FIGHT IN SENATE

BAILEY OF TEXAS VICIOUSLY ATTACKS BEVERIDGE OF INDIANA.

Assault Resulted From a Heated Controversy During the Afternoon Session—Texan Demanded a Retraction of Certain Statements by the Indian and the Latter Maintained He Had Said Nothing to Withdraw.

Washington, July 1.—Senator Bailey of Texas assaulted Senator Beveridge of Indiana just after the senate had adjourned from executive session. The Texas senator was dragged away and separated from his opponent by some of those about the senate. He was very angry and threatened severe harm to the Indiana senator.

The episode was the result of a heated controversy which the two senators had during the afternoon when Senator Beveridge had said that Senator Bailey had made "an unwarranted attack" on Solicitor Penrose of the state department. In executive session Senator Beveridge, like other senators who smoke, lighted a cigar and took a seat on the Republican side. He was still sitting there when the senate adjourned. Senator Bailey crossed the aisle and walked through the seats until he was facing Senator Beveridge.

"Beveridge," he said, "I don't want to have any trouble with you, but I want you to withdraw those words which charge me with making an unwarranted attack upon Penrose."

"I did not intend to insult you," replied Senator Beveridge, "and there is nothing in my language that you could consider offensive."

"I don't allow anyone to say that I libel a man, and that is what you do in making the charge. Now, if you won't withdraw the words when I ask you, I'm going to make you withdraw them."

Senator Bailey had been getting more and more angry and excited as he talked. He had been sitting down part of the time, leaning against the desk immediately in front of Senator Beveridge. The latter, in reply to Senator Bailey's last remark, still remaining in his chair, said:

"I repeat that I did not intend to insult you and that I have nothing to retract."

As the words were uttered Senator Bailey threw himself upon Senator Beveridge, who is a man hardly up to the average in physique, and with both hands. The rush was so sudden and fierce that the chair in which Mr. Beveridge was sitting was pushed back against the desk and the desk was toppled over. Before the assault could go any further, senators who had been sitting near had moved up between the desks. Senator Hansbrough of North Dakota seized Senator Bailey by one arm and Senator Spooner seized the other. The Texas senator is a powerful man and it was with great difficulty that the two senators were able to drag him away from Senator Beveridge, and when they succeeded a part of the Indiana senator's neckwear was ripped and torn away in the vigorous grasp of Senator Bailey.

Senator Bacon of Georgia and Barney Layton, assistant doorkeeper, came quickly forward and assisted in pulling the Texas senator farther away. Senator Bailey meanwhile struggled to get free and again lunged toward Senator Beveridge. As he was a second time dragged away he was heard to utter something that sounded like a threat about killing.

Without further interference, however, he walked away when Senator Bacon urged him to be quiet and led him toward the Democratic side. Senator Bacon engaged Senator Bailey in conversation for some time urging him to cool down.

Senator Spooner also went across the aisle and discussed the matter with the Texas senator, urging him to apologize and if possible mend matters at once, but Senator Bailey refused all such proffers, declaring that Senator Beveridge had insulted him in the senate and that he had taken the only course, as the Indiana senator had refused to withdraw his remarks.

CONTINUES TO IMPROVE

All News From King Edward's Bedside is Satisfactory.

London, June 30.—The night passed with less incident at Buckingham palace than any other night since the operation was performed on King Edward. There were fewer watchers outside the palace, the public apparently having accepted the official announcement that the king has passed the point of immediate danger. The following bulletin was issued at 9 a. m.:

"The king feels stronger, in spite of some discomfort from the wound. Nothing has occurred to disturb the satisfactory progress the king is making."

This bulletin was not expected until 10 o'clock, consequently the few persons who were passing in the neighborhood of the palace were the only ones attracted to the announcement. When the footmen had posted the notice, however, the crowd soon increased and read the latest news with expressions of thankfulness.

A bulletin posted at the palace at 4 p. m. said the king's progress was in every way satisfactory and that the local discomfort had decreased.

A dispatch to the Daily Mail from Copenhagen says that Queen Alexandra has invited the deputation of Danish hussars to return to London at the end of September for the coronation of the king.

ALLIANCE RENEWED

Treaty Between Germany, Austria and Italy Prolonged.

Berlin, June 30.—The treaty providing for the prolongation of the alliance between Germany, Austria-Hungary and Italy (the dreubund) was signed in Berlin during the morning by the imperial chancellor, Count von Buelow; the Austrian ambassador, L. von Szogyeny-Matich; and the Italian ambassador, Count Lanza de Bugca.

BY STRICT PARTY VOTE.

House of Representatives Passes Philippine Government Bill.

Washington, June 27.—At the end of a nine-hour session and of a debate lasting night and day for a week, the house passed the Philippine civil government bill practically as it came from the committee. It was a party vote, 141 to 97, with the exception of Mr. McCall of Massachusetts, who voted with the Democrats. The majority substitute for the establishment of a temporary government in the islands and their permanent independence as soon as a stable government could be established was defeated, by 95 to 136.

The debate during the day was at times of a lively character. The Democrats offered a multitude of amendments, but all were voted down, including one offered by Mr. Patterson of Tennessee to prohibit slavery or involuntary servitude in the islands. The greatest interest attached to an amendment offered by Mr. McCall (Rep., Mass.) to the end of the bill to declare the policy of the United States to be to develop the capacity of the Filipinos for self-government and pledging the faith of the United States to grant them self-government. He supported the amendment in an eloquent speech and the Democrats challenged their political adversaries to declare their future policy. Mr. Grosvenor (O.) and Mr. Cooper (Wis.) said it would be unwise to mortgage the future by making such a declaration now and the latter quoted Governor Taft as saying that such a promise now would tend to prevent the pacification of the islands. The amendment was lost 89 to 128. It was a strict party vote, except for Mr. McCall and Mr. Littlefield (Me.), who voted with the Democrats.

