Before purchasing your Fertilizers for Wheat the coming season, it will be to your interest to give us a call. All the above brands are strictly reliable, besides we keep in stock all kinds of the best grade material from which we can make you any grade Fertilizer you may need. This house is an old established one, and every thing they sell you are represented. As an evidence of the superiority of our goods, my sales have increased from 21 tons per annum, the first year to one thousand and eighty-five tons, this being my sales in Charles and St. Mary's counties the past year. I shall not be satisfied until I sell every responsible farmer in Southern Maryland, and it is not only for my own interest I wish to do so. My greatest desire is to induce the planters of Southern Maryland to use strictly first class goods and can only do so by dealing with a first class house. If you will buy your goods from the G. Ober & Sons Company you will not regret it. Mr. W. I. Burch, at Bryans town, or Mr. C. B. Lloyd, our Collector and Sales men, will be glad to receive your orders, and I will devote as much time as I can in the two counties the coming season in order to induce the farmers of Southern Maryland to buy the best Fertilizers offered to the people of any State in Union. All responsible orders sent direct to the Company will receive prompt attention.

Yours very truly,

JOHN M. LLOYD.

N. B.—What Mr. James F. Mattingly, a large and practical farmer of Chaptico District, St. Mary's county, says of our Tobacco Compound: "He says that he can grow as large Tobacco from our fertilizers as he can from other's, but while other's is just as good as to quality, it weighs from 1 to 4 more than any other Fertilizer that he has used. I will here add that Mr. Mattingly is not only a very good and prosperous farmer but strictly reliable. Mr. Mattingly has used our goods for several years and says he will use no others both for Wheat and Tobacco."

Secret Poetry.

"OVER THE GARDEN WALL."

A New Version.

A little old cat sat on the fence,
"Over the garden wall,"
The back of his head was full of dents,
"Over the garden wall!"
He was all battered up like an old tin pot,
His back was the most of his head to rest,
So he let himself out in a mighty yell,
"Over the garden wall!"

His ears lapped down, and his eyes were dim,
"Over the garden wall,"
He says as he thought of his brother Jim
"Over the garden wall,"
Who was counting a mackerel Maltese,
Among all the other cats she was queen—
Her name was Susan B. Catkins Green,
"Over the garden wall!"

Says Tom to himself, "I think I'll side
"Over the garden wall,"
And gentle was my brother's hide,
"Over the garden wall,"
But his brother remarked that he'd have none
Of that
From him or any old friends out."

They spat while they waited their words of hate,
"Over the garden wall,"
Till they tossed the hinges from off the gate,
"Over the garden wall,"
And people in passing began to think
Their neighbors had started a "trailer sick,"
And that some lively mischief had fallen forward
"Over the garden wall!"

When morning dawned what a sight was there,
"Over the garden wall,"
The ground was strewn with words of hate,
"Over the garden wall,"
Under an ash pile a dead could be
His brother Jimmy, ah! where was he?
Decamped with Susan B. Catkins Green,
"Over the garden wall!"

All that remained of Tom was laid
"Over the garden wall,"
Under the ash pile in the shade,
"Over the garden wall,"
The grasshopper reads "This ends my tale,
No more will I read his sad wall,"
His race is run—let your prey!
"Over the garden wall!"

A Bachelor on Matrimony.

"Are bachelors growing more selfish?"

"Are they poorer? Do they demand a higher standard of womanhood? I confess I think the dominant reason is the spread of exact information. The age of inquiry having succeeded that of civility, men have begun to ask themselves why women are angels, and what are the guarantees for the continuance of their angelic attributes. They find staring them in the face such awkward interrogatories as, will she wear? What kind of an old woman will she be? Is her natty-ness innate and permanent? Is she merely a pretty animal, or a piece of nimble mechanism? I remember how disconcerted I was when from a rather secluded mode of life, I tumbled into the world's fray and discovered that women had no wing. I was long recovering from the shock. But the snow and rose-bloom maidens still smiled, and waltzed, and strummed, and hummed, all unconscious of the deficiency, and there was no help for it. This naturally led to the analytic stage, to subtle disquisitions as to the position of women in the world economy.

"You are young, you are active, you are hopeful; why should you leave your pleasant companions to be wearied by a nullity? Your smoking chair and your book before you is preferable to an uninteresting female. Run over your list of matrons under forty years, and add up the number whose souls would delight you in the capacity of a wife. The middle-class bachelors beginning to find out the middle girl. Even her excellence as a tennis fails to satisfy his exacting requirements. He fails to be content when she smokes. Her profanity is music—but that is a painful decreasing marriage rate. What becomes of the girls who pass single lives? A large number of them, it is estimated, still loom upon you as bachelors. They are individuals about whom you sound and perceptive, marrying in a reasonable way, or, if you single living in the most comfortable clubs and comfortable bachelors."

Interviewing a Broncho Cow.

"When I was young," says Billy, "and used to roam around over the country, gathering watermelons in the dark of the moon, I used to think I could milk anybody's cow, but I do not think so now. I do not milk a cow unless the sign is right, and it hasn't been right for a good many years.

"The last cow I tried to milk was a common cow, born in obscurity; kind of a self-made cow. I remember her brow was low, but she wore her tail high and she was haughty, oh, so haughty!

"I made a common place remark to her, one that is used in the very best society, one that need not have given offense anywhere. I said 'so,' and she said, 'Then I told her to 'histe,' and she 'histed.' But I thought she over did it. She put too much expression in it.

"Just then I heard something crash through the window of the barn and fall with a dull, sickening thud on the outside. The neighbors came to see what it was that caused all the noise. They found I had done it in getting through the window.

"I asked the neighbors if the barn was still standing. They said it was. Then I asked if the cow was injured much. Then I requested them to go in and calm the cow a little and see if they could get my plug hat off her horns.

"I am buying all my milk from a milkman. I select a couple milkmen, who will not kick, and I feel as though I could trust him. Then, if he feels as though he could trust me, it is all right.

Pr'y tell off—The leaves.

A swell affair—the soap bubble.

It is not unusual for a sporting man to talk horse after being out all night.

"In Siam the cat's have their tails banded." In this country the entire cat is banded.

Men's heads are something like omnibuses—the empty one makes the most noise.

A late book is called "Half Hour With Uncle." The author probably undertook to spend the night at a Minneapolis Hotel.

There is no stated Thanksgiving day in Europe, but they seem to be concocting schemes to gobble Turkey, all the same.

Question for debating clubs: "Can a man, while asleep in the daytime, have the nightmare?"

Carl: "Mother, in the milk bucket a dead mouse was?" Mother: "Well, hast thou it thereout taken?" Carl: "No; I have the cat the rain thrown."

Josh Billings wrote: "I have known a man who was so pious that when he went fishing on Sunday he always prayed to the Lord for good luck."

"Well, it's just like King Cophetia and the beggar-maid," Elizabeth observed, with mock ruefulness, a little later.

"Oh, no. Give me the benefit of being that Prince Charming, at least, that you told the innocent Bobbie of," he rejoined, laughing.

"Oh, don't remind me of that again," cried Elizabeth, blushing.
