

M. DORAN & CO.
The Oldest Firm of
BANKERS and BROKERS
In the Northwest
Dealers in Stocks, Grain and Provisions.
Members Chicago Board of Trade,
Private Wires to All Leading Markets.
GERMANIA LIFE INSURANCE BUILDING,
Cor. 4th and Minnesota Sts., St. Paul, Minn.

CHAS. H. BROOK
City
Drug Store
Rhodes Block
Corner Broadway
and First Streets

PRESCRIPTIONS A SPECIALTY
Five Languages Spoken.

$500 REWARD!

We will pay the above reward for any case of Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Indigestion, Constipation or Constiveness we cannot cure with Liverite, the Up-to-date Little Liver Pill, when the directions are strictly followed. They are purely Vegetable, and never fail to give satisfaction. 25c boxes contain 100 Pills, 10c boxes contain 50 Pills, 5c boxes contain 25 Pills. Beware of substitutions and imitations. Sent by mail. Stamps taken.
NERVITA MEDICAL CO., Cor. Clinton and Jackson Sts., Chicago, Ill. Sold by Sold at Wetzel's Pharmacy.

Solem's New Studio
Over Tanner Mercantile Co's Store,
Makes the best pictures for the least money.
Baby's picture free to our regular customers.
Call and see our work and get particulars in prices.

$40,000

To loan on improved farms at a low rate of interest. I can also loan money on your city property.
STEPHEN C. VASALY,

NEWS CONDENSATIONS.

Wednesday, Oct. 16.

The department of Alaska has been merged into the department of Columbia.

Ex-President Cleveland has become a member of the board of trustees of Princeton university.

Henry Watterson has announced his candidacy for the nomination for governor of Kentucky in 1903.

Early Tuesday morning fire destroyed $200,000 worth of property in the business section of Beaumont, Tex.

Hon. W. L. Webber, formerly state senator and Democratic candidate for governor in 1876, is dead at Saginaw, Mich.

It is reported that Maude Gonne has eluded the vigilance of the British authorities and is on her way to South Africa.

Mme. Sarah Grand, best known as the author of "The Heavenly Twins," has just arrived in New York from London. It is announced that she will visit Chicago, St. Paul and other Western cities before her return to Europe.

Thursday, Oct. 17.

The national congressional council has voted to hold the next meeting in Des Moines, Ia., in 1904.

Miss Helen Gould has been selected as a member of the board of lady managers of the St. Louis exposition.

Booker T. Washington of Tuskegee, Ala., dined with the president at the White House Wednesday evening.

Congressman Hull, who is ill at Des Moines with inflammation of the bowels, is reported no better by his physicians.

The transport Thomas sailed Wednesday for Manila with a large number of passengers, among them being several officers and about 50 teachers.

Commissioners appointed by the government of Queen Wilhelmina of Holland are investigating the workings of the Holland submarine torpedo boat at Elizabeth, N. J.

The crew of Shamrock II has sailed for home on the American line steamship St. Louis. George L. Watson, designer of Shamrock II, and Thomas Batsy, the maker, sailed on the steamship Oceanic.

Friday, Oct. 18.

Harry Corbett has been chosen to referee the Jeffries-Rublin fight on Nov. 15.

The quarantine at Naples has been abolished and that city has been officially declared free from the plague.

The steamer St. Paul has arrived at Port Townsend, Wash., from Nome, bringing 304 passengers and a big shipment of gold.

Thomas L. Jenkins, catch-as-catch-can wrestler, defeated Hjalmar Lundin at Worcester, Mass. Jenkins won in two straight falls, the first one in 41 minutes and the second in 36 1/2 minutes.

Warren Dow, who was appointed deputy United States marshal during President Buchanan's administration in 1858 and who had held the office continuously since, is dead at Plattsburg, N. Y., aged 73 years.

Herr Maurer, editor of the Berlin Neues-Leben, an anarchist sheet, has been sentenced to four months' imprisonment owing to the publication of an article approving of the assassination of President McKinley.

Saturday, Oct. 19.

The autumn crops in the unirrigated soil throughout Punjab, India, have entirely withered, the monsoon having failed.

Dr. Gustav Andreen has been formally installed as president of Augustana college and theological seminary at Rock Island, Ill.

The gunboat General Alava has been placed at the disposal of Governor Taft in the Philippines by the navy department.

A number of Maine capitalists are interested in the efforts now being made to form a combine of nearly all the sulphite mills in the United States and Canada.

Low Lane, said to have owned a line of steamboats on the Mississippi and to have been wealthy when the war broke out, is dead at La Crosse, Wis. He lived for years the life of a recluse, attended only by an aged Indian.

