

THE TOMELTY STORE NEWS.

ONLY 8 DAYS MORE

OF THE

Great Pre-Inventory Sale

This is a great chance for Morrison county ladies to make money. Some goods at one-fourth off; some goods at one-fifth off.

These goods at one-fourth off

This means for every dollar's worth you buy you get 25c handed back. All shirt waists both silk and wool. All ladies purses and hand satchels. All box paper. All books (except children's toy books and prayer books.) All fancy china and fancy china sets (except white china and white crockery. All embroideries and laces. All ladies belts both leather and silk.

These goods at one-fifth off

If you buy a dollar's worth of goods you get 20c handed back to you on all these articles: Worst and wool dress goods, a fifth off. Ready-made skirts a fifth off. Ladies' petticoats, a fifth off. Ladies' wrappers, a fifth off. Ladies' and children's hosiery, a fifth off. Ladies' and children's underwear, a fifth off. Children's stocking caps, a fifth off. Ladies' fascinators, a fifth off.

Remnants of Ingrain Carpets at Half Price.

We told you of these one-yard remnants a week ago. There was a hundred then. There is only 50 today; and at this rate they will soon be all gone. The $1.00 kind at 50c. The 90c kind at 45c. The 70c kind at 35c.

The odds and ends counter in the basement.

You will find a great deal of goods at under price on this counter: Many dozens of articles, such as fine china cups, fine china plates and dishes with only the least damage to them. They are put on this counter and will be sold at half price and less. You will find odd sugar bowls, spoon holders, butter dishes, cheese dishes, and in fact most every thing you want is here on this odds and ends counter. Come in and look, you are sure to get what you want.

Little useful things cheap.

- Good water tumblers 1c.
- A dozen clothes pins 1c.
- A bunch of good hair pins 1c.
- 2 good hat pins 1c.
- A memorandum book 1c.
- A good hard wood ruler 1c.
- 2 steel pens 1c.
- A good nickel tipped pencil 1c.
- A nice rubber eraser 1c.
- A nice doll 1c.
- A yard of satin ribbon 1c.
- A 50-page school tablet 1c.
- A bottle of machine oil 5c.
- A bottle Carter's ink 4c.
- A bottle of musclage 4c.
- A bar of tar soap, the 10c kind at 5c.
- A bar of very nice toilet soap at 5c.
- Best thread a spool 4c.

Attend this sale.

Remember the place at THE TOMELTY STORE.

Loss no time in visiting the Salvage Sale of the Turner stock.

T. J. Monahan will put up a steel ceiling in the store room of his block which he recently purchased.

Mrs. J. R. Steels has received an appointment as deputy supreme commander of Lady Macabees for the state of Minnesota.

Twenty clerks are continually on the jump attending to the crowds of people at the Salvage Sale of the Turner Dry Goods Co.

Sylvester & Nichols have put in a fine wall case for the display of their several brands of tobaccos. It is of glass and finished in oak.

The Tom Franklin Nye company are slated for a week's stand at this place in February. They played here last July and were well received.

WANTED—500 cords of wood, poplar, bass wood or tamarac, tamarac preferred. Hennepin Paper Co.

P. W. Hayes and Aug. Christensen were elected as delegates to represent the local A. O. U. W. lodge at the meeting of the grand lodge in February.

Marriage licenses have been issued to Nicholas B. Bunick and Mary Krych of Swan River and to Anton Peka and Rosa Kardash, also of Swan River.

Dr. Millspeugh is on his way home from California and states that he will arrive about the 24th or 25th. He can be found at his office on Monday the 26th.

John Stroman of Swanville was in the city Monday. He is planning of several extensions on his line in the near future. He is now negotiating for an extension to Pier.

As orations will be dispensed with by members of the graduating classes in the future on commencement night, J. Adam Bede will be asked to deliver the address at that time.

O. W. Wagner, formerly of this city, who is employed with the Twin City Senic company, was married Tuesday to Miss Anna Bartley of Minneapolis, at the home of the bride.

L. D. Brown, the druggist, is now situated in his new quarters in the store room next door to the First National bank, formerly occupied by the Great Western. It has been repainted and papered, and makes one of the finest places of business in the city.

