An Active Army And Navy.

The frequent practice of Army and Navy has been by many misunderstood. The real purpose was not to impress the rest of the nations of the world, but to keep those branches of the service active and in good working order. The President is strongly in favor of exercise for himself and for others. A great many people would be better off for some exercise, or, if they have no time, for using golden grain belt beer regularly with their meals. A pure tonic like this will work wonders with your health. Order of your nearest dealer, or be supplied by Joseph M. Ledoux, Little Falls.

J. C. Hessel Falls Heir To Fortune

Brainerd Dispatch: J. C. Hessel, one of the best known business men in the city, has fallen heir to a sum of money on account of the death of a relative in Germany. This information came to Mr. Hessel yesterday from the imperial consul at Milwaukee. The letter did not state who it was that died or what the amount was that had been left him. It was simply a letter of inquiry to establish his identity. Mr. Hessel states that he has several very wealthy relatives in Germany but has no idea which one of them has died leaving him the money. Be the sum small or great the many friends of Mr. Hessel extend congratulations.

HOW YOU CAN HURT LITTLE FALLS.

Here are nine ways that a man can hurt his home town. They are taken from the Grocers Criterion.

- Oppose improvements.
- Mistrust our public men.
- Run our town down in the presence of strangers.
- Go to some other town to do your trading.
- Refuse to advertise in your home papers.
- Be careful to discredit the motives of public spirited men that are working in the interest of the city.
- Lengthen your face when a stranger talks of locating here. Tell him that it's the worst place on earth.
- If a man wants to buy your property charge him two prices for it as it is your last chance to give the town a dig.
- Refuse to see merit in any scheme which does not tend to directly benefit you or yours.
- I pay cash for Furs. I. Gottstein, California Wine House.

School Debates Beneficial

Crookston Journal: The Little Falls high school will in all likelihood represent the sixth district in the semi-finals of the later high school debates as all the other high schools save one in that district have declined to debate and that one high school is thinking seriously of keeping out of it. The excuse given is that it takes too much of the student's time to prepare the debate. But how, we ask, can the student's time be better spent than in making a thorough investigation of a live topic, one in which the people are particularly interested and upon which they have not all made up their minds so that the speaker has a chance actually to affect public opinion? And surely it is bad judgment to conclude that a boy's or a girl's time is wasted if it is spent by him or her in classifying his ideas and working out the best form in which to express those ideas. And where better than on the platform, before his fellow students and the general public, will the student acquire command over himself under trying circumstances, or gain the ability to think on his feet or meet unexpected opposition? Among the benefits which the public school confers on those who attend it are the acquiring of the habit of self control, the development of the capacity for studying a given question and through nice discrimination and the rejection of unessential details, getting at the heart of it, the acquisition of the power of thinking and the ability to express one's self with conciseness and force, and in a debate all such characteristics may be gained.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Ducloux expects to visit California this winter.

Prof. A. W. Rowe is in charge of the schools at Payette, Idaho.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Rocheleau have moved from The Herald building to the residence owned by Lazim Adams in north town.

R. S. Morris left Friday for a visit to his mother in Wisconsin, and will visit New York and other Eastern cities before returning.

Willie Hayes, the little son of Wm. Hayes, whose case was mentioned in our last issue, will be sent to Mrs. Kennedy, his aunt, at Minneapolis, she having said she would care for him.

E. W. Collins and brother Isaac, of Holdingford, have returned from a hunting trip north. They brought back the legal number of deer.

Phil Germain and Dr. N. Dumont had a fairly successful fishing trip to Rice Lake. But they had trouble with a leaky boat. It is thought, however, that a heavyweight in the boat was the real trouble.

Commissioners Mills and Staples of the state railroad commission visited Darling one day last week, and were met by a number of the farmers there, including August Blomquist, who has been agitating for a depot at that place. The commissioners promised the people a platform, but would not commit themselves on the depot proposition.

An exchange tells a good story on an old farmer whose daughter was away attending school. She wrote home about her studies and her new associates and wound up by saying that she was completely in love with Ping Pong. After reading the last part over a few times, the father remarked, that no Chinaman could ever marry into his family.

CHAS. A. TOWNE

Harp's Weekly Says He Has Big Reputation As Bond Dealer

The house of Chas. A. Towne & Co., according to the last issue of Harp's Weekly, is one of the conspicuous ones in Gotham. The following extract be read with interest:

Although only established on Wall Street at the beginning of 1902, the house of Charles A. Towne & Co. is already looked upon as one of the most conservative and one of the soundest financial institutions on the Street. It was founded on February 1, 1902, by Charles E. Heitman.

There is no man in America better qualified to control such a business than Charles Arnette Towne, whose whole life has been devoted to great financial questions and to bimetallicism. The special business of the house is the buying and selling of municipal bonds and investment securities besides being financial adviser to cities and corporations who desire the solution of difficult financial problems. The head of the house, Charles Arnette Towne, is one of the soundest advisers on financial matters in America. He was born November 21, 1858, in Oakland county, Michigan. Charles Arnette Towne was educated at the public schools of Michigan, and then at the University of Michigan, from whence he graduated as a doctor of philosophy, in the literary department, in 1881, and he was admitted to the bar in 1885.

