An Insulted Alderman.

Contractor—Did you offer that alderman $500, as I directed?
Secretary—Yes, sir.
"How did he act?"
"He looked insulted."
"What did he say?"
"He said I ought to be in the penitentiary."
"What did he do?"
"He took the money."—New York Weekly.

Business.

"It's time we did something for our protection," said one Samoan king.
"But we are sworn enemies," answered the other.
"Of course. But there's nothing to prevent our forming a king union and formally agreeing that whoever gets the place is not to submit under any circumstances to a reduction of salary."—Washington Star.

Claims Against Turkey.

The newly accredited envoy of the United States to Ottoman ports carries instructions looking to the disposal of matters in controversy with Turkey for a number of years. He is especially charged to press for a just settlement of our claims for indemnity by reason of the destruction of the property of American missionaries resident in that country during the Armenian troubles of 1895 as well as for the recognition of older claims of equal justice.

The Glorious Fourth

The Fourth of July celebration in Little Falls this year was very successful. Although the streets were filled with people, the day was one of the most orderly in years. The weather was good, although quite warm in the morning.

I. L. Warren and J. C. Bural were marshals of the day, and directed the parade, which was one of the best seen here for some time, and included both bands, several fraternal societies, floats representing the states, and Columbia (Miss Grace Mahan) and Uncle Sam (E. S. Smith) looking after Cuba, Porto Rico and the Philippines. The ladies committee worked hard and successfully designing and preparing the floats. The Granite works, the brewery, the Pine Tree Co., and the Deering Co., had advertising floats.

After the parade, the exercises at the grand stand took place. Mayor Vasaly, Judge Shaw, Rev. Easton, and "Uncle Sam" spoke briefly. Mrs. I. E. Staples read the Declaration.

The sports resulted as follows:
100-yard foot race—1st, Ed. Van Buskirk; 2d, Henry Butler.

50-yard foot race—1st, Louis Wright; 2d, tie, Dell Batters and Geo. Hoffmann.

100-yard race, boys under 15—1st, Harold Wakefield; 2d, Louis Morrison.

75-yard race, girls under 15—1st, Annie Bisnillon; 2d, Lizzie McDaniel.

Special 50-yard race, $10 prize, won by Frank Burchard over John Raymond.

Half-mile men's bicycle race—1st, Chas. Wegner; 2d, Herb. Friesinger.

Half-mile boy's bicycle race, boys—1st, Eddie Coniff; 2d, Ned Fortier.

60-yard three-legged—1st, Stephen Fortier and Fred Hoffmann; 2d, Louis Wright and Willie Sturgeon.

Fat men's race—1st, Wm. Tourtilotte; 2d, M. Parks.

50-yard boy's race—1st, Stephen Fortier; 2d, Fred Hoffman.

Standing broad jump, weights—1st, Wm. Barden; 2d, John Raymond.

Running broad jump—1st, H. H. Hutchinson; 2d, Frank Kiewell.

Running high jump, boys—1st, Chas. Bisnillon; 2d, Ned Fortier.

Vaulting high pole—Purse divided between Dulmage, J. Morrison and H. H. Hutchinson.

Banana eating contest—1st, M. Friesinger; 2d, F. Knuth.

The hose race was an interesting contest, won by Hose Co. No. 1 in 45 1/2 seconds. The planning mill company's was 46 1/2 and saw mill company's 46 1/2.

West side sports resulted:
100-yard race, boys under 12—1st, John Samuelson; 2d Richard England.

50-yard race, girls—1st, Annie Carlson; 2d, Katie Griffith.

100-yard boys race, under 15 years—1st, Rufus Morrison; 2d, Arthur Isaacson.

Vaulting high pole—Rufus Morrison. T. Berg and M. Moe, of the East side, won a game of quoits over H. Halseh and Ole Kjelhus, of the West side.
