

SWANVILLE

May 23—O. C. Detler is having his hardware store raised and is putting a foundation under the same. He has also built a large warehouse just back of his store and is making several other needed improvements.

Wm. Buelow is now busy at work on his new house. He is now making the cellar and foundation. G. H. Enke of Little Falls will do the work and the building will probably be completed during the next month.

The Catholics had services in Muske's hall Sunday. They will start building their new church here some time in the near future.

F. C. Muske is making preparations to build a large brick dwelling. He is now having the rock hauled and will commence the building some time in the near future. Swanville is certainly one of the most prosperous little towns in Morrison county. Settlers are coming in freely and everyone that comes secures a bargain in real estate. There is still room for more and settlers wishing real estate bargains can do no better than to come this way.

J. D. Stith made a business trip to Little Falls Wednesday.

Thos. Willett went to Little Falls last Friday as a delegate to the Morrison County Woodman association.

Street Commissioner McLain is now busy repairing the streets.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Young made a visit to Birch Lake Sunday.

Chas. Buelow is here this week assisting his son, William with his new house.

The main dam on the Crow Wing river went out Monday night. It was located near Menabga, where it replaced the dam blown up by dynamite last year. As the water is already very low, it is feared the drive will be bung up. The Pine Tree Co. has 7,000,000 feet in the drive. Bever Draxten has gone up to see what can be done to repair the damage.

The horsemen of Little Falls are going to have a race track. Major Morrill will allow the use of a 40 acre tract, situated west of P. W. Hayes' residence, for that purpose. For the present only the track and a grand stand will be built. The location is near the city, a desirable one in all ways, and all who can should help the project.

Mrs. Chas. Barnhart is clerking in the Turner store.

NUFF.

May 32—Mrs. J. R. Snow has been quite sick for a week. Dr. Chance has been attending her.

H. Oby took two calves to Little Falls Saturday.

We are in need of a good old fashioned rain, as such has not struck us yet.

Another arrival from Iowa with family have stopped on Sec. 29.

Mark Lewis and wife and D. C. Newell and wife went to Little Falls Wednesday of last week. Mr. Lewis brought home a fine 7 year-old boy to raise. Mr. Newell did not accept the child offered them.

Mr. Keller lost $100 worth of wood last Saturday by fire and a few days before that J. Krueger lost about 100 cords of maple wood from the same cause.

We suppose now after all the democrats will have to call a congressional convention in order to nominate a candidate for congress, as it was not done for them at Duluth last week, and is may be necessary to send delegates to Kansas City. We think it will.

FLENSBURG

Henry Allen spent a few days in the Twin cities the latter part of the week.

The Ladies Aid society of the Swedish Mission church met with Mrs. Oxmark Thursday of last week.

Steve Adam is building a new barn.

Wotzka and sons had a wood hauling bee Monday. They hauled and loaded three carloads of wood.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson of Pike Creek were visiting here Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Setterstrom and daughter of St. Paul were visiting friends here Saturday.

Reports say that Henry Allen has parted from his wife No. 2.

Misses Anna Harmornak and Martha Rutza were visiting friends in Little Falls Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Gregersen went to Little Falls Monday evening to attend the lecture given by Miss Sanford. Mr. Gregersen was a pupil of Miss Sanford's at the State university several years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Rutza, Mrs. J. Rutza, T. Rutza and John Rutza are visiting in Appleton this week.

J. Smith, inspector the N. P., was here inspecting timber for Allen Bros. this week.

The finest stock of wall paper in the city is at Vining's from 10c a roll up.

ELM DALE

May 23—L. Sovky of Minneapolis was in the village last week.

Miss Mary Othto of Duluth is visiting with her sister, Mrs. John Sobieck.

Dan Trask and daughter Amelia of Two Rivers visited to Wm. Boyle's Sunday.

Mrs. C. B. Twist was a Little Falls visitor last week.

Sasseen Fainais of Minneapolis called on Elm Dale friends Thursday and Friday.

Geo. Hollenbeck and F. Wightman of Little Falls were in the village Thursday.

Chas. Meyers has gone to Pierz to visit his daughter, Mrs. M. Loop.

Mr. and Mrs. Luke Casey of Culdrum visited their daughter, Mrs. Peter Sobieck, Sunday.

C. H. Schlag was out at Cedar lake fishing this week. He probably scared the fish for they all managed to keep out of his way—all but the poor little one he succeeded in catching.

R. E. Rossing and family visited at Chas. Meyers Sunday.

Geo. Chapman of Royalton was in the village Saturday.

Mrs. Geo. Gesen-r of Two Rivers visited relatives here yesterday.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kopka May 20, a daughter.

