The Ford Sedan is the ideal car for the family of four or five. Its present low price makes it possible for the man earning even a small salary to provide all the riding pleasures to be obtained for the family. The gas expense as well as all other operating expenses of the Ford Sedan is on the rock bottom, no other make of car coming under it in consumption of gas. Give the family all the riding enjoyment to be obtained at an exceptionally low price—a price that no other car with the same conveniences sell for. The Ford Sedan is the car for all uses with unmatched endurance and economy. Let us give you and the family a demonstration of the merits of the Sedan.

The Ford engine means POWER.
