

For Speaker of the next House of Delegates: Hon. Andrew G. Chapman, OF CHARLES COUNTY.

It is, perhaps, necessary that we should say to our contemporary, the Marlboro "Gazette," that the report it publishes from the Baltimore "American" of a recent difficulty between the manager of the "Maryland Independent" and its editor of the TIMES is, as usual with the reports of its authority, entire false. The truth of the matter, as it is known here, is about the reverse of what is there stated, except as to the drawing of the pistol, in which particular its statement is correct.

Hail to the chief—RICHARD H. EDELEN!

A Democratic avalanche swept over the county on Tuesday. Charles county came nobly into line and is now of the blessed majority.

After twelve long years our sun at length shines in a cloudless sky. Ah! that our ancestors could see this day. 'Rah for Democracy!

Dr. Lancaster's 100 in Harris' Lot is not lost!! Doctor compare 68 with 181 (Mr. Edele's majority in his home district) and see how you like it.

Every man did his duty and to every man is due his full meed of justice for the glorious uprising of honest indignation. Our day of deliverance has come.

No news but election news this week friends. All good Democrats and lovers of honest government will appreciate our feelings. 'Rah for the commissioners ticket!

Democrats, we thank you. We asked you to allow us to chronicle a sweeping Democratic victory, and you have more than realized our most sanguine expectations in acceding to our request.

Dr. Wilmer must have been told how the "cat was hopping." He failed to put in an appearance on Tuesday. Well, Doctor, we will soon be after your scalp, and make the funeral a decent one. 'Rah for Charles county!

Mr. Stonestreet thought that no one could fill the clerk's office but himself.—The people think otherwise, and so expressed themselves. No Mr. Stonestreet, Mr. Turner will make good Democrat his deputy. 'Rah for Allen's Fresh.

We wonder if the Hon (?) Leigh M. still thinks that the TIMES deserves the censure of all respectable citizens. The Hon (?) Leigh did not get a voucher for respectability on Tuesday. Perhaps he will look for it in the hole into which he crawled.

Mr. N. W. Simpson, our young and gallant sheriffly candidate beat Dr. Lancaster in his own district by one vote, and beat his competitor in the same district—the 5th—the hitherto banner district of republicanism by 65 votes. The boastful doctor will no doubt shrug his shoulders when he reads these figures.

A statement was made public in Washington on Sunday last to the effect that President Cleveland will in his annual message to Congress speak a good word for the proposed sixteenth or woman suffrage amendment to the constitution. This statement may be regarded as fishy. The sixteenth amendment has been brought forward in Congress periodically at one time or another in the last fifteen years, but it has never gotten beyond the merest preliminary stage. It will be brought forward many times more before it makes any material progress.

Our roosters have become so sick at being continually worried at each succeeding election for the past twelve years that we were unable to rouse them in time to crow in this issue. Only one tough old fellow, whose Democracy is as strong as our own, and who kept up faith in the ultimate success of honest principles and return of our good old county to economic reform, could be induced to come out and believe the glorious news. We place him at the head of our columns this week and his crowing will be heard from Mattawoman to Cobb Neck and from Maryland Point to Benedict.

Gen. George Brinton McClellan, one of the most distinguished generals of our civil war, died suddenly at Orange, New Jersey, on the 29th inst., of neuralgia of the heart, in the 60th year of his age. There is no doubt that Gen. McClellan was more affectionate regard than any other officer who ever commanded it. There is no doubt also that he was most unjustly treated by Stanton and those Republicans who were opposed to him because he was a true Democrat in politics. Gen. McClellan was a genius in military matters, and history will do his memory ample justice.

A citizen of Washington, whose name is withheld, purchased on Monday a seat in the New York Stock Exchange for $34,000, which is the highest price ever paid for a membership in the history of the institution. Six months ago a seat could be purchased for less than $30,000, and the rapid advance in price is indicative of the almost unprecedented activity of the past month or more. The commissions on stocks alone during the past week amounted to about $15,000 a day, and on transactions in bonds to about as much more. At $34,000 a piece, the value of the eleven hundred memberships in the Exchange amounts to $37,400,000. It was suggested on Wall street that the purchaser of the $34,000 seat may be Assistant Secretary Coon, who has just resigned from the Treasury Department to go into business in New York, but nothing authoritative is known in regard to the matter.