E. Paick of Swan River visited relatives Sunday.

Wm. Thornberry of Rice, who visited friends in the village for a few days, has returned to his home.

Mrs. Andrew Peterson is not improving. Dr. Lonsdale was called Monday. Oswald and Carl Wittke rode to St. Cloud on their wheels Saturday and Sunday.

7486 pounds of milk were delivered at the Elmdale creamery May 21st.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyle went to Royalton Friday. Mrs. Boyle went over for medical treatment, and is feeling much better at present.

Norris Carnes of Bellevue was in the village Tuesday.

Henry Olsen exchanged a horse for a bicycle last week. Since that time Henry may be found frequently at the bicycle repair shop.

There will be services at the Union S. S. building at three o'clock in the afternoon, Sunday, June 3. It was announced that the string band of Upsala will be present.

Chas. Lundin from Upsala called on Elmdale friends Sunday.

Miss Etta Jacobson of Upsala spent Sunday with her parents.

G. R. Fallett and H. Olsen went to Little Falls Saturday.

Cornelius Olsen has sold his violin to Mr. Zimmer of two Rivers.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Boyle visited at Two Rivers Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Nelson visited at Geo. Chapman's near Royalton Saturday.

Miss Lena Christenson has returned from Minneapolis.

Mrs. L. D. Hanson visited in Two Rivers Sunday.

J. J. Jacobson went to Royalton Tuesday.

K. H. Gunderson and H. A. Hanson transacted business in Little Falls Tuesday.

B. F. Crippen visited friends in Upsala Sunday.

Miss Annie Christenson visited relatives in Swan River Sunday.

Miss Millie Boyle has recovered and is now attending school.

Miss Elsie Firkus visited school Tuesday afternoon.

There have been very few accidents on the bicycle track this season. Sherman Boos and Marcus Gunderson might have been seriously injured in a collision Saturday evening. Marcus and his wheel escaped uninjured. Sherman was not so fortunate. His bicycle had to be taken to the repair shop, but considering the circumstances and the number of bicycles on the track, it was a fortunate escape.

Mrs. Christenson was eighty years old last Sunday and a number of guests met at the home of daughter, Mrs. K. H. Gunderson, to celebrate the event. Her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren were present were Anton Christenson and family, H. A. Hanson and family, Mrs. Lawrence and family, Mr. Mrs. Christ Hanson, Mrs. and Mr. Christ Peterson and Mrs. C. B. Twist.

A party of Elmdale people, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Larson, Misses L. Boyle, Jennie Smart, Mary Davies, Stella and Ella Davies, Bessie Vallet and Messrs. Oswald and Carl Wittke, W. W. Boyle, Martin Larson, Gilbert Vallett and Sherman Boos thought they would afford themselves the pleasure of attending the Royalton school entertainment Friday evening. It was an evening well spent. Every number on the program was excellent. Some of the party wished that Royalton would have another entertainment the next evening that they might attend.

Prepare to attend the next street fair. Let Elmdale get the share that it deserves of those premiums that will be offered.

PIKE CREEK.

May 22.—A couple of young chaps went to see their best girls last Sunday, and they took a couple of sacks of seed corn with them, to keep on the good side of the old man.

Mrs. J. Reh and children visited her sister Mrs. Chr. Karnoski of Swan River Thursday.

Anton Weber would like to get someone who would haul his wood home for him, saw it, split it and carry it in the house free of charge. He might get someone else to put in the stove, or he would do that himself during the summer, when his wife uses the gasoline stove.

Corn planting is at its height, grain of all kinds is looking well.

Ernest Hanson, Henry Kinney of Elmdale, Christ Karnoski of Swan River and Anton Weber attended the Woodmen meeting at Little Falls last Friday.

A cyclone passed through here and struck the proprietor of the Swan River fur tannery. You can notice the result when you meet him.

Jacob Borosch and wife of Little Falls spent Sunday with relatives.

The dance given by Mr. Lambert was successful in every respect.

Mr. and Mrs. Droskowski of Little Falls were callers Sunday.

The dance at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sprandel was well attended.

Misses Polly and Barbara Kufe have returned.

Wheat is up in fair shape—but don't think by this is meant in price.

Miss Frances Koch of Swanville visited Miss Weber Sunday.

S. Borosch is making some extensive improvements on his residence.

A minstrel troupe passed through here Saturday evening, going to Swan River with music of all kinds.

PIERZ

May 23.—Jacob Neisius got the contract to build a bridge across Skunk River near Peine's place for $47.70.

P. J. Gau got the contract to corduroy and ditch the swamp near Billstein's place for $21.00.

Carl Hoppe of Buh is dangerously ill. Jos. Schop got the contract to sprinkle the village streets and commenced Monday. He is using the Macho patent sprinkler.

