

LOCAL MATTERS:

The subscription price of THE TIMES is $1. per annum if paid in advance or at any time within the current year; if not paid within the year $1.50 will be invariably charged, as always heretofore, and from this rule no exception will be made.

TO ADVERTISERS.—The Times having a larger circulation than any other paper among the intelligent farmers and business men of Charles County, offers superior inducements to advertisers to insert their announcements in its columns. Special rates are given, which are as low as any other paper in Southern Maryland, and no notice about circulation.

Mr. Charles E. Torrey, a young Baltimore mechanic, was married on Wednesday last to Miss Annie Taylor, daughter of Mr. Jos. W. Taylor, the well known contractor of our section, at the home of the bride's parents, near La Plata, by Rev. L. C. Martin of the M. E. Church, South, in the presence of a few friends. We tender congratulations and wish for the young couple a bright and prosperous future.

Henry on the Pipers.—All pigs and hogs which are to be butchered should from this time be fed with all the fattening feed they can consume. Plenty of corn and corn meal, and good milk should be given with wheat bran, will fill the bill. Give a little sulphur and charcoal once in a while to keep them in a healthy condition. Push them fast and get them into the packing barrel long before Christmas. When cold weather comes on all hog fattening ought to be over.

Will be There.—The republicans seem much concerned at the failure of the Democrats to call their convention. Mr. S. E. Mudd, one of their prospective candidates said that it might be put off until the day before the election but the republicans would be at the polls next morning with their full ticket. This is a very serious stand last week, that the "Republican" ticket would be settled on long before their convention. Possess your soul in patience, friend Mudd, the Democratic ticket will be out in ample time to swamp you and your confederates at the polls on the 8th of November. And don't you forget it.

Maryland Tax Rate.—The Maryland county tax rates for 1887, which have been made up by Dr. S. R. Waters, clerk to Commissioner Woolford, shows that Carroll county has the lowest rate and Garrett county the highest. The county rates are as follows: Allegany..... 81/100 Howard..... 61/100 Anne Arundel..... 1.00 Kent..... 86/100 Baltimore Co..... 60 Montgomery..... 88/100 Calvert..... 84/100 Prince George's..... 78/100 Caroline..... 81/100 Queen Anne's..... 80/100 Carroll..... 50 Somerset..... 86/100 Cecil..... 80 St. Mary's..... 74/100 Chertowise..... 87/100 Talbot..... 91/100 Dorchester..... 86/100 Washington..... 91/100 Frederick..... 88/100 Wicomico..... 83/100 Garrett..... 1.17/100 St. Charles..... 82/100 Harford..... 74/100 Baltimore city..... 1.40

To each of these county rates and to the municipal rate of Baltimore city must be added the State tax of 18 1/2 cents.

The Astorian Express.—The Astorian Express occurred on Wednesday, September 21st, when the sun crossed the tropic of Capricorn and entered the winter solstice. About this time in the year occur atmospheric disturbances, generally accompanied by storms of greater or less severity. Since Old Probabilities has got a government position he declines to recognize the equinoctial storm as an old acquaintance, and the weather clerks say that a series of observations taken through many years shows that the crossing of the imaginary tropic lines does not in itself bring a storm. It is shown that only three per cent. more rain falls than at the same period in any other month. The storms only come from the cooling of the atmosphere at this season, and occur indiscriminately before, after or on the equinoctial day.

The Hiding Men Disposed With.—We direct attention to the advertisement of the Washington Flour and Feed Company found on our first page. This company will supply our customers with the best grades of flour, corn meal, breakfast hominy, &c., as well as every variety of mill feed at bottom prices. They also buy grain for the supply of their extensive mills and pay at all times the highest cash prices. Farmers dealing with this concern, both in buying and selling, accomplish that much desired result of disposing with the middle man. But in buying and selling the producer and the miller is brought together in the transaction. Mr. Barnhart, the popular manager, is a native of Prince George's and well known in this county. All who have dealt with this company, whether in selling grain or buying flour, feed, &c., speak highly of their honorable dealing. We commend them to the attention of our farmers.

Mon. Barrenes Compton Talks.—Congressman Compton was in Washington on Monday looking after the interests of his constituents in the departments. While at the Treasury Department Mr. Compton chatted freely about the political situation in Maryland, and says the democratic party is not without a fair chance in the State, or that it is proposed to admit that under the administration of the past ten years the people of the State have been plundered and abused, and has been alleged. The financial affairs of the State and city of Baltimore are admirably managed, and, notwithstanding the reckless statements of the slanders of Baltimore city, no booties have been discovered in the municipal or State treasuries. Mr. Compton says the people of Maryland have become so accustomed to hear the republicans and their assistants howl about ring and bosses that those words have no further terror for them. Under the present state of affairs any one who is proposed to turning the State over to republican control is regarded as a ringer or a boss. Every political party is obliged to have its managers, and upon these devolve the responsibility of conducting the campaign. Sensible people are no longer frightened by the cry of "bosses" and "rings."

