

PERSONALS

The many friends of Mr. Holland will regret to learn that he is very ill at St. Mary's sanitarium.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ewing left on Wednesday for a trip to California.

Mrs. Lilly Bell Knox and her niece, Mrs. Rhodes, have returned from a stay of several weeks at Covington.

Miss Fleda Stroube, who has been attending school at Lafayette, has returned home.

Miss Nora O'Neil who has been the guest of Miss Lilburne Nicholson has returned to New Orleans where she is attending the Normal.

Mrs. T. P. Singletary will occupy the residence of the McCombs on Florida street and has already moved to this delightful home.

The many friends of Dr. W. A. McComb and family regret exceedingly their departure from Baton Rouge. Mrs. McComb and her charming daughters will be sadly missed in musical and literary circles.

The wedding of Miss Juliet Dunbar Carter and Mr. J. Nolan Dougherty, which takes place on June 1st, is an event of social prominence, and is looked forward to with interest by many relatives and friends.

Jefferson Davis' birthday will be celebrated on June 3, at the Woman's club, on which occasion all veterans and Daughters of the Confederacy are invited to be present. A U. D. C. program will be presented under the direction of Mrs. Lee R. Harris and Miss Carolyn Farrnbacher will have charge of the story telling hour.

Invitations have been received by friends and relatives in this city from Miss Claire Gebelin, to attend the graduation exercises of the Normal college of Sacred Heart, Convent, Grand Coteau, of which she is a graduate.

STYLE SHOW HIGH SCHOOL

The style show given by the pupils of the Baton Rouge High school eighth grade, second division, on Friday afternoon was one of the most successful and beautiful events of the season of successes and displays. Each member of the domestic art class had designed and made the dress in which she appeared, with only one month's work in this particular line of domestic art.

Miss Grace Terry is the instructress for this department and in addition to her training possesses individual taste and originality, hence encourages similar traits in her pupils. The result was delightful and almost bewildering in its novelty and originality.

The stage of the high school auditorium was massed with early summer flowers, and shasta daisies in gold and white, with background of feathery ferns in soft greenery. A short program given by high school pupils preceded the style show. One by one entered the graceful figures, each displaying her own workmanship. The judges held them in careful survey and the large audience in general admiration. There were three prizes to be awarded and after each of the forty-two contestants had appeared the judges withdrew with them into the sewingroom, for still more minute examination.

Ten selections were made, the three first receiving the prizes as follows: First—Mamie Thibodeaux, hand equipped sewing basket; second—Hazel Burman, a pair shiny cutting scissors; third—Reaney Mae Cazenave, a silver thimble.

The judges chosen were Miss Cleora Helburg, Miss Clyde Molbey, Miss Sebastian, Mr. W. B. Hatcher, and Mrs. Rubenstein.

At the conclusion of the style show delicious refreshments consisting of sandwiches, punch, cake and candy was served.

PLAY BY STUDENTS OF BLIND INSTITUTE

"The Virginia Romance," which was played by the pupils of the Institute for the Blind during the week, was a splendid success. It was marvelous to see the blind going through their parts, many of them showing great talent and good training. The music and choruses were beautifully rendered and the minuet by the younger children was exceedingly well executed.

The musical part of the play was under the direction of Prof. W. B. Clark, and was a great success, while the play was managed by Mrs. W. B. Clark, and it was by their patience and kindness that the performance was such a success.

SOCIAL DOINGS AT U. D. C. CONVENTION

Mrs. Chas. Granger, Gen. Chairman, with her able assistants, are to be congratulated upon the beautiful entertainments given the delegates while in the hospitable city of New Orleans.

The luncheon in the Cave of the Grunewald on Thursday was a magnificent affair as was also the luncheon at the Oriental restaurant on Friday. The reception on Thursday night in the Gold room was brilliant and largely attended. The grand march was led by the officers of the Division and veterans.

Everything possible was done to entertain the delegates and the convention will linger long in the minds of those present at this state convention.

Mrs. Arthur Weber, retiring president was honored with many beautiful floral offerings and a badge was presented her by her chapter, Fitzburgh Lee, for her untiring efforts for the success of the Division.

Mrs. Fred C. Kolman was the recipient also, of many beautiful flowers. A silver basket of flowers was presented her by the Civic league of New Orleans and a beautiful string of pearls from the Camp Moore Chapter of Tangipahoa, of which she is an officer.

One of the fine reports was read by Miss Doriske Gautreaux, chairman "Widows' Fund," in which she told of the many cases helped by this committee. She appealed from the floor for contributions which added to her treasury.

THE LITTLE THEATRE

The annual meeting of the Little Theatre Guild was held last week in the Woman's club building, and proved to be a very delightful affair.

After a business session and an election of officers for next year a social hour was enjoyed and delicious refreshments served.

The following officers were elected: president, Mrs. Charles E. Coates; vice president, Mrs. Geo. Foos; secretary, Mrs. G. A. Waterman; treasurer, Mrs. Henry Jastremski, re-elected. The "Little Theatre", through a great undertaking, passed through its first year most successfully, leaving a small sum left in the treasury.

Vote of thanks were extended the retiring officers, Mmes, D. W. Thomas, who conceived the idea of establishing the Little Theatre in Baton Rouge and whose earnest efforts have made it successful. Mrs. Coates, vice president and Mrs. Slauson, secretary, came in for their share of praise.

Altogether, the Little Theatre has proved a great success, notwithstanding the great difficulties to launch an effort of this kind.