The Country Safe.

The result of last Tuesday's local election will bring joy to the hearts of all true citizens of Charles county. The county has at last been redeemed from the degrading thralldom put upon her by a few misguided men, and the local government in its every branch is once more restored to the hands of her representative citizens.

The victory is complete in every detail, and every candidate is elected by such a large and safe majority as to preclude any apprehension of a contested election. The Democratic gains have been uniform throughout the county, every district showing a decided change of sentiment.

The causes which led to so great a decisive a victory will be found to be several. First, the excellent ticket placed in the field by the Democrats commanded the united support of the people and the able and aggressive campaign made by our standard bearers awakened a determined spirit among the people to break down the local misrule. Second, the joint called the republican party was in a considerable measure divided against itself, in consequence of a quarrel over the distribution of the spoils. Third, many of the colored voters had tired of the rule of their political masters which had brought no advantage to them; and the indifference on their part thus created made them more easily alienated by the influence of disaffected white republicans and the white Democrats each one constituted himself a committee of one to undeviate those people. All of these causes combined and other lesser causes, contributed to the great and important result.

The important part the colored people have done in redeeming the county should not be forgotten and they should be recognized in the appointments to the public service in so far as their capacity and fitness permit, and in other ways, so that they may see who are their real friends.

In regard to the few white men who have availed themselves of the ignorance and credulity of the colored voters to degrade and injure their native county we need say nothing further at present. It has been the aim and purpose of the TIMES since it passed into the hands of its present editorial management to expose the true iniquity and selfishness of these men and as far as lay in its power to make their schemes odious to the people. In doing so it has always avoided personalities and has never been actuated by any personal hostility to any of them. Now that they are overthrown—finally, as we confidently believe—we shall direct our energies toward helping to repair the mischief they have done and advancing the cause of good, honest, economical local government; and for them we have only to say requiescat in pace.

The fruits of this victory are most important and far reaching in their character. Not only will the administration of our local affairs by representative gentlemen who fully recognize their responsibility to the tax-payers, bring about an economy which the present depraved value of agricultural productions so urgently demands; but the representation of the county in the legislative councils of the State by her best and most talented citizens will be at this particular time of incalculable advantage. The effect of the expulsion of that bad faction from power will also do much toward increasing and maintaining that amity and mutual confidence between labor and capital—the employers and the employed—which is so necessary to the prosperity and happiness of a community.

Altogether the victory is a most glorious one and will bring gladness into the hearts of all true citizens. The TIMES sends its congratulations to all its readers.

Unhappy Man.

Why persist in ruining your digestion by eating unwholesome food, and keeping it running by doing nothing to restore it to usefulness and right action? Some think that dyspepsia is incurable. They are the ones who have never taken Brown's Iron Bitters. This valuable medicine makes short work of the torment and soon enables the digestive apparatus to do its work. Mr. H. E. Collins, of Keokuk, Iowa, says, "I used Brown's Iron Bitters for dyspepsia, and am much benefited."

In a speech delivered at Elkton city, Howard county, Md., on Saturday evening last, Mr. Gorman gives much of his personal experience in the last National campaign, which resulted in the election of our worthy President. The following extract contains a fact that has never before been brought out but which will be felt sure to be fully appreciated by the people of Southern Maryland, who will join with the rest of our State in doing honor to the man whose firmness and able executive ability was able to place in the Presidential chair a man elected by Democratic votes.

ONE GOLD AND THE NATIONAL CONTEST. One of the most astute and learned gentlemen in the State of New York came to see me about a week ago. He said, "Do you understand the matter thoroughly? Do you understand the motives for the criticisms of these gentlemen who are opposed to you? Do you not?" I would like to have your idea of it."

