PORT TOBACCO: Friday Morning, October 23, 1874.

Democratic Conservative Nomination. FOR CONGRESS: Dr. ELI J. HENKLE, of Anne Arundel County.

Democratic Meetings.

We are authorized to announce that meetings of the Democratic Conservative party will be held at the times and places below designated, and that, by an arrangement with the Executive Committee of the county, at least two speakers will address the people on the all-important issues involved in the present Congressional canvass, at each place, viz:

- On Tuesday, October 27, at TUBMAN'S, Pomonkey.
On Wednesday, 28th, at HARRIS' LOT, Cobb Neck.
On Thursday, 29th, at NEWPORT, East Hundred.
On Friday, 30th, at DENT'S STORE, Nanjemoy.
On Friday, 30th, at HUGHESVILLE.
On Saturday, 31st, at DUFFIELD.

We hope our friends will turn out at the proposed meetings, so as to avail themselves of the opportunity for consulting, and arranging in the different districts for the approaching election. There is not the smallest doubt of Dr. Henkle's election if our full strength is polled. We have in this District about 1,800 majority, as shown by the vote last fall. Judge Merrick's defeat in 1872 was caused by the non-attendance of our voters, not by any increase in the Radical vote. Turn out, then, Democrats and Conservatives! Let your enthusiasm be aroused by the glorious news from the West! Let Maryland respond from the mountains to the sea shore; and let us in old Charles, if we have been for a time overshadowed by "fusion," do our part to swell the grand total of the voice with which she will echo back that glorious news.

Turn out, then, and by your presence and energy excite those disposed to be inactive, doubtful, or careless. You can avail yourselves by this meeting together in concert of action, in making the necessary arrangements to get out our full strength, at small cost or trouble to each one.

Although not an election for local officers, yet it is just as important to us as if it were. Whilst aiding in overcoming the fusion, we will be organizing against our local and State elections, without those causes of trouble or dissatisfaction which have sometimes separated some of our friends from us at such elections. The present is an occasion when all can act together for a common interest in the result, and upon principle.

We believe, with few exceptions, we can and will present a united front to our opponents. To accomplish this, though, we cannot suppose await the course of events. We must help ourselves; and in order to do this we must meet in the different sections of the county and co-operate in our work.

Who is Mistaken?

Under this head our neighbor, the Independent, in its paper of the 14th instant, takes issue with us as to the position of Dr. Henkle with regard to the 14th and 15th Amendments and insists upon it, that because the Hon. B. G. Harris, whose extreme views on this subject are well known, presided at the meeting addressed by Dr. Henkle in Leonardtown, that the Doctor must necessarily be in entire accord with Mr. Harris in advocating the repeal of these amendments. This charge has been the burden of all the speeches thus far made by the Radicals during the present campaign. Mr. Hagner has made it, we said, every orator on that side of the house has taken up the cry, and, with the pertinacity of the consistent witness, have sworn that the horse was seventeen feet high and will continue so to swear until the campaign is ended. Of course all the negroes believe it, and nothing that we or Dr. Henkle can say will have the slightest effect on any of them, and we do not allude to the subject now with any hope or expectation of having any influence on them. Our object is an entirely different one. We do not choose that our nominee should be placed in a false position before his own party on this or any other subject, so long as we are able to set him right.—The editors of the Independent, (we will have the good manners to speak of them as "the editors," though they have the rudeness to speak of us only as "the writer in the Times"), to further sustain their position, allude to the report in the Beacon as having been made by "our practical and accurate friend King." We do not know whether the report was made by Mr. King or Mr. Downs, nor do we care. Either of them are good enough, "practical" enough, and "accurate" enough Democrats for us. They endorse Dr. Henkle, and this neither of them would do if he had repudiated the Democratic platform of 1872 as Mr. Harris did. But the editor of the Independent further says he was present and that in substance the Doctor did advocate the repeal of the amendments, or he, the editor, does not understand the English language. We are rather inclined to think the alternative is true; and besides, you know, none are so incapable of understanding as those who do not choose to understand. And we adopt this explanation the more readily from the fact that we have it on the authority of a gentleman of this county, who does understand the English language, and whose word will go as far throughout the State of Maryland as that of either of the editors or proprietors of the Independent, high as they stand socially, and who was also present at the meeting at Leonardtown, that Dr. Henkle did not advocate the repeal of the 14th and 15th Amendments then. If, because Mr. Harris presided at this meeting and then there endorsed Dr. Henkle, the inference is justifiable that the latter had yielded to the views of the former, then we can with propriety assume that because "one of the proprietors" of the Independent last fall voted for many of the nominees of the Radical Convention in this county, that that paper is being published in the interest of the Radical party. Indeed, the fact that that paper takes up and adheres to, with so much pertinacity, this slander of the leaders of that party, would seemingly justify us in this assumption, if the editorial courtesy of "the writer in the Times" did not forbid us to say that the Independent was a partisan paper when its editors and proprietors proclaim it to be independent in politics. But to put this matter at rest we have only to refer our readers to the speeches of Dr. Henkle made in this town and at Allen's Fresh last week. On both occasions he distinctly repudiated this charge and emphatically denied that there was any truth in it. But on the contrary he said he stood where he had always stood—on the Democratic platform of 1872.