He practiced successfully in Duluth from 1886 to 1889, and in Chicago from 1889 to 1890. He then removed to Duluth, and soon made a name for himself as an authority on financial affairs as a strong bimetallicist. He never sought an office, but he was bound to come to the front, and in 1894 he was elected to the Fifty-fourth congress as a republican. His strong views on bimetallicism caused him to leave the republican party in 1896, and he became an independent, becoming chairman of the silver republican national committee from 1897 to 1900.

He was very active and most enthusiastic in the cause of bimetallicism, making many eloquent speeches in the halls of congress, and writing articles of national importance. He was a great leader of the cause. In 1900 he was nominated for the office of vice president of the United States by two of the contending parties, and he was appointed by the governor of Minnesota to the United States senate in December, 1900. Mr. Towne married, April 21, 1887, Maude Irene Wiley, of Lansing, Michigan. He has no family. He resides at No. 317 West Fifty-seventh street, and is a member of the Minnesota society.

Judge Searle will hold a special term of district court in this city Wednesday Dec. 19th, instead of Dec. 15th.

Fifteen candidates were initiated by the Clerks union Friday night, after which the officers of the Millworkers union were entertained. There were several good talks, helpful for co-operation and mutual benefit. Dancing was indulged in and refreshments served.

The building committee of the new Swedish Lutheran church of Little Falls will give a necktie social at the old S. L. church tomorrow evening, Nov. 29. Among the attractions they will have a fish pond where anyone can do some fishing. You will get something every time you throw out your line. The price will be only 10c a throw.

A well known lawyer of this town, who wouldn't prevaricate under any circumstances, says a friend of his in the north woods wrote him that a professional man of this city, who is a deer hunter, had an interesting adventure while up there recently. By some unfortunate mischance a red call which had wandered from a farmer's barn yard was mistaken for a deer and shot. This is not unusual, but this isn't all. Just before the little thing expired, it murmured: "Tell mother that I died."

Rumors Come First.

St. Cloud Times: The Little Falls Herald has announced some improvements in its equipment. Probably the most important is the purchase of a Simplex typesetting machine. There have been rumors of a daily edition of the Herald, but this is not announced in speaking of the progressive plans of the paper for the near future.

Mrs. J. J. Jacobson of Elm Dale is very ill with consumption.

Paving is the next thing to talk about. The mayor has sent out letters to various cities requesting information.

Minneapolis Journal: St. Paul candidate for postmaster of the house has appeared in Mrs. George A. Van Smith, wife of the well known newspaper man. Mrs. Van Smith was one of the house stenographers at the extra session.

Although at one time it was feared there would be a diphtheria epidemic in the city, but one case is left, that of Mr. Smelzer's child, who is about well. The energetic measures of the health officer and board of health, with the co-operation of the physicians, have practically eradicated the trouble.

J. Smith and E. Bjerre confronted Justice Sheldon Saturday morning. The charge was drunk and disorderly. Smith claimed he had been working in Staples and was on his way to Minneapolis. Officer Valentine took him up. The other man, who said he lived at Hoffman, Minn., persisted in annoying the men at the paper mill engine room. Officer Nelson got him early in the morning. Both were allowed to go on promise to leave town at once.

Mrs. E. Pilon was operated on at the hospital Monday morning for recurrent cancer of the breast, by Dr. G. M. A. Fortier, assisted by Dr. Dumont. It was found that the glands to the axillary region were extensively involved, and fears were entertained during the operation and on the following day, that the patient would not survive the shock. But she rallied nicely and will recover from the operation. Dr. Fortier will add the X-ray treatment, and it is hoped the ultimate results will be a lasting cure, which will be gratifying to all friends of the family.

Died.

Frank White, of Rail Prairie, died at the hospital Sunday morning, aged 44 years, 9 months, 5 days. Mr. White was a native Minnesotan, born at Richfield, Hennepin county. His parents moved to Carver county when he was young and later to Wright county. Mr. White was married in Wright county to Miss Susan Crowder. About twelve years ago he moved with his family to a homestead near Ft. Ripley, and six years ago he moved to Grand Forks. About three years ago he moved to Rail Prairie.

The deceased leaves, besides his wife, a child two years old. A brother, Levi L., lives at Ft. Ripley, and another, Volney, at Seattle. A sister, Mrs. Ella Bacon, and uncle, Orrin Gay, live at Burtrum, and a nephew, Emerson Bacon, in Little Falls.

The remains were taken home Monday and the funeral was held Tuesday, the remains being laid in the Green Prairie cemetery by the side of the mother gone before.

About Minnesota.

The highest elevation in Minnesota is in the Mesaba range, 2,200 feet. Lake Itasca, the source of the Mississippi, is about 1,600 feet above sea level. The lowest point in the state is Duluth, 602 feet above sea level. The train that stands highest in the public's estimation is the famous North-Western Limited between the Twin Cities and Chicago.

HURRY up or you won't get your eyes fixed up this trip. Prof. Bruno the Optician, who is at the Hotel Buckman goes home Saturday night. Remember eyes are tested free.
