Before purchasing your Fertilizers for what the coming season, it will be to your interest to give us a call. All the above brands are strictly reliable, besides we keep in stock all kinds of the best grade material from which we can make you any grade Fertilizer you may need. This House is an old established one, and every thing they sell you is as represented. As an evidence of the superiority of our goods, my sales have increased from 21 tons per annum, the first year to one thousand and eighty-five tons, this being my sales in Charles and St. Mary's counties the past year. I shall not be satisfied until I sell every responsible farmer in Southern Maryland, as it is not only for my own interest I wish to do so. My greatest desire is to induce the planters of Southern Maryland to use strictly first class goods and can only do so by dealing with a first class house. If you will buy your goods from the G. O. & S. Company you will not regret it. Mr. W. J. Dancy, at Hyattstown, or Mr. C. B. Lloyd, our Collector and Salesmen, will be glad to receive your orders, and I will devote as much time as I can in the two counties the coming season to induce the farmers of Southern Maryland to buy the best Fertilizers offered to the people of any State in the Union. All responsible orders sent direct to the Company will receive prompt attention.

Yours very truly,
JOHN M. LLOYD.

N. B.—What Mr. James F. Mattingly, a large and practical farmer of Chaptin District, St. Mary's county, says of our Tobacco Compound: He says that he can grow as large Tobacco from other fertilizers as he can from Ours, but while there's is just as good as to quality, it weighs from 1 to 2 more than any other Fertilizer that he has used. I will here add that Mr. Mattingly is not only a very good and prosperous farmer but strictly reliable. Mr. Mattingly has used our goods several years and says he will use no others both for Wheat and Tobacco.

Out Pensioners of the County.

The following is a list of the persons who receive pensions from the county and who do not reside at the almshouse. The list is official from the report of the trustees of the poor as furnished to the Clerk of the County Commissioners. It will be well if all interested in the taxes of the county would read carefully this list and ascertain if any not actually in need of charity are receiving these pensions:

More than 100,000 copies of Gen. Lee's "The War of 1861-62" have been sold. It probably would not have run as well if it had been Him.

A news item states that "a girl in Wisconsin has lived fifty-three days on air." She must have married a labor agitator, and is unable to earn her own living. It is lucky for her that she can live on air.

Correspondent: "And you say your husband was killed by the Mexican authorities?" Texas widow: "Yes, murdered in cold blood." Correspondent: "He was the worthiest man?" Texas widow: "We hope to get $100,000 for him from the Mexican Government."

Portry.

NEVER SATISFIED.
A little, with content, is much
To him who'll not refuse it,
Who takes it as the Lord has sent
And then does rightly use it.
Most men, with nothing, have a thought
That life would be a pleasure
If they could share, in smallest part,
With those who have the treasure.
But is this true? Experience shows
That, in this world of sorrow,
The man who fights for bread to day
Will fight for pie to-morrow.

He vows he does not want the earth;
His thoughts are for above it;
The good of India and of Ute,
His simple tastes don't covet.
A very little needs its wants;
Enough to furnish living.
He says, is all a man should ask,
And thank the Lord for giving,
But is it true? Well, if it be,
The truth you'll have to borrow.
The man who fights for bread to-day
Will fight for pie to-morrow.

Of wealth, fraction's all he asks.
With smallest number
Set out in unit bold, above
A large denominator
That makes the sum of all his joys,
Of all his hopes and blisses;
The all he needs, 'tis all he prays;
'Tis bread and cheese, and kisses.
But is it true? You bet it ain't!
For, in this world of sorrow,
The man who fights for bread to-day
Will fight for pie to-morrow.

When I was a young fellow I lived on father's farm down there in Connecticut. You've seen the place. The church was near the tavern, and behind the church was the parsonage; and there lived Dominie Wheeler and his daughter Dolly. On Saturday, after I had my supper, I used to dress myself and tell my mother that I meant to call on Dominie Wheeler's folks. Mother generally answered that I couldn't do better, that the dominie's conversation was sure to be improving, and that Dolly was not "dirty, like some gals she could mention."

Father would add: And a pretty little critter, too! And armed with parental authority I would go to the parsonage.

It was a good time to go, for the sermon had to be finished, as a general thing on that evening, and Dolly and I had delightful long talks in the solitary moments, and one evening I proposed to Dolly and she accepted them. The dominie gave us his blessing, and father and mother said they could not have chosen a daughter in law to suit them better, and all they asked was that we should wait a little while. "My daughter is not 17 years yet," said the dominie. You must not be in a hurry to take her from me."

Wait two years and you will be three and twenty,
