with its traditional good cheer generally, is honored by outward expression also—it's a time for dressiness.

Even the turkey is dressed.

A little money, coupled with sound judgment, will attire a man becomingly for this or any other occasion. To quote an instance: Not so very long ago we fell in with one of those individuals laboring under the fallacy that nobody but a high-priced tailor could do him justice. He was persuaded to try on a KUPPENHEIMER suit costing about half what he usually paid. Result—a perfect fit—a surprised man—an idol shattered. Fifty per cent. saved and an additional cause for thanksgiving.

But nine-tenths of the people of Little Falls and her surroundings say NIT; you can't catch us. Your games are too well known. This is the verdict made by all intelligent people throughout the city and county.

We are pleased to state, however, that Little Falls is composed of many highly respected business men in every branch of business whose reputation is among the best, and who are worthy of a share of your trade.
