

VISITORS, HOME FOLKS AND THINGS ABOUT TOWN

COMING EVENTS.

Mrs. Mae Cook will entertain with a bridge party tomorrow afternoon, complimentary to her niece Mrs. Tom Dupree. This entertainment will be given at the home of Mrs. Cook on Convention street and quite a number of guests have been invited to attend this affair.

Fair at St. Vincent Hall.

The young folks will be delighted to know that a dance will be given each night of the Fair on Friday and Saturday, October 14th and 15th, and excellent music will be furnished on both occasions.

Meeting of the Reviewers October 14th at 4 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. C. J. Kean, on Grandpre street.

Meetings.

The regular meeting of the Rest Room will take place on Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at headquarters on Lafayette street.

BAZAAR ON ARMISTICE DAY.

The Woman's Auxiliary of the American Legion will have a Bazaar on November 11th, Armistice Day, in the Raymond Arcade, on which occasion all kinds of hand-made work, candy, sandwiches, cakes, etc., will be sold by members of the Auxiliary for the purpose of raising money to help the Legion care for the disabled soldiers.

PHILHARMONIC ORCHESTRA.

The people of Baton Rouge are delighted to know that the Philharmonic Orchestra is now rehearsing for the series of Sunday matinee concerts which will begin on December 11th. Prof. Stopher made such a decided success of these concerts last season, that the music-loving people of this city are eagerly anticipating these delightful events.

FAIR TO-DAY AND TO-MORROW.

St. Margaret's Daughters and the Catholic Women of America are giving a big festival on St. Vincent campus to-day and to-morrow for the benefit of the Varsity Manor. All kinds of amusements will be furnished for those who attend. A good band will be in attendance both nights and a grand success is looked forward to by the promoters. This fair has been well advertised and the attractions offered, and the purpose for which it is given insures its success.

THE PUBLIC LIBRARY.

This institution is becoming more and more necessary to the people of Baton Rouge and vicinity.

Several of the high schools of the parish have made arrangement with the Board of Managers of the library to secure books for collateral reading for the pupils, and each week these books are exchanged for others thus giving the schools the same opportunity as the schools in the city. Pupils of the L. S. U. are also availing themselves of the use of these books. The management makes a point to keep a large line of books of collateral reading on hand at all times.

During the summer months the regular readers increased to almost double the number, many among which are children. It may be of interest to know, that while both parents of some of the children were at work, these children spent the entire day at the library reading.

The number of rural readers are also increasing rapidly, the library proving most enjoyable to parties living out of town.

A great many books have been purchased recently, about 130 being added to the shelves last month. Some splendid donations have also been received, Dr. Coyt Moore giving $35 for the purpose of buying children's books. This gift was highly appreciated by the managers, knowing what it means to the book-loving little folks. Mr. C. C. Durkee presented the library with a beautifully bound set of Shakespeare, for school work, which is very much sought after.

The library is rapidly growing into one of the most popular institutions in Baton Rouge, and the efforts of Joanna Waddill Chapter, U. D. C., are highly appreciated by the reading public.

STORY TELLING HOUR.

The Story Telling Hour at the Women's Club Building has been changed from 4:30 to 5:30. The program for tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon will be particularly interesting and will be rendered entirely by the pupils of Asia Street School.

REYMOND—RHODES.

Mr. Dalton S. Reymond, one of our most prominent young business men, was quietly married in New Orleans on Wednesday to Mrs. Ruth Rhodes, only the immediate families being present to witness the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Reymond left immediately for a trip to New York and to Virginia Hot Springs where they will remain for some time.

EDMONDS—STIRLING.

