The subscription price of THE TIMES is $1. per annum if paid in advance or at any time within the current year; if not paid within the year $1.50 will be invariably charged, as always heretofore, and from this rule no exception will be made.

TO ADVERTISERS.—The Times having a large circulation in any other paper among the intelligent farmers and business men of Charles County, offers superior inducements to advertisers to insert their announcements in its columns. Send for card rates, which are as low as any other paper in Southern Maryland, to any address on circulation.

Back with Their Work. The farmers of this county are greatly back with their work of husking their corn crop. One of our farmers assured us yesterday that there was more corn in the shock at the present time than on any other occasion for many years past. This state of affairs was caused by the long continued mild weather, which prevented the corn from drying and making it unsafe for cribbing.

Commissions Received. The commissions of the several gentlemen elected to office in this county, except for members of the House of Delegates and State's Attorney, which are not issued by the Governor, have been received by clerk Stone, and it is likely that the newly commissioned officers will take the oath of office and assure their respective offices at an early day.—Sheriff Smoot qualified before the Circuit Court on Monday and entered upon the discharge of his duties.

EMMANUEL BROS., Spring Overcoats, 7th and E Sts., Washington, D. C. A Sad Affliction. Mr. Thomas Posey, a very worthy and highly respected citizen of Cub Neck, became completely paralyzed on his left side and totally blind one day last week and is now in a helpless and deplorable condition. About two years ago Mr. Posey suffered the loss of his eyesight, but placing himself at that time under the care of a skillful oculist, after undergoing a painful operation his sight was restored, and from what we learn he had no further trouble until last Saturday when this sad affliction was thrown upon him. Mr. Posey is being attended by Dr. F. M. Lanoster who gives but little hope of his restoration to health. He is about 68 years of age.

Make $20 for Christmas. The publishers of Rutledge's Monthly offer twelve valuable rewards in their Monthly for December, among which is the following: We will give $20.00 to the person telling us how many verses there are containing but three words each in the Old Testament Scriptures by December 10th, 1883. Should two or more correct answers be received, the reward will be divided. The money will be forwarded to the winner December 15th, 1883. Persons trying for the reward must send in their answers (no postage stamps taken) with their answer, for which they will receive the Christmas Monthly, in which the name and address of the winner will be published, and in which several more valuable rewards will be offered. Address: RUTLEDGE PUBLISHING COMPANY, Baltimore, Md.

Loss by Fire. Mr. Wm. Dows, living at "Rosemary Lawn" between this village and Hill Top, met with the loss of his barn and its contents, which had been hauled in from the field and stored in the building, by fire on Saturday evening last. Mr. Dows had gone to his barn on that day to superintend the storing away of his corn crop which was being brought in, and had taken his gun with him for the purpose of shooting hawks that he had seen hovering about the place. Having occasion in the afternoon to go to the house, he left a small boy, his absence the boy seeing a mouse run under a straw rick near the barn, fired at it, and the discharge from the gun lighted the straw, and soon had the whole place in a blaze. The barn, which was only a few feet from the straw, soon caught and all efforts to save it were useless and as we have stated above, it with its entire contents were destroyed. The building, we understand, was insured in the Montgomery Mutual Company.

State Officers of Maryland and Their Terms. The Governor elect, Hon. Robert M. McLane, of Baltimore city, enters on his office, as prescribed in the constitution of 1867, on the second Wednesday of January next. The term continues for four years, and until a successor shall have qualified. The returns of election of Governor are sent to the Governor of State to be delivered to the Speaker of the House of Delegates at the commencement of the next session. They are opened by the Speaker in the presence of both houses, and the result declared. If two or more persons should at any election have the highest and an equal number of votes for Governor, one of them shall be chosen by the Senate and House of Delegates. But all questions in relation to the eligibility for Governor, and to the returns of said election, and to the number and legality of votes therein given shall be determined by the House of Delegates. If the person having the highest number of votes be ineligible, the Governor shall be chosen by the Senate and House of Delegates by joint vote. In case of the death, removal, resignation or disqualification of the Governor, the Senate or either of them for the residue of the term, or if it occurs when the Legislature is not in session the president of the Senate shall discharge the duties until a Governor is elected. All officers whose appointment or election is not otherwise provided for shall be nominated by the Governor and the Senate within 50 days from the commencement of each regular session of the Legislature. He must reside at the seat of government, and receive a salary of $4,000. He appoints a secretary of State, whose salary is $2,000. The Comptroller holds office for two years, and the term designated for his entrance upon the duties of the office is the third Monday of January succeeding his election, or as soon thereafter as practicable. His salary is $2,500. The Attorney-General holds his office for four years, from the time of his election and qualification, the Governor being the authority to decide his election and qualification. His salary is $3,000.

