Rev. Irl R. Hicks is Not Dead

Notwithstanding a widely current rumor that the Rev. Irl R. Hicks was dead, he never was in better health. He just completed his large and splendid Almanac for 1902 and, with his staff of able helpers, has brought his journal, Word and Works, justly forward into international reputation. Never were his weather forecasts so sought after as now, his timely warning of a serious drouth this year has saved the people from loss and suffering. Millions of bushels of wheat were harvested through his advice to plant crops that would mature early. His fine Almanac of 200 pages is only 25c, and his splendid family journal is only one dollar a year including the Almanac. New subscribers to the Herald who will pay $2 in advance will receive The Herald and Word & Works for one year and almanac, free. Old subscribers may take advantage of this offer by paying to date and $2 extra.

Oh, how nice
It's on ice!
We can skate
Early, late,
Every day
Shiny play.
Let's of fun
In the sun.
Two days past
And alas!
Don't you know,
Falls the snow
A foot or so
And the ice,
Our late delight,
In a trice
Is out of sight!

A crowd of pleasure seekers consisting of Misses Connely, Robbert, Wilcock, Mr. Klinger, Mr. Homel and Royalton's distinguished physician Dr. Seguin, all of Royalton, were over in North Prairie, the guests of Thienes' folks Sunday afternoon.