He said, "Do you know what you did during the presidential campaign with the greatest credit in this country—the richest man but one in America? He is bitter, he is a real fighter. He is a man on Washington street, to cross his financial opinions that he did not bankrupt. He never permitted a man to strike his land-grabbing interests that he did not punish him. He never permitted any man to fight him in his political movements without destroying him if possible. Do you know what he did? He was a great speaker and a great writer. He was a great agent and attorney? Which do you like?"

"What was that?" I would like to tell you. When the whole country was standing breathless waiting for the return of a very bright young fellow of 18 years who was my room and schoolmate, I would like to give you a piece of information, it is reliable to you. You have the returns from the State of New York and they show a majority of 20,000 for the Democrats. He is a man of 80 for Cleveland in New York. That is the republican return. Mr. Gould was the chief receiving agent of the Western Union Company at the time of the election. He was a man of 80 for Cleveland in New York. That is the republican return. Mr. Gould was the chief receiving agent of the Western Union Company at the time of the election. He was a man of 80 for Cleveland in New York. That is the republican return.

The latest advices from New York report that State to have gone Democratic by a large majority, and the election of the ticket headed by Gov. David B. Hill by 20,000 majority or upwards, as latter returns will more likely swell these figures. The election of Hill by a majority twelve times larger than was given to Cleveland, without the meagre assistance, shows that State to be solidly Democratic in sentiment and may be safely depended on in future contests. Tammany rejoices over the result as the nomination of Hill was largely due to its influence.

Virginia has also wheeled nobly into line and has stamped out forever the degrading and odious rule of Mahone, under which she has labored for the past five years. That gallant soldier, Gen. Fitzhugh Lee, the Democratic standard bearer in the campaign, has come out victorious with a majority of 20,000 or more at his back. The Legislature in both branches is largely Democratic and this insures a successor in the United States Senate, to take Mahone's seat, of that faith. It is reported that Hon. John S. Barbour will be elected to that position. Advices from the State report that many counties before largely republican have given Democratic majorities.

Ferdinand Ward, the gigantic swindler of New York, and the partner with Gen. Grant and his sons in the firm of Grant & Ward, whose noted failure of last year, which brought so much misery and ruin in financial circles, will be well remembered, was tried in New York last week, on the charge of swindling and was found guilty, and sentenced to the penitentiary at Sing Sing at hard labor for a period of ten years. Judge Barre, is sentencing Ward, said:

"Ward, you have been convicted by an intelligent and conscientious jury. You certainly had a perfectly fair and impartial trial. The jury was carefully selected, and the court carefully guarded all your rights. You were convicted because you had no defense. All the charges were overwhelmingly proven, and you offered substantially no defense whatever to the facts. The only matter of conjecture is why the jury should have so long to arrive at a conclusion. If you had been entirely unknown, the jury would not have left their seats. You have had the benefit of every assistance possible. You were skillfully and ably defended, and an address was delivered in your behalf which was as able and brilliant as any I have ever heard. You were not convicted upon popular clamor, but it is more than probable that the jury, being conscientious men, delayed the verdict, fearing that popular clamor might have influenced them. On that subject alone can I explain why such a verdict was in the most delayed. I have nothing to say to you further. You have exhibited a sense of responsibility to your crimes which is astonishing, and you seem to forget the many good people whom you have brought to misery and poverty. You have done more to undermine confidence in commercial affairs than any man I have ever known of. Your habit was to carry on business by committing frauds, and in that way you utterly destroyed confidence. Yet you have maintained the same responsibility throughout the trial and have exhibited no signs of repentance. It will be for me to say anything to you on this subject. I will only add the sentence of the law, which is that you are confined at hard labor in the State prison for a period of ten years."

In 1875 Virginia City, Nev., had a population of 22,000. The inhabitants were a number of 3,000, the buildings are in the shape of a 3,000,000 non-combustible mills are idle and rotting; the great hoisting and pumping works have been torn down and the whole town of the Camstock lode and of the city depends upon a little knife-blade at the end of the Hale and Norcross. The Camstock lode has yielded about $20,000,000 and nearly that sum has been put into it.