Circuit Court.

The November term of the Circuit Court met here on Monday, Chief Justice Stone on the bench. Francis D. Malley was selected as the foreman of the grand jury by the Court, and the drawing of the jury was then proceeded with and resulted as follows:

GRAND JURY. F. O. Medley, Foreman. W. McK. Burroughs, Jos. L. Hicks, E. C. Ferguson, F. A. Hanson, W. R. Matthews, Fras. L. Higdon, Jos. H. Fralkin, J. H. Chamberlain, J. H. Chamberlain, Peter Trotter, J. Mar Carpenter, E. A. Boone, M. Grunbaum, Jno. Edlin, colored, G. N. Sims, A. J. Norris, Wm. Cox, Chas. Brown, JURY. Sam'l T. Chandler, H. L. Mull, R. B. Herbert, John T. Warder, J. M. Burch, Edw. Coburn, colored, J. L. Brawner, Henry Neale, Robert Porter, colored, R. W. Bryan, H. H. Wade, colored, Rich. Hawkins colored, D. J. Heagerty, J. Marion Freeman, Walter Stanton, colored, J. H. Hunt, Wm. Burch, C. F. Lancaster, Rich. Mason colored, J. W. Garner, H. E. Dibbins, J. H. Smith colored, Henry Ferguson, Bernard Matthews, Francis A. Carpenter.

Judge Stone then proceeded to deliver a brief charge to the grand jury, in the course of which he referred to the charges which had appeared in one of the newspapers of the county (referring to the Times) with regard to the fact that the grand jury to comply with the law in reference to the publishing of an annual statement. We have referred to this feature of the charge more fully elsewhere. The calling over of the docket and the usual routine business of the first day of the term was then proceeded with, after which the Court adjourned.

Thursday—Tuesday was under the rule of Court, devoted to the hearing of appeal cases from justices of the peace. The following cases were tried: L. V. Oliver & Co. vs. Thomas Skinner, appeal from Justice Franklin. This was an action involving a balance due on an account for merchandise. At the trial below judgment was given in favor of Skinner, which was reversed in this Court and judgment rendered in favor of Oliver & Co. for $18.41 the amount claimed, and costs. F. M. Cox for Oliver & Co., Edlen for Skinner. J. H. Sinclair vs. Cox, garnishee of Albert Martin, Jury trial. This was an appeal from a judgment of condemnation in attachment rendered by Justice Smoot. The chief point involved was whether credits due to the defendant from execution under the exemption law saving to the debtor $200 in property. This point was formerly ruled in the affirmative by the Circuit Court of this county, and has been one upon which the lawyers have been somewhat divided. Judge Stone referred to a decision in the Court of Appeals during the past year, which appears in the last report just issued, in which the question has been settled in the negative. By the authority of the decision referred to in this case was decided in favor of Sinclair. F. M. Cox for Martin, Posey for Sinclair.