The road graders in this vicinity are all running in full blast. Buh and Pierz run their graders with ten horses. Frank Feucht and Gust Dallmeier are running the graders in Peitz, P. N. Neuman in Buh and Anton Ranch in Agram.

Hubert Bares delivered to the town of Pierz 12,000 feet of oak plank last week for which he got $13.94 per thousand.

P. L. Neuman moved with his family to Little Falls Tuesday.

Veterinary Surgeon Bares has a difficult case on hand with a sick horse of Andrew Faust but will do his best and so far has hopes of his recovery.

Mik Stab and Miss Caroline Wiese were announced to be married Sunday. Mr. Staub is the school teacher in the Gross District.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Faust returned from their visit to Cross Plains Wis. Tuesday.

Jacob Blake got the contract to furnish the town with nails for bridges at $3.45 per keg. He is also building a machine shop, and will handle all kinds of machinery except binders.

We hear school Dist. No. 62 near McLean's voted to make a loan of $600.00 from the state to build a new school house, they also voted for the location but the owner of the land will not grant it them.

J. N. Rauch of Agram celebrated his 40th birthday Tuesday but as he is a blacksmith they kept him busy part of the day repairing the road grader.

WANTED At Herald office a boy to learn printer's trade.

ANDRAE BICYCLES never disappoint. Prices $30, $40, $50, $60. Chainless, $75 For sale at Folsom's Music store.

Additional local and correspondence on 2d and 4th pages.

Little Falls Market Report

Prices corrected each week on Thursday
Wheat—No. 1 Northern	59
Wheat—No. 2 Northern	56
Flour, Best, per barrel	3.60
" Straight	3.50
" Bakers	2.50
Barley No. 2	35-38
Barley No. 3	30
Rye	44
Oats	25-28
Corn	28
Flax	98
Potatoes, new	20 to 25
Peas, per bushel	1.40 to 1.10
Beans, white navy	1.50
Beans, brown	.75-1.00
Butter, dairy	18-20
Butter, creamery	28
Butter, common roll and print	12-20
Eggs per doz.	—09
Chickens, dressed	—7
"    "    "    "    "    "	—70
Cattle, steers, alive per lb.	3 1/4 to 4
"    "    "    "    "    "	.08-.08 1/2
"    "    "    "    "    "	.05
"    "    "    "    "    "	.03-.03 1/2
"    "    "    "    "    "	.04 1/2

UPSALA

May 22.—Chas. Rundquist and son Gust were in Albany Monday.

John Norquist and family were here on a visit.

A birthday party was held at Mrs. A. Hanson's Sunday.

Miss Hilma Anderson is home on a visit.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Persson, a boy last week.

A Bible school confirmation was held here Sunday and it was well attended.

The roads are getting fine from Upsala to Stromans.

Two ladies from Minneapolis conducted services in the Congregational church Sunday evening.

Road work has been done in some districts this week.

Chas. Lundin was in the village Sunday.

John Wheel, our old blacksmith, is here again.

Alfred Hanson will start a bicycle repair shop.

Fred Peterson left for Brainerd last week.

The ground is very dry, the wheat will change color if no rain will come soon.

Robert Johnson has purchased a wheel.

If you want to buy a house and lot on easy terms or for cash, see

8-11 SIGNOR & SCHALLERN.

Word has been received that Geo. Scott, who went to Hamilton, Mont., with the family of Jos. Adams, is ill with small pox, but is not in a dangerous condition.

The preliminary examination of John Gosiak of Swan River, charged with seduction by Victoria Filip, was completed Tuesday, and Justice Sheldon took the case under advisement.

Roadmaster Nester has a crew of men working on the depot grounds. The space between the station and water tank will be filled in and a plank walk built from Broadway north to the station.

Bert Stewart, H. Newman and Nels Stinson are camping on Crow Wing lake, and will be joined tomorrow by F. F. Turner, T. J. Monahan, Russell Baker, P. H. and J. H. Newman, Frank Southmayd and Ed Tannar.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Benson of Buckman were in town Monday with their five-year-old daughter. Leaving her with the team at the sheds while they went shopping, she was missing on their return, and was found several blocks away after a long search.

The Nickel Plate Railroad, offers the traveling public the choice of three daily express trains between Chicago, New York and Boston, 27 hour service between Chicago and New York. All meals on day trains from Chicago are served in dining cars, which service is unexcelled and at popular prices. All information cheerfully furnished by J. Y. Calahan, General Agent, 111, Adams St. Chicago.

NORTH PRAIRIE.

May 21.—Jacob Thines and C. M. Klein made a trip to Rice last Sunday.

Anton Sobieck made a trip to Little Falls Saturday.

