MARYLAND

AGRICULTURAL WORKS.

TO THE FARMERS OF ST. MARYS. I would most respectfully call your attention to my large assortment of IMPLEMENTS. I am manufacturing and presenting a large assortment of Agricultural Implements than I have ever before offered to the public—Horse Powers and Thrashers, Wheat Fans, Corn Mills, Corn Shellers, Ploughs, Harrows; Cultivators, and many other articles to numerous to mention. I can supply the Farmer with every thing he may want. With regard to Horse Powers I would call particular attention to a fine lot of PELTON'S TRIPLE GEARED POWERS, to work with or without land, which are not surpassed in this or any other market; and I most respectfully invite those who are in want of Machines to give me a call, as I feel confident that I can suit the purchaser. I am making a CORN MILL, for grinding Corn at Home. This is a good Mill, has been tested and pronounced so by experienced judges. To this I ask your special attention.

I tender you my sincere thanks for the kindness heretofore shown me and beg a continuance of your favors, determined to make a strong effort to please all who give me their custom. Orders will meet with prompt attention by being directed to