Jan. F. Posey vs. Carlin Spaid. Tried by the Court. This was an action for the recovery of the reward money for services of the horse "Young Star." The defendant refused to pay on the ground that he had made a bargain with Frank Himesley, the groom, that the services of the horse were to be given in consideration of the board of the groom and horse at certain days during the season. Posey disclaimed any authority in his groom to make a contract, and after giving credit for the amount he advanced for the reward money, claimed the balance. Justice Smoot gave judgment in favor of Posey, but this Court reversed the judgment and found for defendant. F. M. Cox for Plaintiff, Edlen for defendant. Rawlings vs. Emanuel F. Acton and Wm. R. Acton, trading as E. F. Acton & Co. Appeal from Justice Waties. This was a claim for rent due for a house at Woodville station, occupied as a bar-room. The evidence was that E. F. Acton and W. R. Acton, his father, had been engaged in a general merchandize business at Woodville station, in a store owned by the father. That at the beginning of the present year the younger Acton had rented the place for which rent is now claimed, situated on the opposite side of the railroad for the purpose of selling liquors. It was also shown that the internal revenue license for the whiskey business had been applied for in the name of E. F. Acton and R. L. Morning, trading as E. F. Acton & Co. The elder Mr. Acton denied having any connection whatever with the liquor business, and stated the claim for rent so far as he was concerned. The case was held sub curia.

Wednesday.—In the case of Noble Lindsey vs. James L. Cox, garnishee of Ann A. Simmons, judgment was entered up in favor of plaintiff, in pursuance of the ruling of the Court yesterday on the exemption law, for $100 and such further sum as might be agreed between counsel, Mitchell for plaintiff, F. M. Cox for defendant. A. Wall vs. Underretains of S. F. Gordier. Stricken off under rule for cause of costs. Posey for plaintiff, Edlen for defendant. Edwin C. Dutton vs. Maria Neale and others. Suit upon appeal bond. Plea in abatement entered only against the sureties. A certificate of the election of A. Allison Wilmer Esq., State's Attorney for Charles county was returned, and order of the court entered that he be sworn in at the proper time. Thursday.—State vs. George H. Morris. Selling liquors without license. By the Court.—Fined $20. Matthews for the State, Mull for defense. State vs. Walter Fendall, colored, indicted for attempted rape upon a child under six years of age. By the Court. Partially heard and postponed for further hearing. Matthews for State, Wilmer for defense. A motion to dismiss several appeal cases between Richard Payne and Wm. B. Matthews was overruled and the cases continued. State vs. James Marshall, colored, indicted for larceny of goods from the store of the Rock Point Oyster Company. By the Court. Found guilty and sentenced to the House of Correction for six months.

An Interesting Offer. The publishers of the Times always seeking the best interests of the numerous readers have made arrangements with the publishers of the "Continental Magazine" a monthly periodical of considerable ability published in Baltimore, to club their Magazine to all subscribers of the Times at the low price of one dollar & thirty five cents a year; both, thus placing a good readable periodical within the reach of all. The "Continental" is edited by Josiah Hawkins, Esq., of this county, at one time editor of the Times, and his well-known literary ability is a sufficient guarantee to the people of this county of the value of the Magazine. It is a neat Magazine of thirty-two pages, neatly printed and beautifully illustrated, and will be a valuable addition to every family circle as its contents are varied and suited to their tastes of both old and young. Sample copies of the Magazine can be had by applying at this office.

Personal. If there is a man in this county who has not already purchased his winter clothing, he will make a great mistake if he does not at first opportunity call on us. Father Kerwick's Lecture.

A large and appreciative audience of both sexes and of all religious opinions assembled in the Court House on last Wednesday evening to hear the lecture of Rev. T. J. Kerwick entitled: "Marshall the Home of Religions and Civil Liberty." We regret just here that time and space prevent us from giving the full and complete review that we would like to of this lecture, but even had we the time and did our space permit we could do but feeble justice to the masterly and well considered production of the young priest. Nothing short of a separate lecture delivered would give an adequate idea of its beauty of composition, mastery of thought and logic of conclusions, and of those who failed to be present on the evening of its delivery have lost one of the richest intellectual feasts to which the people of Charles county have ever been treated. Father Kerwick followed step by step the history of the settlement of our native State from the time of its first occupation by it to prove his premise so ably asserted were made, but every proposition advanced was founded on facts and proved by the most irresistible logic. The lecture had an especial charm for our people inasmuch as it was local in its character, and the young lecturer seemed to feel that this was a point to please took especial care to dwell here, and his thoughts were couched in such beautiful and majestic language and delivered with such brilliant and commanding oratory that the attention of the whole audience was kept, and as all eyes were eagerly turned to the youthful lecturer every individual seemed to be carried away, and indeed by that same enthusiasm which was so marked in his manner. As a lecturer Father Kerwick is a success, as an orator he is entrancing, and as a theologian he is irresistible. We had the pleasure of those who were present on Monday evening, when we say that a repetition of this lecture will gather for the young priest the intelligence and refinement of our county to hear him, and we hope that he will give it to us again on no distant day.