M. and J. Klein and wives, of Rice, were visiting relatives Sunday.

Rev. Gospodar celebrated mass in Opole Sunday. He will have charge during Rev. Zielowka's absence.

Felix Kieffer is building a new house for J. J. Schulteis.

Mr. and Mrs. Ashenbrenner of Langola visited with relatives here Sunday.

John Burggraf, Sr., is reported to be sick.

LEBOUX

May 23.—Alek Wochnick, who is building a church at Spring Hill visited home Sunday and returned Monday.

Joe. Wozniak says his stump puller has proven satisfactory. It has a capacity of two acres a day.

John Kunza and Wm. Sheedy began working on the road in the southern part of the town. In spite of the dry weather they report a lot of mud.

Thomas Stewart has a crew of men to work on Clyde's hill.

James Maloney of Sauk Centre is visiting Denis Sheedy. Mr. Sheedy, accompanied by Mr. Maloney, intends to start for Western Canada next week on an extended tour.

Fred Lakin was here Tuesday.

Girls, take notice, that large building you see under the shady trees is an ice house "that Charlie built." He says he filled it with ice last winter. Next thing will be an ice cream stand.

Anton Weber of Pike Creek was out cruising for beam timber Tuesday.

That pulling match on Section 24 last week was a tie. R. J. S. says if he had been there it would have been different.

Miss Sadie Vichorek is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. J. Kunza.

May 24.—Peter Christianson, for 25 years a resident of Swan River died yesterday morning of stomach disease, aged 69 years. He leaves a wife. The funeral takes place this afternoon.

Emil Johnson pleaded guilty to shooting a chicken belonging to Nels Olson, his neighbor on the West side, and paid a fine of $1 and costs. Olson's chickens had been making havoc among Johnson's garden vegetables.

The Nickel Plate Railroad, offers the traveling public the choice of three daily express trains between Chicago, New York and Boston, 27 hour service between Chicago and New York. All meals on day trains from Chicago are served in dining cars, which service is unexcelled and at popular prices. All information cheerfully furnished by J. Y. Calahan, General Agent, 111, Adams St. Chicago.

WANTED At Herald office a boy to learn printer's trade.

ANDRAE BICYCLES never disappoint. Prices $30, $40, $50, $60. Chainless, $75 For sale at Folsom's Music store.

Additional local and correspondence on 2d and 4th pages.

Little Falls Market Report

Prices corrected each week on Thursday
Wheat—No. 1 Northern	59
Wheat—No. 2 Northern	56
Flour, Best, per barrel	3.60
" Straight	3.50
" Bakers	2.50
Barley No. 2	35-38
Barley No. 3	30
Rye	44
Oats	25-28
Corn	28
Flax	98
Potatoes, new	20 to 25
Peas, per bushel	1.40 to 1.10
Beans, white navy	1.50
Beans, brown	.75-1.00
Butter, dairy	18-20
Butter, creamery	28
Butter, common roll and print	12-20
Eggs per doz.	—09
Chickens, dressed	—7
"    "    "    "    "    "	—70
Cattle, steers, alive per lb.	3 1/4 to 4
"    "    "    "    "    "	.08-.08 1/2
"    "    "    "    "    "	.05
"    "    "    "    "    "	.03-.03 1/2
"    "    "    "    "    "	.04 1/2

...AT...
VIKTOR'S
...Interesting...
For Women
...As well at...
...For Men,
We know that you take a great deal of interest in the appearance of your husband.

...Those Nobby...

Suits, Hats, Shoes and Shirts

Will meet the approval of both of both of you. Come to our store, assist him in making selections. For your boys also we have fine outfits, sure to please. And remember the girls and also yourselves with a nice pair of shoes or slippers. We have the largest line to select from.

Prices Always a Little Lower Than Elsewhere.

Yours for safest deals...

VIKTOR BROS.

DO YOU WANT TO CHANGE YOUR WORK?

Then learn to write Shorthand by mail. Prof. Knudson, of the Little Falls Business College teaches the only system that can be successfully taught by correspondence. This is the...

SHORTHAND OF THE FUTURE,

It is so simple that from the first hour of study the student finds himself making progress—actually writing words—and at the end of Six Lessons is able to write business letters from dictation.

INTERCOMMUNICATION PLAN

by which students will correspond with each other and thus get the practical experience needed for office work.

Write at once to Prof. Knudson at Little Falls for terms and particulars.

Millinery Headquarters

FLOWERS of All Kinds

SAILORS FROM 25c UP TO $1.75.

Walking Hats, Trimmed and Untrimmed Hats,

All the latest styles and novelties, at prices that will please you. I have the largest stock in the city and a visit to our store will convince you that styles, stock and prices are right.

MRS. P. F. HOSCH
Broadway, Little Falls, Minn.