But further, to relieve the mind of the editor of the Independent, who seems ambitious of the reputation of Thomas Didymus, the doubter, we will further state that we handed Doctor Henkle, when he was in this town, a copy of the Independent of the 14th and also a copy of the Times of the 3d, and asked him to read the two articles and answer the question, "Who is mistaken?" He did so and told us emphatically that our neighbor was wrong and that the Times correctly expressed his views. In conclusion, we will say, that we hope that we have plainly answered the question and that our neighbor will have no difficulty now in finding out "who is mistaken."

Our Washington Letter. About the coolest instance of assurance that has crossed our observation lately—or belief in the ignorance of voters—is contained in a notice issued by the Radical "Campaign Committee" calling meetings in this county. Ring Rule! This comes with an ill grace, indeed, from a party whose candidate is notoriously the nominee of the "Custom House" of Baltimore city. It sent its emissaries into the counties and precincts of the Fifth District—outside of their own district—to forestall the choice of voters; and even sent one, not a delegate, into the Convention of Charles county, where Dr. Wilmer was well known to be the choice of his party. It is known to all who read, that Mr. Hagner was nominated by the votes of delegations whose seats were contested, and by delegations representing the larger number of voters, yet were ruled out by management in the organization of the Convention. On the contrary, Dr. Henkle was nominated by a Convention as harmonious as ever assembled, with no contests, difficulties, or causes of dissatisfaction. If there was any representative of any Ring in it, he was not its choice. Ring Rule, foolsooth! Try some other card, gentlemen! There is something said, calling upon every citizen favorable to the "free enjoyment of his franchise." This savors of the cry of "Ku-Klux" and "Southern Outrages." That notice must have been written before the election news from the West! Those elections show that that "cry" has lost its efficacy. The thing has become stale—the trick discovered. It is rather late to attempt to get it up in Maryland—and here in Charles county! It may scare a few ignoramus, or shabby-colored voter; but no really sensible colored Union man; for whom it is intended, will be deceived, although for party purposes he may affect it. The real and important issues in this campaign can't be smothered by such shallow devices.

Hark from the Tombs!

We had occasion sometime ago to comment upon the fact that the fool-killer had not discharged the full measure of his duty in one of our sister counties—and now, we find, that he has been equally derelict in that venerable cemetery of departed worth, Alexandria, Va. A letter, dated at this place, in this week's Independent, signed "Common Sense," when it more appropriately should have been signed "Damp-phool," undertakes to criticize a late editorial of the Times on the Tariff. This wisacre undertakes to show that because "the Edwards, Elizabeth and the Colberts of England, Napoleon Bonaparte and one of the Emperors of Russia," were in favor of the doctrine of Protection that therefore it is eminently proper for this Republic, in the nineteenth century. By way of clincher, he tells us that Spain was making at one time an everlasting fortune by importing wool from England and returning it in manufactured goods; and if Spain had stuck to this instead of digging gold, she would now have surpassed England. But it never seems to have entered into the middle of this relief of bygone days that if Spain had had high protective duties on her own wool her people could not have imported it. This writer says he proposes to show that our farmers ought all to abandon their agricultural pursuits and go to making blankets, which sell at $8.50 under the Republican tariff. Let's do it by all means! We have such a magnificent water power here (after a thunder gust) that we could easily compete with Lowell and other small fry.—Let us make blankets, henceforth, continually thitherto. This writer concludes by promising also to show that "the damp phools are not all dead." He may save himself further trouble, he has proved this already beyond the possibility of successful contradiction.

Inflation and Repudiation.

