BOARD OF EDUCATION NAMES TEACHERS FOR ALL COUNTY SCHOOLS

List Given Out For Publication
By Superintendent Joe
Routon

SOME PLACES TO BE FILLED BY BOARD AT LATER DATE

C. M. Mathis Chosen Principal
Of Southern Training
School At Henry

Following the adjournment of the Board of Education last week, County Superintendent Joe Routon announced the names of the teachers selected for various schools throughout Henry county.

The Board of Education made every effort to satisfy both the teachers and patrons of the various schools in making these appointments and there is no doubt that the selections made will meet with general approval.

It is announced that the board will meet later to fill the places that were not filled at the recent session.

Following is the list of teachers who have been appointed to date, with their schools:

Antioch, W. C. Flowers; Briar Wood, Mary Ethridge; Bell Academy, Mary McSwain; Buchanan, Nola Newport; Bothe; May Lee; Clifty, Grace Derrington; Carter, Brooks Bucy; Caledonia, Lizzie Will Edwards; Center, Mary Penick, principal, Mary Hunt, intermediate, Mary Tyson, primary; Crawford, Lucy Alexander; Central Point, Essie Walters; Conyersville, Hinda Brown, principal, Mrs. Pearl Perkins, assistant; Como, Maude Waller, principal; Cochran, L. ### PORTERSAYS SIMS HAS OUTLIVED DAY OF HIS USEFULNESS

Dudley Porter, candidate for Congress, spoke at the Sulphur Well Tuesday. He discussed Good Roads, Preparedness and other national questions. He also referred to the Senatorial race of Congressman Sims, and had the following to say regarding some of the campaign arguments now being made by Mr. Sims: "Judge Sims, and his subsidized newspapers are advancing the argument that it would be unwise, in view of the European and Mexican situations, to retire from Congress an experienced man like Mr. Sims at this time. It will be recalled, that in the campaign of 1910, that the Congressman and these same newspapers were singing practically the same tune and making practically the same argument. They then said that the Democrats of the Eighth District would commit a grievous error if they failed to re-elect Mr. Sims, because the tariff would probably be revised by the 62nd Congress, and that under such conditions a man of experience would be needed in Congress.

In view of the fact, that Judge Sims is not Chairman of the committee on Foreign Affairs, or any other committee that deals with the grave problems presented by the European and Mexican Wars, and is not regarded as a Congressional leader in Washington, it does not seem to me that the logic of the Congressman and his lieutenants can hardly be considered sound. The republic does not rest upon the shoulders of Judge Sims, and he is not a national necessity. Other young Tennesseans, who were elected to Congress years later than Mr. Sims, have become conspicuous members of the House of Representatives and are invited to the White House to confer with the President about the Foreign situation. Why does not President Wilson also seek the advice and counsel of the veteran Representative, from the Eighth Tennessee District? Mr. Sims, in his speeches and letters, dwells at length upon the many advantages of long Congressional service. Nearly 20 years of Congressional ser-

WHITLOCK GETS VOTES OF HENRY COUNTY FOR JOINT REPRESENTATIVE

Convention Unanimously Instructs For Local Candidate
For Floater

THOMASON, SCRUGGS, DUNLAP RECEIVED THE INSTRUCTIONS

Floterial Convention Will Be Held at McKenzie Friday of Next Week

By unanimous vote the Democratic convention held at the court house Monday afternoon to select delegates to the McKenzie convention of July 14 instructed this county's delegates to vote as a unit for the nomination of T. H. Whitlock for Floterial Representative.

Dr. A. H. Miller, member of the Floterial committee, called the convention to order. On motion of W. D. Cooper, S. P. Fitzhugh was elected chairman, and upon motion of Dr. Miller, Natnan D. White was chosen secretary.

Frank E. Bryant then introduced a resolution naming the delegates and instructing them to vote for Mr. Whitlock for Floater. The resolution further provided "that the delegates herein named be instructed to introduce and support a resolution in the floterial convention instructing the nominee of that convention to vote in the Legislature for the Hon. J. B. Thomason for Comptroller, Hon. Porter Dunlap for Treasurer and Hon. W. D. Scruggs for Secretary of State."

