

Congressman McCleary will speak in Ohio during the fall campaign.

The safe at the Great Northern station at Appleton was blown open by burglars and the contents, about $60, taken.

Hiram F. Stevens of St. Paul is a prospective candidate for United States senator in 1904, to succeed Moses E. Clapp.

At the close of the present season St. Paul will have 35 miles of new sidewalks which were built this year. Last year the record was 23 miles.

The capital commission has awarded to W. I. Gray & Co. of Minneapolis the contract for the mechanical equipment and powerhouse at the new state capitol.

The burning Wednesday of last week of Bridge No. 60, near Mora, shut off traffic on the Duluth line of the Great Northern for several days. The fire started from forest fires.

The September lumber shipments from Minneapolis for 1901 were 41,950,000 feet, as against 38,355,000 feet a year ago. The average monthly shipments for this year is 44,000,000 feet.

William Lowry, a United States prisoner, escaped from the Blue Earth county jail. He was arrested last spring on a charge of passing counterfeit money, and was awaiting his trial in November.

The past few days large numbers of farmers from Northern and Northwestern Iowa have passed through Minnesota on their way to the northern part of Minnesota and to North Dakota in search of homes.

The Duluth, Virginia and Rainy Lake road has secured rails for 31 miles of track which it proposes to build this fall and winter. The company is advertising for 500 more men to get to work immediately.

United States Senators Moses E. Clapp and Knute Nelson have recommended to United States Marshal William Grimshaw the appointment of W. J. Mallory of Duluth as deputy United States marshal in that city, to succeed the late Paul Sharvy.

The oldest residence in Winona county was burned to the ground Saturday morning at Homer. It was owned by Dr. L. H. Bunnell, who is well known throughout the state as a historian of considerable note. The house was built in the early 40's.

The September receipts of wheat at Duluth port were 11,350,000 bushels, more than any September on record. October has usually been a larger month than September, but this year high offers for cash wheat at Minneapolis are diverting a large amount of grain to that city.

Oct. 1 finds the record for ore shipments from the Head of the Lakes, Duluth, Two Harbors and Superior, nearly 500,000 tons greater than that of 1900 on the same date. The aggregate shipments to Oct. 1, this year, are $192,752, as compared with 7,728,513 tons for the corresponding period one year ago.

The state historical society is urging the need of a separate building for its own use at the corner of Wabasha and Tenth streets, St. Paul, near the old capitol building. The society has not sufficient funds to purchase the building, but the members hope to secure an appropriation from the next legislature.

S. E. Atkins, clerk in the office of the state auditor, is of the opinion that the value of personal property in Minnesota will reach $130,000,000 this year. This will be about $10,000,000 greater than the increase ordered by the board of equalization last year. The heavy increases are in Hennepin, Ramsey and St. Louis counties.

Three men were burned to death in a barn near the village of Trasky, Pipestone county. A threshing crew of nine men were sleeping in the barn. Six escaped uninjured. The names of the unfortunates are Claud Main and Fred Houlette of Vinton, Ia., and Elbert Ewatts of Pipestone county. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Smallpox is prevalent on the White Earth Indian reservation and among the Indians at Mille Lacs lake. The Indians on the reservations are not subject to the control of the state board of health, and Dr. H. M. Brackeen, secretary of the board, has appealed to the Washington authorities. He thinks the Indians should be vaccinated.

In the township of Cambria, Blue Earth county, some strange diseases is taking off the horses. Evan Harris started for the creamery with his team and before he got home both horses died. Others report sudden deaths among their horses. Some of the farmers lay the fatality to the feeding of new oats, which may contain some poisonous substance.

J. Q. Adams & Co. of Minneapolis, who conduct one of the largest grain receiving and exporting houses in the Northwest under the name of the St. Paul and Kansas City Grain company, made an assignment Friday to Fred V. Van Dusen and P. B. Smith. The failure is due to losses incurred last spring during the corner in corn, which was engineered by George Phillips.

There was filed with the register of deeds of Winona county Saturday the deed of the Winona and Western Railway company to the Chicago Great Western Railway company. The deed conveys the entire line and equipment and the consideration named is $1,350,000. The transfer is made to the Wisconsin, Minnesota and Pacific Railway company, which is the incorporation name of the Chicago Great Western.

Auditor Rittman, who has charge of the settlement of claims of states for reimbursements of war expenditures, has paid the state of Minnesota $8,235.50 since June 30, when his annual report was made public. This amount was for service pay of men who offered themselves to the United States at the outbreak of the Spanish war, but were rejected by the medical examiners. The state paid them for the time spent in camp awaiting examination and is now repaid that outlay by the general government. This makes a total of $48,474.40 paid to the state on account of claims aggregating $189,398.

DARLING.

Oct. 7.—Farmers are still busy digging potatoes, and some are hunking corn, too.

Misses Mamie and Esther Hanson returned Saturday from Goodhue county.

Darling is lucky this year in raising cattle. A Silver Park cow gave birth to twin calves.

Please put up a fence, Rockdale, and avoid trouble with Highland Grove cattle.

RUFF.

Oct. 8.—S. T. Bartlett took a load of wheat to Swanville last week.

Friday night there was a party at W. S. Gish's to celebrate his entry into his new house and incidentally to benefit the union Sunday school. There was a goodly number present and all had a good time. Mr. Gish and family now enjoy the luxury of the best house in the town.

H. Oby had business at Little Falls Saturday.

The Free Methodists had a house cleaning and repairing Saturday and fixed up their church in good shape. Rev. Norris, preacher in charge.

Geo. W. Gish will finish his sorghum work in about four days, having made a good many gallons of very fine syrup. S. S. Martin had business at Little Falls Monday.

The rains came in time to shut off the forest fires that had been started Sunday and Sunday night, and put the ground in good condition for plowing.

PIKE CREEK.

Oct. 8.—Mr. and Mrs. Wieland and Mr. and Mrs. A. Weber visited Mr. and Mrs. O. Wahle last Saturday.

What is the matter in the northwest corner? There are bachelors there by the wholesale. Some of them are in need of a dentist.

Frank Krickler is building a new two-story house, to be done in two weeks.

Ole Ackerman has returned from the Dakota harvest fields. His pockets jingle with money. He did not meet the two men. See!

Gust Johnson has a pig walking on crutches to the boneyard, he says.

Mrs. Paul Coklinsky bought a fish of Albert Kruth at Little Falls and while dressing it she was surprised to find two good sized rocks inside of the fish. She says she has cleaned good many fish but never before found one that lived on rocks. How is that, Kruth?

Joseph Piotrowski shot at a horse belonging to Jacob Richter, while it was in his corn field. Richter brought suit against Piotrowski. The case was settled by Piotrowski paying costs and $26 to Richter.

John Reh is doing the brick work on Drellock's house. It will be a solid brick building.

Thomas Young and Miss Vina Auburn passed through our town last Sunday.

A new threshing machine was invented by Mr. Holmburg. It's on free exhibition at his farm. It is run with a rim strong power.

Mr. Schacht of St. Paul was here on business Friday.

V. Lipinski has rented Albert Tritiatowski's farm and he intends to move there in the near future.

There is no more important improvements needed in our county than good roads. Good roads mean better people; good roads mean more business for the merchants; good roads mean improvement in value of our real estate.

Monday was the day school ma'ms got their feet wet walking to school.