Mr. Compton says the democratic party will not be seriously affected by the attacks of the republican press, nor will any honest party man walk up to the polls and vote for the republican candidates in preference to the regular ticket, which is composed of some of the purest and best men to be found in any State of the Union. Mr. Compton proposes to start into the campaign with his coat of arms as his family emblem, and is decorated for the winter.

Local Reader.—In another column will be found the advertisement of the Green-belt Baltimore Clothing House, Ousey's A-Case Hat. During July and August extraordinary and sweeping reductions will be made in all departments. A man can dress at about two thirds usual price. The store is one of the sights of Baltimore, and daily thousands of strangers stroll through the great establishment.

The Trip to Philadelphia.—Our soldier boys have been to Philadelphia and returned and have still further added to their already enviable reputation of being a proficient and well drilled organization, and nothing in our people to be ashamed of in their home militia. We left La Plata by the noon train on Thursday, the 15th inst., and reached Baltimore in due time and were comfortably quartered for the night at Bailey's Hotel in that city. We left at 5:55 o'clock Friday morning en route for Philadelphia. The trip was uneventful save for the admiration and charm expressed by the boys for the beautiful country we passed through and the evidence of progressive farming to be seen on all sides. We arrived at 11:15, and were at once assigned to our post as the left wing of the First Maryland Regiment under Col. Douglas. The Maryland division formed on Carpenter street, south of Broad, and was fully 1,400 men strong. It is not our purpose in this article to speak of the immense crowd of people or the great number of soldiers who were in attendance at the celebration but only to speak of the Howard Rifles. And just here it may not be out of place to state that, in all the immense crowd of 30,000 men who participated in the parade, and considering the youthfulness of our company, no single organization acquitted themselves more satisfactorily than did the Charles County militia. They marched the long route of 13 miles, company front, like veterans; they prepared an admirable line and "do or die." It is with pride that we truthfully state that we received more applause and cheer than the immense crowd who viewed the parade than any other single company in the First Regiment and as far as we could hear of any company in the Maryland line. Sociosidely and steadily did our men march that we were frequently mistaken for regular troops and such remarks were frequently all about the line. We were reviewed by President Cleveland who, it seemed to us, gave the Howard Rifles special attention; by General Sheridan and staff and by our own commander-in-chief, Gov. Lloyd, and as our company passed each reviewing stand the men braced up with a manliness and spirit that made our captain feel that his earnest attention towards perfecting us had not been in vain, and he congratulated us in a way that made each man feel that he had done his whole duty. The march was long and over the rough streets of Philadelphia was tireless and at the end of it there were many tired limbs and sore feet among our boys who were unaccustomed to such hard surfaces, and after dismissal there was not much hard made to see the city but all were content to settle down quietly and wait the time of departure. We arrived at La Plata by the noon train Saturday a little fatigued but well satisfied with the reputation that our company had won in Philadelphia and that our company would yet become what our captain in the beginning promised it should be, the crack military organization of Maryland.

All good citizens ought to vote, and it follows, therefore, that all good citizens ought to register. There are only two more days in which to do so, October 3rd and 4th.

Senator and Mrs. Eelen returned home this week from their summer trip. They have been absent nearly two months and divided the time between Atlantic City and Gettysburg Springs, Pa.

We publish on our first page today the corrected registration list for the first election district. See it carefully and if you know of any Democrat entitled to register who is not on the list take him to the registrar at the next sitting of this court.

Rev. T. J. Kane, S. J., who for some years had charge of St. Thomas's, and who, since his removal, has been located at Leonardtown, has been located at Leonardtown, and will be in charge of the Howard Rifles. He has many friends here and will regret to see him removed from our section of country where he was much beloved.

It is expected that his honor, Judge Stone, will draw the list of jurors to serve the November term of court on Saturday. Being engaged for the past few days preparing the list of 600 names from which the jury is to be taken.

Good Results in Every Case.—D. A. Bradford, wholesale paper dealer of Chantons, Tex., writes that he was seriously afflicted with a severe cold that settled on his lungs; had tried many remedies without benefit. Being induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, he found it entirely cured by use of a few bottles. Since which time he has used it in his family for all kinds of colds and whooping cough, and has experienced thousands whose lives have been saved by this Wonderful Discovery. Trial bottles free at W. W. Padgett's Store. Large bottles $1.

All responsible orders sent direct to the Company will receive prompt attention.

Yours very truly, JOHN M. LLOYD. N. B.—What Mr. James F. Mattingly, a large and practical farmer of Charles County, St. Mary's county, says of our Tobacco Company: He says that he can grow as large Tobacco from other fertilizers as he can from Obe's, but while Obe's is just as good as to quality, it weighs from 1 to 2 more than any other Fertilizer that he has used. I will here add that Mr. Mattingly is not only a very good and prosperous farmer but strictly reliable. Mr. James F. Mattingly has used our goods for several years and he will use no others both for Wheat and Tobacco.

JOHN M. LLOYD.
