TOMELTY'S BAZAAR STORE

A Great Tale of Little Things.

Who first called them "notions?" It is a bad name. "Essentials" would be much better. They are the small indispensables--the big little things, the all-important trifles that prove with every penny of their price that it isn't the high cost matter that makes life or business. But they are called "notions" and we bow to traditions. Ours, therefore, is a "notion store," but the very biggest of its kind, and as full of importance in its way as any store under our roof.

Our rule is "Nothing is too small to be good," consequently you will find nothing but honest goodness in these little things. You cannot get much for pennies, of course, but you will get your penny's worth at Tomelty's.

2,500 Yards of Pretty Cottons at Little Enough Prices.

The facts need little introduction although they may need a little explanation, for not even an advancing season gives a reason for such merciless clearance as this is to be. 800 yards of this will be sold at 8c. 1700 yards of it at 10c. The values of these cottons are 12c. and 15c. There is another lot of Sea Island percale that we, as you well know, sold at 14c all season and these goods were sold at higher prices at other stores; tomorrow morning they go on sale at 11c.

Comfortable Hammocks at Little Enough Prices.

Of course if there is an outing a hammock will be needed. All sorts are here, some may be carried on your bicycles, others with pillows and valance handy for rest places at picnics, and look at the prices $1.10, $1.50; $1.95, $2.95 and up to $4.25.

American Flags.

There are every kind of flags for the 4th of July decorations, from 5c a dozen up to the big ones at 25c each and at all prices between.

Another Shirt Waist Story and a Good One.

Our shirt waist news would make interesting reading for a summer time. A noticeable thing about these shirt waists is the smooth and perfect fit of yokes, backs and underarms, detachable laundered collars, sizes from 32 up. Today's prices for these stylish and timely waists are 45c, 55c, 58c, and 75c.

A Great Showing in Hats and Flowers.

This millinery business had a couple of stories each week for the past month and the tale is not yet told. Starting in with our twenty-two hundred hats at less than half milliners' price, we have had such selling as even this store seldom sees. There is a first-class assortment to select from yet, and the most wonderful thing of all is the prices.

TOMELTY'S.

Nice sailor hats worth 50c at 20c.

Fine trimmed hats for misses and children at 35c would be cheap at 75c.

Nice ready to wear cloth hats with mull, 15c worth 40c.

Then you can select your own hat and have it trimmed here and at about one-third of the milliner's price, in fact we are selling trimmed hats at $1.25 that would bring $2.50 at the millinery stores and would be thought cheap at that.

There are about 750 bunches of flowers here today; very few will be left by the first of July. The prices are 5c, 10c, 12c, and 15c. This is only one-fourth of what they are worth.

A Leather Belt Story.

We don't remember a year in ten when there were so many leather belts sold here. Of course the price does it. We know the belt we sell at 25c is selling at 40c elsewhere. When we say leather belts we mean all leather, not the kind that is lined with cloth. Of course it is worth something to get what you think you are getting. Here is a hint of prices 15c, 20c, 25c, 30c, 35c, 50c and 75c.

Laces and Embroidery at Little Enough Prices.

Near the south door on the main floor you will find a large table with embroideries and laces. You will notice a jam most of the time, and no wonder, it's the price that does it. You will see laces from 1c a yard to 50c, and at all prices between.

Embroideries at from 5c a yard to 25c, and at all prices between.

Frank Wirwitzki wishes it understood that he is not the Wirwitzki whose little daughter has been beggied recently in this city. The other man is a small man, whose wife has been sick a long time. He has secured work, however, and the begging practice has been stopped. His two brothers, Frank and John, the former of whom is a blacksmith on the West side, and the latter section boss at Starbuck, are now and have been supporting their families.

Prison Mirror: Hurrah for Hon. John Lind! Although we didn't shake John's hand, we were satisfied in looking upon his beaming countenance. During his little stay up at Fairweather Park, there was a rip-roaring, octopus-like crowd gathered around him, among whom were tried (by the court) republicans, honest democrats, get-there populists, copper heads, round-heads, goldbugs, greenbackers and a sprinkling of Tammany braves. John has a long head on him, for he left all his valuables in the front office before promiscuously associating with us expansionists.

For The Fourth.

Preparations for the celebration next Tuesday have been pushed, and there is every indication of a proper observance of the day. There will be a grand parade in the morning at 10 o'clock, in which most of the lodges of the city, the firemen, etc., will take part. After the parade there will be the usual exercises in the evening. The West side people will also have a program of sports to begin at the conclusion of those on the East side. There will be dancing afternoon and evening on both sides of the river.

The lightning struck and killed a cow of Mike Schommer's.

One of the Agram money men stayed at Pierz Monday while the board of review met, for fear he might be called on.

The Pierz and Buckman creamery is running in full blast now and after the Fourth a milk wagon will be run from John Doneck's place, Bu, to the creamery every morning, giving all the people along the road a chance to sell milk.

Ed Kramer and Theo. Gross opened a saloon and sample room in the Marshik & Philipp building in upper town the 20th.

Wessel Wolke, the present chairman of Bu, left for Albany last week, where he will superintend a building, and Bu will now be without a chairman for some time again, but probably a new one will be appointed, as they have plenty of candidates that are out for the position.

Bishop Trebeck visited Pierz and arrived here Tuesday, the 29th. He was received by the entire community, and on Wednesday he confirmed a class of about 300. The bishop worked as missionary in Pierz and vicinity in 1866, when there were only five families here, of which only two are living yet, John Roeh, Sr., and Mrs. Anna G. Vernig, to whom he gave a hearty hand-shake as first settlers. After the confirmation took place he left for St. John's College to take part in the closing of the school term there.

In the afternoon a catholic day was held in the parish school by the St. Joseph society, which was well attended by the people here and from Buckman. The village band and the Mannerchor entertained the people with music and songs. Brilliant speeches were made by John Juseman, of St. Paul, Christ Billstein, of Bu and Prof. G. Stelz, of St. Cloud. The whole celebration was a grand success and will be long remembered by the entire congregation.

J. A. Mowan made a trip to Minneapolis Tuesday.

John Hodoff and Michael Wisniewski have each brought home new harvesters.

Dixville and Rice crossed bats at Rice last Sunday. Rice won by three scores, but would not out for a few obnoxious rooters from Royalties, who were taking revenge on innocent parties just because they were so completely defeated by the Buckman team. They even went so far that one got his face slapped; he threatened to shoot if he was hurt. Is this what you call a social game of ball? We say shame on such conduct. If this is the best we can do let us stop.

A WARNING TO TEACHERS.—If any teacher should receive an offer from Mavity & Mill, of Minneapolis, do not be deceived by their big salary offer and to pay your expenses for a round trip to see them. They do not expect to pay your expenses under any circumstances. They word their letters very carefully so they can crawl out. They will make you reach the e, ask you to work on a commission and deposit $4.75 for little prospectus that can be bought anywhere for 50c at most. They will appoint other agents in your territory if they can only get you to deposit $4.75. They are a fraud, so don't be deceived. The writer has had personal experience. Rice will meet Dixville at this place for a game of ball Sunday.
