

Lion Coffee

Is it known of pure coffee to the pound. Who knows how much coffee and how much stale eggs and glue-called glazing--there is in cooked coffee? Lion Coffee is all coffee--never glazed. The sealed package keeps it fresh and pure.

Miss Celia Roble, who has been very ill, is much better.

Miss Louise Gunderson left Saturday for River Falls, Wis.

Several Elks will attend the initiation of a large class at St. Cloud tonight.

Leigh and Forest, sons of Fred Cary, are visiting with their aunt, Mrs. S. F. Staples, at Duluth.

Adolph Doucette and family are here from East Grand Forks, to again make their home here.

Miss Poiters closed a term of school in the Avery district, near Grey Eagle, and returned to Little Falls.

Judge Searle has denied the motion for a new trial in the case of Jacob Greengard vs. N. Burton & Co.

J. H. Rhodes returned from Louisiana a last week. He has been directing the seeding on his rice plantation.

A residence and barn at Sauk Rapids, owned by C. Peters of Little Falls, was destroyed by fire Friday afternoon.

Lee Tanner, who has been employed on the Great Northern, is at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas Tanner, quite ill.

Miss Florence Millsaanga has finished a two-years course in the Northwestern Conservatory of Music at Minneapolis, and returned home.

Adolph Lafond Sr., son Adolph and Henry Brousseau, returned last week from Montana. They will go into stock raising near Wagner in that state.

Died.

TAKEN ALTOGETHER.

We believe we are making some of the grandest harnesses that have ever been seen. We can't particularize here but if you will, give us a call we will come right down to cold facts and show you some of the most remarkable bargains in single and double, light and heavy harness and all sorts of sundries that have ever been called to your attention--or ever will be unless you deal with us. Henry Natch.

They Fall From Window.

Mrs. Mary Miller, aged 73 years, was killed Wednesday morning while trying to get out of St. Gabriel's hospital from a third story window.

Mrs. Miller's mind was unbalanced. She had been formerly confined in the Fergus Falls asylum, but was released. Later she became ill and was sent to the hospital here. Afterward, when her mental trouble became apparent, her guardian John F. Nangle of Fergus Falls, was asked to take her away.

Wednesday morning the old lady made a rope out of an apron, fastened it to the window, and tried to escape. The rope, broke throwing her to the ground. She must have been instantly killed. The accident is thought to have happened about 4 o'clock but the body was not found till some time later.

Old Settlers' Meeting.

The old settlers' meeting at Royalton Saturday, to assist in the celebration of the golden wedding of Rev. and Mrs. R. D. Kinney, was fairly attended for this time of the year. The present officers of the association were continued in office until the next regular meeting.

The president, N. Richardson, appointed the following executive committee: A. A. Morrill, Mrs. R. L. Lambert, Royalton; C. N. Troxel, of Fr. Ripley; Mrs. Laura Ayer, Belle Prairie; Mrs. G. W. Keeler, Little Falls; E. W. Sullivan, Parker. All Minnesota veterans of the Civil war were allowed to become members. The president was authorized to call the next meeting at his discretion.

In the afternoon Mr. Richardson, on behalf of the old settlers, presented Mr. Kinney with a beautiful gold headed cane, and made some very appropriate remarks. He said that all who knew the venerable couple esteemed them. Mr. Richardson said he remembered, long before railroad days, when Mr. Kinney was postmaster at Royalton, how Mrs. Kinney used to come out to get the mails changed. It had taken great will and energy to come west in the early days. The speaker hoped that Mr. and Mrs. Kinney would still have many years before them of gentle old age. Mr. Kinney very neatly responded to the address. Among others who spoke in an appreciative way of the life of Mr. and Mrs. Kinney, were A. W. Swanson, A. A. Morrill, F. Flint, Geo. Chapman and Mrs. R. L. Lambert.

R. D. Kinney was born in Royalton, Windsor county, Vt., Aug. 30, 1823. His wife was born in the same place, on a farm nearby, and attended the same school when 4 years old, and the two were put in a class by themselves and learned their letters together. She was born Aug. 17, 1829. Their families were quite intimate, therefore they were well acquainted with each other from earliest childhood.

In 1850 Mr. Kinney went to Cincinnati, and in 1851 came to Minnesota. In 1852 Miss S. P. Dutton came to St. Paul, where he met and married her, May 31, 1852. In the winter of 1851-2 Mr. Kinney taught the first school in Morrison county, at Belle Prairie. In the winter of 1852-3 they lived at Cass Lake, assisting missionaries among the Indians. In the early spring of 1853 they went to Gull Lake and assisted Rev. J. Lloyd Beck in mission work. Their son, Dr. J. H. Kinney, was born near Fort Ripley, April 29, 1853, and the daughter, Mrs. E. D. Upham, of Ohio, was born in Royalton, Minn., Jan. 3 1857.

Next Sunday is children's day. At the Congregational church there will be a special children's service at 5 o'clock, with short sermon, and at the evening service the pastor will read an original sermon story.

Mrs. E. M. Wright of Fergus Falls was the guest of Mrs. Chas. Gravel.

E. Pilon was in Minneapolis this week. Special terms offered on residences lots, with small down payment. Call on JOHN VERTIN.

City Council.

The city council met in regular session Monday night.

Orders in the sum of $20 each, for the thirteen delegates to the annual convention at New Ulm, were ordered drawn.

The committee on streets was instructed to look after complaints of surface water standing on premises on the river flats.

The street commissioner's report--$376.71--was approved. The second estimate of Engineer Cappelen on the work done by Mecusker & Harrison on the Broadway bridge was approved. The amount due was $8,195.68.

The council approved the contract between Mecusker & Harrison and the Modern Steel Structure Co., of Waukesha, Wis., the concern which will furnish the steel for the new bridge. The manufacturers agree to deliver the steel before Nov. 15th, 1902.

Permission was granted S. Trebby to build a cement walk 2 1/2 feet wide in the alley west of the old courthouse building.

Appropriations were asked for the Fourth of July and the proposed band but were laid over. The Charity Organisation Society of Buffalo, N. Y., wants information about Waltens Grabelny, father of a woman deserted by her husband and thought to be here. He is unknown.

Do You Eat Breakfast?

Because--and here we have to do the usual thing, and praise the goods we carry--because our own home cured HAMS and BACON make the most delightful addition to the morning rolls and coffee. They have that rich, nutty flavor so much desired by lovers of Ham and Bacon. The fat and lean is distributed in just the right proportion.

FOR THIS WEEK

We offer you the following prices:

No. 1 Hams, our own curing, per pound..... 12c
No. 1 Bacon, our own curing, per pound..... 12c
Our Lard is pure, because we make it ourselves. 2000 pounds at the following prices:
25 lb can lard..... $2.75
50 lb can lard..... $5.50

We were not among the seven dealers in the city who were fined $25.00 and costs by the State Food Commission for selling adulterated lard. The commission pronounced ours pure and wholesome. You can always get fresh sausage at our place, as we make it daily.

BEAR IN MIND
That we have the best assortment of fresh, salt and smoked meats and sausage of all kinds to be found in the city.
