

THE ST. LUCIE COUNTY TRIBUNE LADIES' AID SOCIETY ELECTS OFFICERS

Published Every Friday... A. K. WILSON, Editor and Proprietor... TRISTINE BASTIAN, M.P.M. Secy.

A very interesting report of the Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist Church... The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. W. N. Hendry...

The drinking of an abundance of water will prevent appendicitis... The winter is a newcomer to Fort Pierce but does not anticipate a dull existence in this thriving little city.

In looking over our exchanges this week our attention was naturally called to the improved appearance of the Punta Gorda Herald and the Melbourne Times... The Underwriters' Merited Success.

In the midst of the political agitations comes the announcement of Adhemar Brady of Titusville, as a candidate for the State Senate from this, the thirteenth senatorial district of Florida to be voted for at the general election to be held in November, 1918.

GOVERNOR BROWARD OFFERS LARGE REWARD

STATE OF FLORIDA, EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, TALLAHASSEE, FLA., DECEMBER 12, 1916. Whereas it is officially made known to me that on the night of December 11th, A. D. 1916, in the County of St. Lucie, State of Florida, party to parties known as the following Henry Pitts, Frank certain engines and six launches, belonging to Mrs. N. Savitides and the Sheriff, find it impossible to capture the said party or parties, as they have fled from justice.

Old Time Dance at Jensen. An old-fashioned costume dance will be given by the local camp, Woodmen of the World, of Jensen, in the town hall at that place, Tuesday night, January 22. The program will include, quadrilles, lancers, polka, schottisch, etc., as well as the new dances.

The Underwriters' Merited Success. Hyde & Davis, state agents for the Underwriters Fire Extinguishers have been in town the past week and have succeeded in placing about fifty extinguishers in this vicinity, which shows the wisdom of our people in thus preparing themselves to fight fire.

There was a good turnout at the ball game in Jensen last Friday. Mrs. W. F. Richards took a party down. A launch party went from John Miller's, and "there were others" from this place, and of course we were glad to see our neighbors win the game.

WABASSO. Sebron Jones has gone to Titusville and Eau Gallie on business. Miss Ella Wigfield, of Dania, spent Christmas with friends at Wabasso. Misses Gertrude Jones and Jane Bond were over from the island this week.

Sons of Temperance. For several weeks A. Lamont, D. M. W. P. of the Sons of Temperance has been searching for a place for the Fort Pierce Division No. 1, Sons of Temperance to meet in and has not left one stone unturned in his endeavor to secure a meeting place for the order.

Quite a number of our citizens attended a concert at the Indian River and were delightfully entertained by the Wabasso quartette Wednesday night of last week. Quite an extensive fishing party was formed on New Years day in which eight families from Wabasso were represented, going to Sebastian creek, where an old fashioned fish fry was engaged in.

EDEN. Many of our people are enjoying the seasonal influenza. Mr. and Mrs. John Richards went to Stuart Saturday night and returned Sunday night. They are very busy these days packing and repacking preserves, beans, oranges and larders.

Mr. W. Hanning of Newark, N. J., who visited here last winter, has returned to his home during the Christmas holidays. Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Ankeny and Mr. and Mrs. George E. Brown, Mrs. Edgar Lewis and Mrs. L. B. Abell were recent pleasant visitors at this place.

Rev. G. B. Waldron filled his appointment here as usual last Sunday morning. At three o'clock he preached to a fine congregation at Anokoa, and at 7:30 to the good people at Jensen. Mrs. Henry E. Cole has taken a position in James Neal's store at Jensen. We are all glad to see such a capable woman in charge of the dry goods department. It means success for the store.

Miss Mary Hamilton is visiting her friend Mrs. J. H. LeTourneau. She has been at Rockledge for three months with her niece, Mrs. Hervey Bowen, and is now on her way to her home at Miami. Sunday, January 13th, the Rev. Dr. Moore will preach in St. Paul's church, Eden-Tribola, at 11 a. m. Theme for sermon: A great obstacle to the belief of revealed religion is the difficulty of reasoning it to our notions of what is reasonable.

WABASSO. Sebron Jones has gone to Titusville and Eau Gallie on business. Miss Ella Wigfield, of Dania, spent Christmas with friends at Wabasso. Misses Gertrude Jones and Jane Bond were over from the island this week.

Sons of Temperance. For several weeks A. Lamont, D. M. W. P. of the Sons of Temperance has been searching for a place for the Fort Pierce Division No. 1, Sons of Temperance to meet in and has not left one stone unturned in his endeavor to secure a meeting place for the order.