Monday, Oct. 21.

Rear Admiral Francis M. Bunce, retired, died at his home at Hartford, Conn., of cancer.

Yale university began Sunday the celebration of the 200th anniversary of the founding of Yale college.

Colonel William Auman of the Thirtieth United States Infantry is to succeed Colonel Van Horn as commander at Fort Sheridan.

John Robson, well known throughout the Northwest on account of his lumber interests in Wisconsin, is dead at Chicago of Bright's disease.

Augusta de Forest, the well known actress, who played leading roles with Alexander Salvini, John McCullough and Edwin Booth, died Sunday at her home in New York.

The body of the late Senator C. K. Davis was removed from Oakland cemetery at St. Paul Sunday and shipped to Washington, where it will be interred in Arlington cemetery.

Tuesday, Oct. 22.

It is announced that Richard Croker has sent $500 to the Cork international exhibition fund.

By the explosion of a boiler in a saw mill at Berea, O., one man was killed and another fatally injured.

The Pennsylvania supreme court has declared the famous "Philadelphia paper" law unconstitutional.

The former residents of the Transvaal at The Hague entirely discredited rumors of the death of General Dewet emanating from Durban, Natal.

It is announced that the publication of The Anglo-Saxon Review, edited by Mrs. George Cornwallis-West (Lady Randolph Churchill) will cease with the present issue.

James Wood, who drew the capital prize in the Lawton land district at the El Reno lottery last August and settled on a claim valued at nearly $50,000, is dead of typhoid fever after a brief illness.

Waco, Tex., Oct. 22.—A desperate duel with 6-shooters was enacted on Austin street, the main thoroughfare of this city, during the afternoon, with ex-Sheriff Harris and son on one side and Dr. Lovelace and son on the other. As a result Harris and son are dead and Lovelace and son are locked up charged with the killing. Family troubles are supposed to be the cause.

PROCEEDINGS IN BANKRUPTCY

NOTICE OF FIRST MEETING OF CREDITORS.

In the District Court of the United States for the District of Minnesota, Fifth Division.

IN BANKRUPTCY.

In the matter of Eugene S. Munholland and John J. Munholland, co-partners as Munholland Brothers, bankrupts.

To the creditors of Eugene S. Munholland and John J. Munholland, of Royalton, Minn., in the county of Morrison, and district aforesaid, bankrupts.

Notice is hereby given, that on the 15th day of October, A. D. 1901, the said Eugene S. Munholland and John J. Munholland, co-partners as Munholland Brothers, bankrupts, and their creditors were duly adjudicated bankrupts, and that the first meeting of their creditors will be held at room 400 First National Bank Building, in the city of Duluth, on the 8th day of November, A. D. 1901, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, at which time the said creditors may attend, prove their claims, appoint a trustee, examine the bankrupts and inspect such other business as may properly come before said meeting.

H. F. GREENE, Referee in Bankruptcy, October 16th, 1901.

NOTICE OF EXPIRATION OF REDEMPTION PERIOD.

To All Parties.

Take notice that the following described piece or parcel of land situate in the county of Morrison, and state of Minnesota, to-wit:

The southwest quarter of the northeast quarter of section number eight, of township forty, of range twenty-nine, (sw 1/4 of sec. 8, T. 40, R. 29), containing 17 1/2 acres of May, A. D. 1900, bid in for the State of Minnesota, at a tax sale of lands held pursuant to a real estate tax judgment made and entered in the district court in and for said county on the 21st day of March, 1900, in proceedings under Chapter 322, Laws of Minnesota for the year 1899 to enforce the payment of taxes which became delinquent in and prior to the year 1897, in and for the county of Morrison.

And further said piece of land was on the 17th day of September, A. D. 1901, sold for the sum of twenty-five dollars and sixty-five cents, ($25.65) at a tax sale of lands held pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 319 Laws of Minnesota for 1901.

The amount required to redeem said land is said sum of twenty-five dollars and sixty-five cents with interest thereon at the rate of one per cent per month from said 8th day of September, 1901, to the time of such redemption, together with the costs to accrue for the service of this notice, and the time of redemption of said land from said tax sale will expire sixty days after the service of this notice and proof thereof and of the sheriff's fees, thereof has been filed in my office as required by law.

Witness my hand and the official seal at Little Falls, Minnesota, this 22nd day of September, A. D. 1901.

[SEAL] H. N. HARDING, Auditor of Morrison County, Minn.

ORDER TO EXAMINE ACCOUNTS, ETC. STATE OF MINNESOTA.

