

Upsala.

Feb. 16.—Sleighs are in demand at Hausen & Swanson's.

We hear that J. S. Bergstrom is going to put up a photograph gallery at Elm Dale. We wish him well, as he is a man that understands his business and guarantees satisfaction.

The farmers in this vicinity are hauling logs to John Swedback's saw mill.

John Swedback, in company with his brother, E. J., of Delano, have gone to Red Lake, where they intend to start a saw mill in the near future.

Rev. Carlson is in Holding Ford this week.

Adolph Johnson, who has been very ill the past two weeks, is now getting better.

Mr. Gunderson, of Elm Dale, was seen on our streets last week.

Fort Ripley.

Feb. 17.—Sam Trebby was in town Monday on business.

Geo. Hutchinson made a trip to the Falls Thursday.

There was a dance at Hutchinson hall Monday night.

Some unprincipled party stole 15 cords of jack pine cord wood from A. Paderon one day last week.

Claude's cord wood was also a little shy of his expectations. However, we did not hear of any being stolen.

The Double Wonder wind mill erected by Mr. Craik is nearing completion and will soon be ready for business. It is quite ornamental as well as useful.

Russell Harmon is getting out wauagnans for the Boom company here.

Motley.

Feb. 15.—Mrs. M. McKillop drove to Long Prairie Monday.

A. R. MacDonald, of Duluth, Deputy Supreme Chief Ranger of the Independent Order of Foresters, lectured in this city Monday to a fair sized audience. Mr. MacDonald is a fluent and interesting talker and he succeeded well in showing the divers advantages of Forestry.

Mrs. M. M. McKillop has sold her interest in the Motley creamery to H. E. Hanson, of Cooleyville, Minn. Mr. Hanson will take possession about the middle of March. Mrs. McKillop will return to Long Prairie.

A. P. Holm has purchased the Amos Wilson house of A. F. Lively and is now occupying the same.

Since our last letter the insurance adjusters have been in town and the various claims caused by the recent fire have been adjusted.

Mrs. I. A. Morrison has secured a portion of Geo. Mosher's store building for temporary quarters, and she is once more doing business. It will not be many weeks before she returns to her former location, at least that is the general belief.

A dance at the rink Monday evening was quite well attended.

The sick list as reported up to this week is as follows: Dr. Paquin, C. W. McMillan, John Jacobs, Faye Cole and one of Mr. Hooser's little children.

Joe Wolf has gone to Walker, where he will open up a new barber shop. He will be sure to get his share of the patronage for he is a genial fellow as well as a first-class barber.

The Duluth train came in on a new time card Sunday evening. It now reaches here at 5:45 p. m. instead of 8:45 p. m., as formerly.

Owing to a lack of snow, Geo. Wolf has reduced his camp to a minimum. He has just "let out" some 20 men and several teams, we understand.

At a meeting of the M. W. A. on Tuesday evening, Feb. 15, the following resolution was adopted: Swanville Camp No. 3463, M. W. A., in camp assembled;

Whereas, as it has been the will of the Almighty to take from our midst our esteemed neighbor, E. M. West. Therefore be it resolved that our charter be draped in mourning for 60 days, and resolved, that these resolutions be spread on our record in memory of our esteemed and beloved neighbor, and it is further resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be sent his beloved wife and children to whom we extend our sympathy in this, their sad bereavement, and be it further resolved that a copy of these resolutions be published in the county newspapers printed in Little Falls.

Rest on, rest on, in peaceful rest— Eternal life God gave. Here mortals yet unknown will stand— Beside his lowly grave.

Nor shall his goodness be forgot, While time its record keeps— But, neighbors, mark the sacred spot, Where the modern Woodman sleeps.

B. B. COX, DR. O. BERTHAM, THOS. R. LYNCH, Committee.

Huff.

Feb. 15.—Jas. Gorman, of Little Falls, was in our town Friday of last week on collecting business.

The storm prevented the meeting Friday night, but it went on Saturday night and Sunday and is now closed.

A few logs are being hauled to the Gish mill now since the snow made it possible to use sleds.

H. Oby was at the county seat Saturday on business.

Notice.

I hereby declare void a note for $10, given by me to the Montevideo Ins. Co. in May, 1897, due July, 1897, no consideration having been received. JOHN WIEZOREK.

SCROFULA.

One of America's most famous physicians says: "Scrofula is external consumption." Scrofulous children are often beautiful children, but they lack nerve force, strong bones, stout muscles and power to resist disease. For delicate children there is no remedy equal to of Cod-liver Oil with Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda. It fills out the skin by putting good flesh beneath it. It makes the cheeks red by making rich blood. It creates an appetite for food and gives the body power enough to digest it. Be sure you get SCOTT'S Emulsion.

SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, New York.

Darling.

Feb. 14.—Sunday school is held every Sunday in the Swedish Lutheran church and also at the Swedish Mission. A friendly separation has been made between the church members. Darling will have plenty churches in the near future.

We have plenty snow and business will likely be good both for wood hauling and another thing.

Peter Olson was at the county seat last week.

May is at a good price now, $5 per ton. If we only had plenty to sell.

Darling has so many carpenters, why don't they start a shop. Darling would be a nice town if something was started.

We wish Randall would not start a saloon and would give no license. Remember that last time they had trouble. Ever since saloons went we have had peace in town.