Sudden Death.

Mr. W. B. Wood, one of the most energetic and useful citizens of our county, died suddenly on Thursday night last week, of an affection of the heart. Mr. Wood left his home on that morning to go to Potomac Falls, a place which he had recently purchased, and he intended to be back in January, for the purpose of repairing the house for the reception of his family. When there but a short time and while engaged in sitting some heavy timber, he complained of feeling a dizziness and suddenly fell over in a fainting spell. He was immediately carried into the house by some colored hands who were with him and by his brother, Mr. Thomas Wood, who happened to be there at the time, and Dr. Rucker was summoned to attend him. When the doctor arrived he pronounced it a heart trouble and gave every little hope of his recovery. His wife went out but when she arrived he was in a comatose condition and failed to recognize her and in this state he died that night. Mr. Wood was an upright, honest and useful citizen, and his loss will be severely felt especially in the neighborhood that had always been his home. Few citizens who have lived in our county have attained the same degree of universal respect from his neighbors than had Mr. Wood, and this esteem was fully attested by the long cortege that followed him to his last resting place on Saturday. Mr. Wood married a daughter of Mr. Geo. A. Hunt, who with five children survive his loss.

Flat Justice.

Our attention has been called by Mr. Mull, the clerk of the late board of county commissioners, to the fact that the item of $545.50 for registration, which appeared in the last annual statement of the commissioners, as published in the Times, was not included in the original manuscript sent to this office, and must have been due to a typographical error made by the printers. Upon an examination of the summary of the accounts and after carefully footing it up, we find that the accounts balance without the item for registration. This is conclusive proof for the fact that it was a typographical error as stated by Mr. Mull. We are glad to know this, and it admits us the greatest pleasure to adopt the first opportunity since the matter was called to our attention to retract our charge in this connection and to set the clerk and the board right to the extent of this small item. We, of course, commented on the statement as it appeared in print, as it did not occur to us that such a mistake could have possibly been made by the printers, or, if made, would not have been overlooked by the clerk, who is the person whose duty it is to see that the statement is correctly published. Upon inquiring of them in charge of the printing department, we learn, however, that it has been the practice to have the summary of the accounts, which is always alike except in the figures, to stand in type and in this way the error inadvertently occurred.

A Big Gunner.

A party of gentlemen of this neighborhood have erected a shanty at "Waverly" on the shores of Nanjemoy creek, to which they repair during the gunning season for the purpose of tagging the ducks that abound in that locality. On last Sunday the news reached them that a gunner from Washington or Alexandria was in the creek in the neighborhood of their shanty, with a big gun or a small cannon, called a howitzer, and that early in the morning and late in the evening, at the time the ducks usually flock together for feeding purposes, he would fire away in the midst of them with his cannon and play havoc with the flocks, for those that he failed to kill would be frightened off, and would never return to the same feeding ground. This manner of gunning is in direct violation of the law and as soon as the news of what was going on reached our efforts, they determined to make an effort to capture the gunner cannon and all. Mr. Hugh Hunt had himself sworn in as a special deputy and taking Messrs. R. C. Ferguson and James Himesly with him as a posse they repaired to the shore on last Sunday evening to lay in wait for the man. The officer, however, must have found out their object, for he failed to bring out his howitzer while they were on the scene, but added about the creek in a skiff, using an ordinary musket on the ducks. After remaining until a late hour in Sunday night without accomplishing anything the gentlemen were compelled to return to their homes. We understand, however, that another effort will be made to capture the offender and that the case will not be given up until he is brought to justice, or made to cease his nefarious work. We hope these gentlemen may succeed in this instance and break up this abominable practice of open sportsmanship.