Of course we expected that the Radical papers and the Radical sympathizers would be unusually active and ingenious in their efforts to break the force of the recent great Democratic victories, and would account for them in every way but the true one. Our neighbor, the Independent, publishes an article from the American, showing that our success was after all a victory in favor of inflation and repudiation. As an offset, and complete answer to such an absurd assertion, we publish the following from the Baltimore Star:

Since the late Democratic victories in Ohio and Indiana, there has been an effort on the part of the Republican journals to present them as a triumph of inflation and repudiation. There is abundant reason, however, to discredit this view. The New York Herald pointedly calls attention to the fact that Mr. Kerr, who made the most brilliant and successful canvass of any candidate in Indiana, rejected and scolded that part of the State platform which favored financial heresies. So, too, in Ohio, the most brilliant and remarkable Democratic victory was won in the twentieth congressional district, where Paine, the Democratic candidate, who had been a Republican, and anti-repudiationist. Had these been the popular issues in the West, says the Herald, Paine and Kerr should have been defeated or have stood lowest on the list of successful candidates, instead of leading the canvass in their respective States.

Mr. John W. Garrett, president of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad company, has returned from Europe, greatly benefited in health, and prepared to resume his duties as chief of the great corporation he has so ably directed. The railroad has been capably managed during his absence by his assistants.

Who Cook up Southern Outrages.

Washington, Oct. 20, 1874. I do not think the elections were ever regarded with so little interest by the opposing people of Washington, as they were this October. This was in part due to the fact that the Radicals have been so busy in their efforts to look upon the matter of the election, that they have not had time to do so. The result of the election was a surprise to many, and a good many old fellows, who had made up their minds to welcome the Radicals, were disappointed. Doors open at 10 A. M. Admittance 25 cents; children half price. Dinner and Supper will be provided, with all the delicacies of the season.

New Advertisements. A penny is a penny made, and in these hard times a penny is worth saving. All who think this and who have business one in a while in Baltimore, will do well to read the advertisement of the Merchants' Hotel in to-day's paper.

The advertisement of Barrett, Nephews & Co., shows how you can have old clothes made up at a small expense, and thus more pennies may be saved.

The cold bleak winter is approaching and the busy housewife is overhauling the old and trying, by turning and twisting and mending, to make them last. But it is no use in many cases, and at least one new one will have to be bought. All of you who are in this sort of scrape read the advertisement of G. S. Bowen, No. 29 N. Eutaw st., Baltimore, and give him a call.

Mr. F. W. Plummer, No. 49 Hanover st., Baltimore, calls your attention to his stock, which comprises everything in the way of Carpets and Furniture. Like a sensible man he advertises not only his goods, but his prices. We have wondered that this was not oftener done.

State Sunday School Convention. The State S. S. Convention will be held at Frederick City, Md., Nov. 17, 18 & 19th, 1874. All delegates appointed by county or district Conventions will notify H. A. Linton, No. 474 North St., Baltimore, immediately, so that all arrangements may be completed for their entertainment.

The Tournament at Cox's Station. The day was bright, beautiful and bracing, such a one as only is seen in an American autumn, and our pleasure-seeking folks availed themselves of the opportunity for a day of real enjoyment. Such a reunion of our folks we have not seen for many a long day. It was not merely a local or neighborhood crowd, but it came from all sections, from Nanjemoy and Cobb Neck—from Pomonkey and Patuxent—they came in squads and in crowds—on horse-back, in vehicles and on foot. Certainly such a gathering was never before seen at this City of the Pyramids, which has the honor of Col. Cox. What was yesterday but a wilderness, is to-day a thriving town, with its hotel, stores, dwelling houses, and shops, and a large number of "strangers" for public purposes, and we should not be at all surprised if the Court House were some day to pick up our long day. The monument, when surmounted with this fine work of art, will be a lasting memorial to the noble and patriotic spirit of our great hero. The members of this Association are gentlemen well and favorably known by the entire community, who will see that nothing is left undone that will aid in the erection of this great work. We are advised by the Secretary, Mr. Chas. A. Davidson, of Lexington, Virginia, that the funds subscribed are insufficient to complete the monument. In order to procure, at a reasonable price, a superb life-size engraved portrait of Gen. Lee, to be sold only by subscription, through authorized agents, the proceeds of such sale to be applied toward the completion of the monument, an opportunity is here presented to every person, not only to procure, at a reasonable price, a superb life-size engraved portrait of Gen.