We think if lands here were settled there would be plenty manufacturing. It has been talked once to start a creamery, but people won't agree until more come in. There is 160 acres of land in section 34, sec. Mr. Penock had that. It is good land. Come out and buy that so the land gets settled. That's what will make business in Darling. There is only one farm in sections 34 and 35, owned by Aug. Lindahl, and the Swedish church. Building is only on the east side of the Elk river. Some claim land is sold, but wait for a depot. Don't wait for that, but come in here. You are welcome.

Farmers are wondering which will be best to raise and get a good market for. Hard to tell. Hogs don't pay nowadays, sheep are good in price and they started both a few years ago. Poultry doesn't pay here, to have eggs in summer only at 7 to 8 cents a dozen.

Rich Prairie.

Feb. 15.—Marion Ward, of Holding Ford, was the guest of his brother, James Ward, Sr., last Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Peterson, of Lincoln, was a business caller here last week.

Mr. Rail, Sr., made a business trip to Little Falls today.

Arthur, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. John Lokken, died last Friday morning. Mr. and Mrs. John Lokken return thanks for the help of their many friends in their sad bereavement.

Lincoln Items.

Feb. 14.—Born—To Mr. and Mrs. John Howard, a boy, Feb. 8th.

Wood dealers argued to see the snow. The section men had to unload ties between here and Staples Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Covy, who have been visiting their children here and at Philbrook since the holidays, started for their home in Wisconsin last Monday.

Mrs. Lathrop is still confined to her bed.

Van Coil was here on business last week.

Wm. Long gave our burg a short call Wednesday evening.

Jerry Foster, who has been confined so the house for the last six weeks, is able to walk around out of doors a little.

Jack Howard went to Little Falls Saturday.

Fine—Last Saturday, as Mr. Castle and family were at breakfast, they were startled by hearing a roaring over their heads. They rushed up the stairs to find the upper room in flames. They checked the fire with a couple pails of water, but seeing the house was doomed, they commenced trying to save what they could. Before they got much out Mr. Castle fell, hurting himself badly, so that he was not able to do much more. Mrs. Arwood, his widowed daughter, who is keeping house for him, kept at work until she saved the most of their goods. Loss about $200 and no insurance. They will move into the house known as the Balsiger house.

Land for Sale.

A. LILLBERG, Melrose, Minn.

Elm Dale.

Feb. 14.—Everybody is happy, plenty of snow and good sleighing, farmers busy hauling, teams going all hours of the day.

Nick Meyer, of Rich Prairie, was in our city to spend the Sabbath. He is selling Dr. Booth's German Remedies and came to Hollenbeck & Wightman for a new supply. He reports sales good.

The young people enjoyed a pleasant time at the surprise on Mrs. Rudeck last Sunday evening. We are informed that the boys were more numerous than the girls. Boys, why don't you take your girls with you?

We understand that some of the farmers want a cheese factory so that they can patronize either the creamery or cheese factory. It would be a good thing for our farmers to have both factories. It would create opposition and consequently raise the price of milk. It is not unusual to see cheese factories and creameries located near each other. There is no doubt but that making cheese is more profitable some seasons of the year; another thing we have no cheese factories near here and our cheese has to be shipped in from Minneapolis or some other market and consequently comes so high to consumers that cheese in this locality becomes a luxury. It retails today at 12 1/2 cents per pound and butter at the same price. The same quantity of milk that will make one pound of butter will make two and one half pounds of cheese. If for any reason you happen to make a poor batch of cheese it does not affect the price like it does butter. The country surrounding Elm Dale is very thickly settled and can easily support both a creamery and cheese factory.

We understand that Hollenbeck & Wightman contemplate building a new store in the spring and that they offer the use of the store building that they occupy for a cheese factory. They will put in the building for what it is worth and take shares in a cheese factory for the value of the building. They say they are obliged to build a larger building so they can handle their store and medicine business in the same building. That is certainly a very liberal offer on their part and our farmers should get together and consider the proposition. A cheese factory can be run profitably with the milk from one hundred cows and a creamery requires at least 300 to 500 cows to make it profitable. Creamery butter is quoted today at 18 cents in Minneapolis, cheese 9 1/2 to 10 cents. It costs as much to manufacture and market a pound of butter as it does to manufacture and market 2 1/2 pounds of cheese. To illustrate, it costs 5 cents per pound to manufacture and market one pound of butter which would at the present price of butter net the farmer 13 cents per pound. It costs to manufacture and market 2 1/2 pounds of cheese 5 cents and our farmers would have a home market for a large portion of their cheese and would save the expense of boxing and shipping, commission, etc., which would be an item worth considering. 2 1/2 pounds of cheese will sell for 25 cents, less expense of manufacturing and shipping, would net the farmer twenty cents, a saving of 7 cents to the farmer, besides the saving of freight and commission on what he sells himself at home. Another thing in favor of cheese making is that during the season when cheese is low you can hold your cheese and it improves with age, while butter is worth less every day you hold it.

Nick Boos is busy hauling logs to be sawed into lumber for his new home he is contemplating building this coming spring.

The mill yard is full of logs and everybody is busy hauling away lumber and hauling logs to the mill. G. R. V. says: "I told you the ground hog knows his business."