COUNTY OF MORRISON.

In Probate Court, Special term, Sept. 25, 1901.

In the matter of the estate of John Simonds, deceased.

On reading and filing the petition of G. Winthrop Lewis, administrator with the will annexed of the estate of John Simonds, deceased, representing among other things that he has fully administered said estate, and praying that a time and place be fixed for examining and allowing his final account of administration, and for the assignment of the residue of said estate to the persons entitled thereto.

It is ordered that the said account be examined, and petition heard, by the judge of the court on the 18th day of October, A. D. 1901, at 10 o'clock a. m. at the Probate Court room in the courthouse in Little Falls, in said county.

And it is further ordered that notice thereof be given to all persons interested by publishing a copy of this order for three successive weeks, once in each week, prior to said day of hearing, in the Little Falls Herald, a legal newspaper printed and published in said county.

By the Court, N. RICHARDSON, Judge of Probate.

ORDER FOR HEARING ON CLAIMS STATE OF MINNESOTA.

COUNTY OF MORRISON.

In Probate Court, Special term, Oct. 7th, 1901.

In the matter of the estate of Charles Hoppe, deceased.

Letters of administration with the will annexed, late of the county of Morrison, state of Minnesota, being granted to Peter Vring.

It is ordered, That six months be and the same is hereby allowed, in and after the date of this order, in which all persons having claims or demands against the said deceased are required to file the same in the Probate Court of said county, for examination and allowance, or be forever barred.

It is further ordered, That the 31st day of December, 1901, at 9 o'clock a. m. at a special term of said Probate Court to be held at the Probate office in the courthouse in the city of Little Falls, in said county, be and the same hereby appointed at the time and place when and where the said Probate Court will examine and adjust said claims and demands.

And it is further ordered, That notice of such hearing be given to all creditors and persons interested in said estate by forthwith publishing this order once in each week for three successive weeks in the printed and published weekly newspaper in said county.

Dated at Little Falls this 7th day of Oct. A. D. 1901.

By the Court, N. RICHARDSON, Judge of Probate.

SPECIAL

Closing-Out Sale

Beginning OCT. 20.

I will offer my large stock of general merchandise at Buckman at special prices to close out, as I intend to retire from the mercantile business. A great opportunity for the people of Buckman and vicinity to get winter supplies at low cost. Store building for sale.

John Schmolke, Buckman, Minn.

NEWS IN MINNESOTA

Auditor Dunn has sold every piece of school land in Norman county, 6,500 acres in all, at an average price of $14 per acre.

The Minneapolis water department has completed its construction work for the year. A total of seven miles of mains were laid.

I. C. Seelye of Minneapolis, a prominent real estate man of that city, dropped dead at a banquet at the Ryan hotel, St. Paul.

Austin has received a gift of $12,000 from Mr. Carnegie for a public library. The gift has been accepted and a building will soon be under construction.

Marvin Weaver, 19 years of age, met instant death while trying to steal a ride on a Northwestern freight train in the Western avenue yards in St. Paul.

Mrs. C. K. Davis of St. Paul left for Washington Sunday evening, taking with her the remains of her husband, the late senator, who died last November.

On account of the non-receipt of rails and track supplies the Duluth, Virginia and Rainy River road will be unable to lay more than 12 miles of track this season.

A. M. Green of Clarksdale, Ill., aged 90, passed through St. Paul last week on his way to Kalspell, Minn., to take up 160 acres of government land and begin life over again.

Sheriff Megaarden of Hennepin county has been indicted by the grand jury for grand larceny in two different degrees, for making a fraudulent bill to a public officer and for perjury.

Auditor Dunn held a sale of state lands at Warren Wednesday, an unusually large crowd being in attendance. About 20,000 acres were sold at an average price of from $8 to $9 per acre.

Thomas Shaw, professor of animal industry at the state college of agriculture, will not leave Minnesota. He has decided to refuse the offer from the South Dakota college of agriculture.

Alvah Eastman, publisher of the St. Cloud Journal-Press, has been appointed to succeed W. B. Mitchell on the state normal board. Mr. Eastman has notified the governor of his acceptance.

A state bank with a capital of $15,000 is in process of organization at Magnolia, a village east of Luverne. The promoters are A. Walker and G. W. Turner of Magnolia and M. V. Kennedy of Adrian.

The Ramsey county grand jury has returned two indictments against Walter B. Bourne, formerly chief deputy in the county auditor's office. One indictment charges the forgery of a false redemption order.