W. D. Cooper moved to amend by striking out that part of the resolution in regard to Messrs. Thomason, Dunlap and Scruggs. He said that Messrs. Thomason and Dunlap had been endorsed by the Democrats of the county in a previous convention and that as there were two or more candidates for Secretary of State and might be others that he did not think the convention should instruct for any candidate for that position.

Mr. Bryant stated that he thought the convention should instruct for Messrs. Thomason, Dunlap and Scruggs, as the former endorsement of Messrs. Thomason and Dunlap was not binding on the nominee. He moved to table the amendment. Upon aye and no vote the amendment was declared tabled.

Mr. Cooper moved to reconsider in order that he might move to amend by striking out reference

BENTON COUNTY SIMS LEADER DECLARES FOR PORTER FOR CONGRESS

"Hon. Dudley Porter, candidate for Congress addressed a large audience at Eva City Tuesday. He was introduced by Hon. A. P. Lashlee, who has always been a strong supporter of Mr. Sims but is enthusiastic for Dudley Porter. He says 20 years in a public office is enough for any man. This district, the tenth, has long been a stronghold of Mr. Sims in Benton county, but from present indications it will be found in the Porter columns after this race."—Pembroke correspondent for Camden Chronicle. adv.

ALLEGED SALOONIST IS PARDONED BY GOV. RYE

According to the Thursday morning edition of the News-Scimitar, Will Winter, who is said to have operated a saloon at 531 South Main street, Memphis, and who was sentenced to jail for thirty days and fined $50 by the chancery court when held in contempt in 1905, has been pardoned by Gov. T. C. Rye, according to the News-Scimitar's information from Nashville. He was pardoned before he had an opportunity to serve any part of the sentence.

"Information from Nashville," says the News-Scimitar, "Is that Winter is one of the prosecuting witnesses who went to Nashville and testified against Judge Edgington in his impeachment trial."

The Supreme Court had affirmed the sentence of the chancery court last month.

HARRIS WILL SOON OPEN MODERN CAFE

The building on the South side of court square, recently occupied by the Yeager Millinery Co., is being remodeled and repaired and about the middle of July, C. L. Harris will open a bakery, cafe and soda fountain in the place.

Mr. Harris promises that the place will be one of the most up-to-date in the State. He is sparing nothing in his efforts to make it modern and attractive.

PARTY OF BOY SCOUTS CAMP AT WHITE OAK; ENJOY ANNUAL OUTING

Parents of Scouts Contributed Funds For Purchase Of New Tents

LARGE NUMBER PARIS BOYS ON CAMPING EXPEDITION

Party is Accompanied By Rev.
B. B. Lavender, Dr. Geo.
McSwain, C. Moody

Was there ever a boy who had no desire to go on a camping expedition?

Probably there never was. Anyway, a bunch of Paris boy scouts wanted to go and so they went and are now enjoying their annual outing at White Oak, having left Sunday midnight for Stewart and hiked from Stewart to White Oak, where they will spend ten days in camp.

The boys carried with them tents, purchased with funds donated by their parents, and are accompanied by Rev. B. B. Lavender, Dr. George McSwain and Curtis Moody. Ira Haynes, colored, will do the cooking for the party.

They have answered the "call of the wild," as the tired business man, clerk, lawyer and all the others would like to do, have cut themselves off from the outside world and for nearly two weeks will enjoy real camp life on the banks of White Oak creek.

The party of scouts is made up of the following boys: Charles Veltman, Robert Foreman, Adrian Parker, Steele Ezell, Charles Dunlap, James Frank Porter, William Lasater, Harvey Brisendine, Herman Claxton, Fred Balch, Carsey Gatlin, Hobson Johnsonius, Eddie Jenkins, Herron Kibbons, J. P. Laster, Eugene Rison, Barton McSwain, Lawton Luckey and Charles Lacy.