Many persons who seemingly have consumption have perfectly sound lungs, and their distress originates altogether from disordered kidneys and liver. Now there are thousands of remedies that will relieve kidney and liver diseases, but there is only one that can be depended upon for affording a permanent cure, and that is Brown's Kidney and Liver Bitters. Its efficiency has been satisfactorily proven in thousands of instances after all other remedies failed.

Local Brevities.

Thanksgiving next week. Wash Burch has been reappointed jobber. How many gobblers will be gobbled up next Thursday?

The wheat fields begin to present a green velvet appearance. The cold snap of last week has been succeeded by pleasant, balmy Indian summer. If you keep a sharp lookout you can now see the new comet in the evening sky. Ducks are after the sea-fowl lively in our creeks. Nor is the more toothsome partridge forgotten.

Mr. C. Wallace Mitchell is in the county with some friends on a gunning expedition. Among the visitors to court on Tuesday we noticed John P. Briscoe, Esq., State's Attorney for Talbot county.

A piece of cloth rolled around a feminine head seems to answer for a hat just now among girls of the period.

George P. Jenkins has been commissioned by the Governor as chief Judge of the Orphan's Court for this county. Ice fully an inch thick was formed on ponds and pools of standing water on Thursday and Friday nights last week.

Mr. Merritt M. Haviland, living near Hughesville, has disposed of his farm and will remove from the county about the first of the year.

The new board of county commissioners will meet next Tuesday for purpose of organizing and to assume control of county affairs.

The best etiquette for a man is not to boast of his virtues. It is also exceedingly inelegant to annoy society with a cold or cough, when he can find relief in a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

The chimney of Mr. John W. Fowler's house at Chapel Point caught fire on last Friday night and it was only by strenuous efforts on the part of the family that the building was prevented from taking fire from the dying sparks.

The 7th meridian time having been adopted by the Pennsylvania railroad on last Sunday the time for the running of our trains is now 6 minutes and 28 seconds faster than formerly. As the local time along the railroad is regulated almost entirely by it, this change will cause very little delay among our people.

Next Thursday we will have almost a baby show in Port Tobacco. On that day five young mothers will have five wee bits of darlings here for the purpose of having them christened, and every mother will of course think her darling the best "little peppy wuzzy" ever brought into this world.

John Edlen, one of the colored jurors, was highly impressed with the idea that he should be the foreman of the grand jury. Upon the assembling of court on Monday John took the seat usually allotted to the foreman and was very loath indeed to give it up, for the court had designated Mr. F. O. Medley for the honor. Better luck next time, John.

FOR THE WHEAT CROPS.

WE HAVE had manufactured for our trade in addition to our VICTOR BRAND, and Wheat and Corn Brand, the "Waverly Ammoniated Bone Phosphate and Mash" a complete Fertilizer—Rich in Phosphoric acid and other grain and grass producing elements, and ammonia to stimulate the plant growth, just what the farmers want for making the most wheat and securing the best growth of Clover and other grasses. This fertilizer—made from the best material, and with great success in the wheat growing sections, and is, in quality considered, one of the cheapest in the market, yielding to the farmer the largest profit with the most permanent benefit for the amount of money invested. It has been thoroughly tested and its merits proved. We have selected it with great care and confidently recommend it to farmers.—PRICE $40.

OUR VICTOR FERTILIZER

is kept up to its full standard of excellence and cannot be surpassed for Tobacco, Wheat and all crops. For land having a deficiency of Ammonia, our Wheat and Corn Brand is the cheapest and will give fine results. But where more Ammonia is required to stimulate the crops use our WAVERLY or VICTOR as COMPLETE FERTILIZERS, as they are the means to supply all the necessary ingredients in the most perfect combination.