One of the most brilliant weddings ever witnessed in Baton Rouge was that of Miss Katherine Leake Steirling, youngest daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Louis Sterling and Mr. Walter Reymond Edmonds, formerly of Lyons, New York, but now of this city. St. James Episcopal Church had been beautifully decorated with Rose of Montana and Southern Smilax. Tall baskets of this beautiful flower tied with butterfly bows were placed about the chancel, while small baskets were suspended from the chandeliers. The altar was tastefully decorated with Columbia roses and asparagus ferns. At the appointed hour to the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Effie Reymond with violin by Mrs. Malcolm Dougherty, the bridal party entered. The bride came in on the arm of her father and never looked more beautiful than in her exquisite bridal robe, the illusion veil enhancing her blonde beauty. She was attended by four of her intimate friends, Mrs. Tom Dutton, Misses Ethel Hearin, Addie Granelloni and Nan Badley, who wore dainty costumes of pink taffeta with silver and pink picture hats with pink plumes and carried bouquets of Columbia roses. The bride was met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Mr. William Edmonds. Rev. Royal Tucker pronounced the impressive ceremony and during the signing of the register Mrs. W. S. Holmes sang in her usual exquisite manner "Still as the Night." The ushers were: Messrs. Sterling Dougherty, Francis Bourdette, of New York, Arthur O'Quin of Shreveport and Geo. Reddy.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The young couple left on the evening train for a trip to New York after which they will go to house-keeping in their own home.

The bride is one of the most popular young ladies in this city and is loved by her friends for her sweet and lovable manners. The groom is well worthy of his charming bride and the best wishes of the community follow them on their trip.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. M. G. Osborn and little sons are visiting relatives in Donaldsonville.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Buell of Vicksburg, Miss., were recent guests of Mrs. G. C. Buell.

Mrs. Carolyn and son, Mr. Harry Carolyn, are spending this week in Mobile, Ala., their old home.

Mr. H. L. Field left on a motor trip during the week to Helena, Ark.

Miss Tal Cheatham of "Oakland" is visiting friends and relatives and will remain over for the festival at St. Vincent's given under the auspices of St. Margaret's Daughters.

Mrs. T. P. Singletary is able to get around on crutches now, having been badly bruised last month in Richmond, Va., by being struck by a street car.

Mr. J. A. Bahlinger has returned from an extended trip through the East and Canada, and a visit to relatives at different points in the North.

Mr. Dalton Reymond is in the North and East where he went to select goods for his splendid department store.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Brod of Cleveland, Ohio, reached here on Tuesday on a visit to relatives. Mrs. Brod will be remembered as Miss Helen Hare, and has many friends here who will give her welcome back to this her old home.

Miss Katherine Hill left on Monday for New York, where with a party of friends will sail for a trip around the world. Miss Hill will be absent for several months.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Y. Sanders have returned from their bridal trip and are now located in their pretty new bungalow in Jefferson Place on the Model Road.

The many friends of Mrs. Tom Singletary will be pleased to learn that she is improving after being operated on at the sanitarium and will be removed to her home in a few days.

Mother Superior Bethany of the Franciscan Sisters, who will have active charge of the hospital, is in Baton Rouge, and has selected a site across the dyke overlooking University Lake, on which will be erected buildings adequate to the purpose. Mother Bethany proposes to have a landscape gardener to lay out the grounds which will be a thing of beauty and will be a delightful place for convalescents.

Seventy-five thousand dollars will be used immediately on the first unit of the hospital, and according to the plans, when this is completed, other units will be added as the need arises.

Mother Bethany showed good judgment when she selected these grounds which are just suited on which to build a hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jastrenski have moved into their pretty new bungalow on the Model Road.

Mr. R. E. Stearns, the popular manager of the Baton Rouge Motor Company, is having a pleasant stay at Hot Springs, Ark.

Mrs. C. J. Sheets and daughter, Miss Grace Sheets, have returned from a visit to Wilson, La.

A handsome new organ has just been placed in the First Baptist Church. It is beautiful in tone and is one of the finest instruments of its kind in Baton Rouge.

EAGLES TO CELEBRATE.

The Fraternal Order of Eagles will celebrate Armistice Day on November 11th on which occasion the large steel flag pole, 100 feet high with a huge memorial base of concrete and marble will be placed in Victory Park in honor of their members who served their country in the World War.

The Southern Stationery Company have just received a large shipment of children's books, books that will delight from the tiny tots up. Anything in the way of reading matter for the "kiddies" can be found in this establishment.

Grown people can also find their choice of authors as all the newest fiction is to be found there. This store receives all the new books as soon as they are off the press, and one who desires to read the first edition by popular writers can find them at the Southern Stationery Store.