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON, Thursday—Noon.—Carranza's note to the United States government pleased officials and it is the belief that war has been averted by the Mexican leaders proposition to settle the differences by mediation.

Justices Postpone Matter of Time Warrants Until Next
Year In Order To Substitute
Bonds—Jury Venire Is Named at Session of Quarterly
Court -- Chautauqua
Must Pay License

Monday the county court, in quarterly session, defeated a proposition made by Justice W. M. Huddleston that the court proceed with the election of the three commissioners to have charge of the funds to be derived from the road bond issue, in case the bond issue is ratified in August.

Justice Huddleston urged that the commissioners be selected in advance and ratified by the next term of the court in order that the people might know before voting for the bond issue who would have charge of the expenditure of the funds.

Opponents of Justice Huddleston's proposition thought that the court had no authority and could not name the commissioners until the bond issue was carried.

The matter of the $65,000 time warrants, authorized to pay off the county's indebtedness, was taken up and, in accordance with the suggestion made in Judge Clendenin's message, was postponed until next year in order that the Legislature might enact an enabling measure, allowing the county to issue negotiable bonds instead of time warrants.

The special tax levy of 25 cents on the $100 was made for the purpose of paying interest on the $65,000 indebtedness and any remainder to be applied on this indebtedness.

Justice W. T. Snow tendered his resignation as County Home Commissioner. It was accepted and W. D. McSwain was unanimously elected as his successor.

C. E. Hastings appeared before the court to request that the Chautauqua be released from the county's part of the privilege license. His application was disallowed by the court.

The venire from which the juries are to be selected at the

Grove Dormitory Movement Is Meeting Encouragement; More Than $7,000 Raised

More than $7,000 of the $17,000 needed for the erection of the proposed boys dormitory at Grove school has already been subscribed and the committee is meeting with much encouragement. Considerable enthusiasm is being shown by the citizens, not only of Paris, but of the whole county.

One month of vacation has already passed. Grove will open for another term in September and the boosters for the dormitory are anxious to get the work started on the building.

The committee is composed of W. C. Johnson, chairman, J. M. Freeman, W. R. Lasater, F. M.

VanCleave, J. H. McSwain, J. W. Aclin, J. C. Porter, J. W. Travis, E. B. McGehee, W. D. McSwain, J. D. Atkins, G. L. Powers, J. L. Clendenin, A. B. Scates, R. E. Hancock, Frank Porter, C. E. Hastings, C. B. Aden, J. M. Porter and Dr. G. T. Abernathy.

Within a few days the list of those who have contributed, with the amount, will be given out for publication. This list will appear in The Parisian next week. Those who desire to subscribe to the worthy movement can call either of the members of the committee and their subscriptions will be gladly entered.

MAPS! MAPS! MAPS!

Murray National Guards Off To Mobilization Camp; Local Boys Join Forces With Troop

"I feel just like you are my boy," said a Paris woman to one of the members of the Murray company of national guards, a local boy, as she bid him good-bye at the N. C. & St. L. depot Saturday night.

The company, which has more than a dozen members from Paris, was enroute to Fort Thomas for mobilization. They arrived over the N. C. & St. L. Saturday night at 8:15 and left over the L. & N. at midnight. The Paris boys were given an opportunity to bid friends and relatives good-bye during the stop-over here.

Among the Paris boys who joined the company, after becoming convinced that there was little chance to recruit a company here, were Jasper Rison, Hall Fairleigh, Crawford Chambers, Leonard Steele, George Edging, Randle Ray, John Ray, Walter Ezell, Chauncey Farmer, Jim Farmer, Roy Hughes, Roy Tatum, Lloyd Travis and Vernon Watkins.

LEAVE FOR NASHVILLE

J. A. Ewing, Jesse Ballard and W. T. Wright, who enlisted in the national guard service here recently, left Thursday morning for the mobilization camp at Nashville.
