When You Buy Clothing

Overcoats especially, call into play all the common sense you possess. That's all that's needed. You know nothing of clothing, technically speaking—so seek out a respectable house,—place implicit confidence in the men they tell you. Use your common sense and you'll be satisfied with your purchase.

WHEN YOU BUY A HORSE.

You run chances on the animal's developing the points that it was represented to be possessed. When you buy overcoats—others—you take no chances we take them all. We guarantee every stitch of goods we sell. If we had only a hundred or two overcoats we wouldn't be so sure we could please every taste and fit every form—but where others have hundreds we've thousands. There is not an overcoat design that we haven't a line. By a line we mean a complete stock of coats particular styles.

Whatever You Want.

Whether it is an outer garment from dress or a thick, heavy storm coat, or anything in between—we've got it. You may be sure of that. We can show you overcoats from $10 up. The beauty of it all is that we're possessing that in our creditable manufacturing factory and marked on the same basis as all our goods—absolutely one price and that a low one, setting 100 above actual cost. You know SAKS & CO'S. reputation in this respect. We've looked especially about overcoats for we believe them to be your greatest need at present; but don't lose sight of the fact that we keep everything by men and boys, and don't forget either, that if you can't come to town, we can send you

BY MAIL
Just as satisfactorily. If what we send don't suit—return it. You are not obliged to keep it.

SAKS and COMPAY,

CLOTHES WHO APPEAL TO YOUR COMMON SENSE.

Betrothed.
Nine to the core of the heart, my beauty!
Mine, all mine, and I love, not duty!
I have given my heart, full and true,
For love's sake—mine to thee.
Duty's a slave that keeps the keys,
The gently chiming with song and shout,
Just as he pleases—just as he pleases.
A from the deer head's crown, brown,
Gilded with the sun's rays, beholden,
To the friend's hand or smile,
But the sanctuary heart that none dare
Holiest of holiest, evermore;
The high priest only enters in.
Mine, my own, without doubts or terrors,
With all the goodness, all the errors,
Intentions and the above revealed,
"A spring shut up, a fountain sealed."
I have given my heart, full and true,
For love's sake—mine to thee.
Duty's a slave that keeps the keys,
The gently chiming with song and shout,
Just as he pleases—just as he pleases.
A from the deer head's crown, brown,
Gilded with the sun's rays, beholden,

Holiest of holiest, evermore;
The high priest only enters in.
Mine, my own, without doubts or terrors,
With all the goodness, all the errors,
Intentions and the above revealed,
"A spring shut up, a fountain sealed."
I have given my heart, full and true,
For love's sake—mine to thee.
Duty's a slave that keeps the keys,
The gently chiming with song and shout,
Just as he pleases—just as he pleases.
A from the deer head's crown, brown,
Gilded with the sun's rays, beholden,
To the friend's hand or smile,
But the sanctuary heart that none dare
Holiest of holiest, evermore;
The high priest only enters in.
Mine, my own, without doubts or terrors,
With all the goodness, all the errors,
Intentions and the above revealed,
"A spring shut up, a fountain sealed."
I have given my heart, full and true,
For love's sake—mine to thee.
Duty's a slave that keeps the keys,
The gently chiming with song and shout,
Just as he pleases—just as he pleases.
A from the deer head's crown, brown,
Gilded with the sun's rays, beholden,
To the friend's hand or smile,
But the sanctuary heart that none dare
Holiest of holiest, evermore;