House—Philippine government bill thrown open to amendment. Very slow progress was made, only fifteen of the fifty pages of the bill being completed.

House—Philippine government bill passed by a party vote. Conference report in favor of the Panama canal route adopted—252 to 8. The bill now goes to the president.

Senate—Conference report on the Isthmian canal bill agreed to and the general deficiency bill passed.

Friday, June 27.

Senate—Spirited debate on Cuban reciprocity between Mr. Teller (Colo.) and Mr. Platt (Conn.). District of Columbia appropriation bill disposed of finally, as were several other less important measures.

House—Consideration begun of the contested election case of Horton vs. Butler from the Twelfth Missouri district.

Saturday, June 28.

Senate—Lively debate precipitated by Mr. Morgan of Alabama over a resolution authorizing the committee on interoceanic canals to investigate the status of American stockholders of the Panama Canal company with a view of protecting them in the French courts. Mr. Morgan also wanted to know if the lobbyists hanging about congress were to receive any of the $70,000,000 to be paid for the Panama property. The resolution was sent to the calendar.

House—At adjournment the general deficiency bill and one item of the naval appropriation bill was all that remained in dispute between the two houses, as far as the appropriation bills are concerned. The contested election case of Horton vs. Butler from the Seventeenth Missouri district was settled by declaring the seat vacant.

Monday, June 30.

House—Conference report on the Philippine civil government bill adopted by a strict party vote with the single exception of Mr. McCall of Massachusetts, who voted with the Democrats. A partial report on the general deficiency appropriation bill was adopted. Number of bills passed under suspension of the rules.

Senate—Mr. Elkins (W. Va.), delivered an earnest speech in favor of the annexation of Cuba, maintaining that it would be to the best interests of both countries. Mr. Platt (Conn.) and Mr. Hanna (O.) replied, deprecating any annexation proposition at this time.

FUSION IN SOUTH DAKOTA.

Populists and Democrats Reach an Agreement on a Ticket.

Huron, S. D., June 26.—After many hours' discussion the Populist and Democratic state conventions reached an agreement for fusion. The ticket named will be known as a Democratic ticket. The platform reaffirms the principles of the Kansas City platform; favors government control of the railroads and public facilities; favors the election of United States senators by direct vote of the people, and devotes space to local issues.

The ticket is as follows: For congress, John R. Wilson of Lawrence county; governor, John F. Martin of Codington county; lieutenant governor, Everett Smith of Davidson; secretary of state, E. A. Ashley; treasurer, Louis Chladek of Bonhomme; attorney general, W. A. Lynch of Beadle; superintendent of schools, Miss Nina N. Small of Potter; auditor, Wayne Mason of Aurora; railway commissioner, H. B. Rouse of Hamlin; commissioner of schools and public lands, W. H. Minahan of Charles Mix county.

FUSION IN NEBRASKA.

Democrats and Populists Name a Complete Ticket.

Grand Island, Neb., June 26.—After twenty-four hours of almost continuous session the Democratic and Populist state conventions completed a fusion ticket at 3 o'clock with a Democrat at its head. Five places on the ticket were allotted to the Populists and three to the Democrats. They are as follows: Governor, W. H. Thompson, Dem.; lieutenant governor, E. A. Gilbert, Pop.; secretary of state, John Powers, Pop.; state auditor, Charles Q. de France, Pop.; state treasurer, J. N. Lyman, Pop.; attorney general, M. Broad, Dem.; commissioner of public lands and buildings, B. C. Brennan, Dem.; superintendent of schools, Claude Smith, Pop.

MINNESOTA DEMOCRATS.

L. A. Rosing of Cannon Falls Named for Governor.

Minneapolis, June 26.—The Democratic state convention reaffirmed faith in the Kansas City platform, expressed admiration for William Jennings Bryan and nominated the following state ticket:

For governor, L. A. Rosing, Cannon Falls; lieutenant governor, Robert A. Smith, St. Paul; secretary of state, Spurgeon O'Neil, Marshall; auditor, Albert G. Leisk, Owatonna; attorney general, Frank D. Larrabee, Minneapolis; treasurer, Joseph L. Myers, Little Falls; clerk of the supreme court, George P. Jones, Rock county; railroad and warehouse commissioner, Major J. M. Bowler, Minneapolis.

PATTISON THEIR CHOICE.

Nominated for Governor by Pennsylvania Democrats.

Erie, Pa., June 26.—For the third time in twenty years ex-Governor Robert Pattison of Philadelphia was nominated for governor of Pennsylvania by the Democratic state convention. George W. Guthrie of Pittsburg was the unanimous choice of the convention for lieutenant governor.

CONGRESSIONAL DOINGS.

Tuesday, June 24.

Senate—Bill passed creating a national forest reserve in the Southern Appalachian mountains and ratifying the agreement between the Choctaw and Chickasaw Indians of the Indian Territory and the United States.

House—Two notable speeches marked the closing of the general debate on the Philippine civil government bill. They were made by Mr. Landis, an Indiana Republican, and by Mr. Williams, a Mississippi Democrat.

Wednesday, June 25.

Senate—Agreement reached to make the omnibus statehood bill the unfinished business on and after the 10th day of next December. Large number of bills of minor importance passed.

House—Philippine government bill thrown open to amendment. Very slow progress was made, only fifteen of the fifty pages of the bill being completed.

Thursday, June 26.

House—Philippine government bill passed by a party vote. Conference report in favor of the Panama canal route adopted—252 to 8. The bill now goes to the president.

Senate—Conference report on the Isthmian canal bill agreed to and the general deficiency bill passed.

Friday, June 27.
