder or destruction of life or property in the capital until his arrival.

Suffered Everything Until Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Florence, So. Dakota.—"I used to be very sick every month with bearing down pains and had backache, and had headache a good deal of the time and very little appetite. The pains were so bad that I used to sit right down on the floor and cry, because it hurt me so and I could not do any work at those times. An old woman advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I got a bottle. I felt better the next month so I took three more bottles of it and got well so I could work all the time. I hope every woman who suffers like I did will try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. P. W. LANSENG, Route No. 1, Florence, South Dakota.

ECZEMA ON CHILD'S FACE

Marpleton, W. Va.—"When my little boy was one year old he broke out in little fine pimples all over his face. At times they would dry up and get scaly and peel off, then they would break out fresh again. He would scratch them until his face would be raw. The eczema looked angry and ran blood and corruption. His face was red and disfigured. He seemed restless and I had to be up with him the greater part of the nights.

"I applied various remedies without result. He continued to break out with the eczema until I sent for some Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I used them and the first application eased him. In ten days he was completely cured." (Signed) Mrs. Lizzie Mollohan, Jan. 2, 1914.

Stranger Lost the Confidence of Truthful Fisherman When He Made His Inquiry.

Representative Frank Clark, Representative Howard of Georgia, and Superintendent George W. Hess of the botanic gardens, were having a friendly argument at Washington.

"Howard," said Clark, banteringly, "I just want to illustrate to you in a story how little you know about this. There is in my district in Florida an attractive village named Callahan."

"One day a stranger walking along a road in the country near a creek saw a youth fishing."

"Young man," said the ministerial-looking individual, "can you tell me the way to Callahan?"

"Yes," replied the boy, "take the first road to your right."

"Instead of proceeding on his journey, the stranger gazed intently at the boy a few moments and said: 'My young friend, don't you know you are wasting your time in a way that is dreadful to contemplate? You are fishing, just fishing, when you ought to be a-studyin' of books to prepare yourself for life's struggle. My boy, you're sure on the road to perdition.'"

"Road to perdition?" replied the indignant youth. "What in blazes do you know about roads? You don't even know the road to Callahan."