State Auditor Dunn has telegraphed from Crookston that the land sales in Roseau and Red Lake counties would swell the total sales on his trip to 100,000 acres. The sales in Morrison and Benton counties are cancelled.

The Duluth and Iron Range will ship 1,000,000 tons of iron ore in October and November, more for the year of 4,800,000, a larger year's ore than any road in the world.

At Jackson four Olson and Colimter, and convicted of the shooting and selling of game. Colimter, $65 and the others $35. They also lost their boat, decoy and five guns.

The United States Steel corporation is reported to have bought a tract of land in Itasca county for iron ore for the sum of $30,000. It had not been believed that much iron ore existed in Itasca county and the report is not generally credited.

William D. Lowry and C. M. Harrington of Minneapolis have purchased 11 valuable dock front lots in the heart of Duluth from DeWitt H. Taylor of Detroit for $38,000. The deal was made some months ago, but the deed has just gone on record.

The Winona Telephone company has purchased from the Phoenix Telephone company of Rushford its toll lines and exchanges at Rushford, Lanesboro and other places in more and Houston counties. The consideration named is $15,000.

The state board of control decided to expend $10,000 at once in installation of a new water reticulation at the St. Cloud reservoir. This decision was reached after conference of the members of the board with Superintendent Rasmussen.

F. W. Stegg, superintendent of streets, St. Paul, will bring an action against Public Works, asking $25,000 damages for libel. Stegg was connected with the city engineer's office in the pay of the city engineer's office.

Oliver Lovett of Duluth, Minn., is expected by Special Agent in Charge Chicago and Northern District for placing a railroad car on a freight train one mile from Lake. Lovett has been arrested, a saying that it was a mistake.

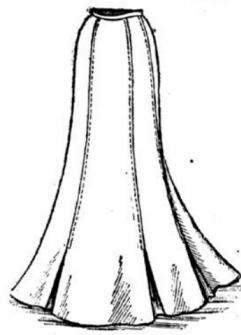

Labor Commissioner W. J. Connel has concluded an inspection of Paul industries. He reports 12 establishments, employing 12,667 men, 94 boys, 3,667 women and 43 girls, a total of 16,471. There are 1,300 non-manufacturing establishments, employing 4,146 men, 48-boys, 1,381 women and 30 girls, a total of 5,605.

The Minneapolis legal department has decided that compulsory vaccination cannot be enforced unless there is an epidemic of smallpox in the city. The department is sustained by the attorney general, in an opinion given the state board of health. The board of education cannot, through a school principal, exclude from the schools any child for non-vaccination.

John Kiewel, Jr., of Crookston lost his life while hunting four miles north of that town. His party was preparing to return home, and in attempting to take his gun from the wagon both barrels were discharged in the young man's breast, the charge entering the left lung a little above the heart and passing downward. He was brought to town, but died within a few hours.

The Most Profitable Shopping Place

in this part of the state and the Greatest Store in your midst offers WONDERFUL INDUCEMENTS to the buying public. A store that attracts the attention of every woman in Morrison county no matter in what section she may live; she knows positively that the St. Paul Store has no equal as a trading place. We don't know of a stock in this section of the state that will in any ways equal ours. Not in the ten years that we have been in Little Falls have we done the business we do today. Which goes to show that the best stocks, the most liberal treatment in connection with the lowest prices is the only way to win this envious position.

Cloaks, Suits, Skirts and Wrappers

There is only one place in this section of the country where you can do your trading with the utmost confidence, knowing that without any exception all ready made garments of every description are the newest and most up-to-date that money can buy and at prices that surprise the most critical shopper. We guarantee the excellence of all our garments from A to Z.

200 dozen Ladies' Fleece Lined Ribbed Vests and Pants that will be offered, commencing Monday, Oct. 21, at a nominal price of

25c EACH

OR 50c PER SUIT

It is without doubt the best undergarment that our patrons have ever seen in this store for the price and any outside store would not hesitate to offer goods like these at 50c each.

75 dozen Men's Hygiene Fleece Underwear bought to sell at 75c each or $1.50 per suit. Will go on sale at

50c EACH

OR $1.00 PER SUIT

Avail yourself of this opportunity before it is too late

100 dozen Ladies' wool Ribbed Vest and Pants, bought to sell at 75c each, will be on sale at

50 Each

OR $1.00 PER SUIT

We consider this one of the best trade winners that ever entered our store. Come and see for yourself.

500 New Electric Fur Scarfs

at a special low price of

$1.95

These Scarfs are cheap at $3.00

200 new Fur Scarfs, Boas and Collar-ettes at prices from

$2.00 to $30 Each

The St. Paul Dry Goods Store