KIDD'S TREASURE.—Gold Pieces, Diamonds, Gold Chains, &c.—We have new discoveries or disclosures connected with the sunken treasure at Caldwell's landing. We stated a few days ago that a lady at Lynn had seen the treasure in a magnetic sleep, and we annex a part of her wonderful revelations, the effect of which upon the market value of shares in the "Kidd Salvage Company," created a marked sensation in Wall street yesterday. We live in a wonderful age. The lady of Lynn, being thrown into the mesmeric sleep, directed her vision to Caldwell's landing, and thence to the sunken vessel, making the following discoveries:

"First, finding a room near the stern, which she called the captain's office, she spoke of seeing an iron chest, about as large as a common soap box, encircled by a chain which appeared as still somewhat bright as if it had a kind of gilt wash or leaf on it, fastened at each end by a small-sized padlock. In it she said she saw silver and gold—some gold in solid bars. She next discovered, on the bottom of the vessel, in the mud and water, several small heaps or collections of silver, gold and precious stones, including diamonds, though mostly in the rough or ore state. She next saw a singular thing to her, which she at last called a quadrant or compass; she also spoke of seeing gold watches like ducks' eggs in a pond of water. A little after ward she manifested great enthusiasm in finding another iron chest or safe, nearly the size of the other, but having no chain around it; and after looking some time very intently she insisted that she saw in it a splendid gold crown, once worn by a king or queen, and also a most magnificent necklace, made in the shape of a harp, beautifully set with the most brilliant diamonds.

"In examining farther, she spoke of seeing nothing else of a very remarkable character, except several cannon, swords, and a large quantity of cannon balls, till she entered a place which she described as a small room, appearing to be a very private room of the captain's, and which, according to her account, seemed to be in the fore part of the vessel. The last object she described was a thing which she first called a spy glass, being round and something like a yard long, but she soon discovered that it was not a spy glass, the outside of it being made of a very hard kind of brown wood, within which was a kind of zinc case, made water tight; and after a careful examination, she decided that it contained the manuscripts of the pirate, still in a good degree of preservation, though the paper, once white, is now yellow, and the ink, once black, brown. These manuscripts, she insisted, if they could be obtained, would be very valuable, as they would give a full account of his life, including the number of vessels which he had robbed, and the places where he had buried his other treasures.

"I must not neglect to mention that I asked her if the men at work upon the vessel would succeed in getting it up, and if they would, how and when. Her opinion was that they would succeed, but could not tell exactly how or when, though she thought the time was not far distant, and that they would get treasure richly rewarding them for their exertions and outlays."

We hope this is no scheme to sell the stock. Seeing diamonds looks a little like it.—N. Y. Sun.

DIED.

On Tuesday last, the 29th instant, after a long and painful illness of dropsy, JOSEPH WATSON, in the 76th year of his age.

Thus has the portals of the cold and gloomy grave closed upon one who was endeared and beloved by all who knew him. He was indeed truly "the noblest work of God"—an honest man—whom the foul shafts of slander could never reach. As a neighbor, friend and parent, he was ever kind and indulgent, and long and fondly will his memory be cherished by the many and dear friends, both of the ties of affinity and consanguinity left by him. May their loss prove his eternal gain.

NOTICE.

THOSE persons who have subscribed, and all others wishing to subscribe to a JOCKEY CLUB in Charles county, are requested to meet in Port Tobacco, on the third Tuesday, the 19th of August, for the purpose of organizing and making arrangements for the race the ensuing fall.

It is particularly requested that all who have three year olds will attend, as a sweepstake is contemplated to be made up on that day.

POSTPONED TRUSTEE'S SALE OF REAL ESTATE.

BY virtue of a decree of Charles County Equity Court, the undersigned will sell at public auction, on WEDNESDAY, the 20th of AUGUST next, at 3 o'clock, P. M., that tract of LAND lying in Charles county, of which the late James B. Pye died seized, containing by survey and called and known by the name of "Glymont." This Farm is beautifully situated on the Potomac river, about 20 miles below Alexandria and 10 from Port Tobacco. There are attached to it TWO FISHERIES which may be rendered valuable—one of them there is a new and extensive fish house. Marl of the most fertilizing quality and easy of access is found upon it in great abundance. Glymont is remarkable for its healthy location and fine water—is heavily timbered, and the soil well adapted to the growth of the staples of the country. This property being previously offered and not disposed of, will now be sold without any reserve whatever to the highest bidder, and persons wishing to make a profitable investment of their capital, have now a better opportunity presented than of doing so than they will ever in all probability meet with again.

THE TERMS by the decree are—One thousand dollars cash, to be paid on the day of sale, the balance in three equal annual instalments of one, two and three years, commencing from the day of sale—the purchaser to give approved bonds bearing interest from the 1st January, 1846. The purchaser will have the privilege of seeding grain in the fall, and possession will be given the 1st January, 1846.

The tract is supposed to contain about 400 ACRES.

THE TERMS OF SALE require the payment of two thousand dollars in cash; and a credit of five years will be allowed on the balance of the purchase money, upon the purchaser giving bond with approved security for the payment of the principal within five years and the interest annually. Possession will be given the 1st January, 1846, from which time interest will be charged. Upon the payment of the whole purchase money a good and sufficient deed will be executed. A FARM OR FARMS FOR SALE.

THE subscriber offers for sale the Farm on which he now resides, containing about 250 ACRES OF LAND, binding on the Old Woman's Run, adjoining the plantation of Major F. C. Green on same run, and the estate of the late Francis Rozior on Mattawoman Swamp, distant about 7 miles from Port Tobacco. The soil is remarkably fertile and productive, and is admirably adapted to the growth of tobacco of the finest texture and quality as well as to the other staple commodities of the county, and is easily improved from the use of clover and plaster, a large proportion of the land now being well set in clover. The buildings are nearly all new with the exception of the Dwelling house, which is in tolerable repair and comfortable for a small family, consisting of two fine Barns and Tobacco houses sufficient to cure 25 or 30 hogheads tobacco—one of the Barns was erected during the last year—Corn house, Granaries, Stables and Carriage house, Meat house, Store house, a brick Dairy and Well of good water in the yard, sufficiently near the dairy to afford an easy introduction of the water the etc, Poultry houses, Ice house and Pigeon house, Overseer's house, Negro Quarters, &c.

Also, a Farm called and known as BENSVILLE, nearly adjoining the above, containing about 350 ACRES.

This farm has an abundance of wood and fencing stuff, is well watered, and a kind and productive soil, peculiarly susceptible of improvement from the use of clover and plaster, the situation healthy, with several springs of fine water convenient to the house. The buildings have all been thoroughly repaired within the last few years and are now in excellent condition, consisting of an excellent framed Dwelling house and Kitchen, Store house and Collar, Granary, Corn house and Barn, 40 by 24, with new prizes attached. The location of the houses, being immediately at the crossings of two of the most important public roads of the county, renders the situation an eligible one for store and tavern keeping, which business has been for some years and still is carried on at the place. I will sell the above farms together or separately to suit purchasers.

Terms made known by application to the subscriber.