We call your attention to this issue to the ad of Spirit J. Vasaly, the Diamond Sign Jeweler. Besides giving you value received when you purchase goods to the amount of $1 you are also given a key which may be the one that will open a box, containing $20. The owner of the first key that opens the box gets $10 cash, the second gets $6 cash and the third gets $4 cash. Read the ad.

Titus Medved was up before Judge Sheldon Tuesday morning on a charge of assault and battery on Hiram Trebby. It seems that in passing through the Little Falls House yard the children on their way to school probably meddle with things a little more they ought. On Monday it is claimed the Trebby boy was passing through the yard and did something or other which angered Titus and he struck him, Hiram falling on a piece of wood and disfiguring his face quite badly. Medved paid a fine.

Teachers' examinations will be held at the high school building, Little Falls, February 5, 6, and 7, (Thursday, Friday, and Saturday); and on the same dates at the school building, Royalton.

On Tuesday the examination will be exclusively in subjects for first grade certificates; hence, applicants for second grade certificates need not present themselves until Friday morning.

Candidates should provide themselves with pens and black ink. Work to begin each day at 8 o'clock a. m.

J. H. SEAL, Co. Supt. Morrison Co., Minn. Little Falls, January 19, 1903.

Will Contest.

The contest over the will of August Rueschke, of Culdrum, who died at St. Gabriel's hospital last August came up for hearing in Judge of Probate Shaw's office Tuesday morning. Rueschke had left one-fourth of his estate to John Mieschke of Culdrum, and the relatives, through their attorney, F. C. Irvin, of Belle Plaine, is contesting the will of the relatives on the ground that the deceased was incapable of making a will at the time he did. Only the testimony was taken at this hearing and the arguments in the case will be made about Feb. 15th. F. W. Lyon is attorney for Mieschke. There is about $1300 personal property and some indemnity lauds which make up the estate.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Gosiak, Jan. 20, a daughter.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lilly, Jan. 22, a daughter.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Butler, Jan. 19, 1903, a son.

Mayor Vasaly, who has been ill at the hospital for some days, is slowly convalescing.

Mrs. J. D. Lachance is ill at the St. Gabriels hospital. It is understood she will be operated upon.

John Trettle the well known North Prairie farmer was in the city Tuesday on business.

"Uncle Nate" Richardson, is slowly convalescing from his recent illness and will soon be around again.

Mmes. Zerwas, Trettel, P. W. and Mat. Blake entertained at cards in Maurin's hall Wednesday evening, for the benefit of the Sacred Heart church.

The Simplex type setting machine which the Herald has purchased has arrived, and it is likely that it will be in shape so as to set up next week's paper.

Superintendent of schools Seal was in Swanville Monday trying to straighten out some school matters at that place. We understand that he succeeded fairly well.

The Ladies working club of the Congregational church were entertained Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. W. Lyon by Mrs. Lyon and Mrs. F. H. Mero.

The Swedish Lutheran congregation will give a social in their church on the West Side Saturday evening Jan. 31. A program will be given and refreshments served.

Mrs. F. Cary was presented with a hand painted chop plate and a set of Haviland plates by Lady Macabees Tuesday evening. This was as a recognition of her efficient work as record keeper.

The ladies of the French Catholic church gave a social at Maurin's hall last evening. Progressive such was one of the amusements of the evening. A fine lunch was served.

Mrs. Peter L. Page and children left Thursday for Riverside, Cal., to join Mr. Page who is now employed in a paper mill at that place. The mill is superintended by F. H. Shepard, formerly of this city.

The office and residence of Editor Wm. Pennar of the Pillager Post were entirely destroyed by fire Sunday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Pennar barely escaped from the burning building.

The special meetings which have been held the past week at the Baptist church have been very interesting and a power for good. Rev. Riley, of Detroit, has made some very fine sermons at these meetings.

Representative Rider introduced a bill in the house providing for an extra Judge for the Seventh district, making three in all. Want be so bad, will it? Not if the extra Judge comes from these parts.

Announcement

Prof. Brunns, the best optician in the state, will be at the Hotel Buckman January 29, 30 and 31, he wishes to announcement that he will during the year 1903. Eyes examined free.

Arrested On Charge Of Incest.

T. F. Young of Motley was brought to the county jail, charged with incest. It is claimed that the victim of his criminal action, is the prisoner's 13-year-old daughter.

Aleck Young of Motley, one of the proprietors of the hotel where the accused and his daughter were staying, swore out the warrant, and it is stated is prepared as well as others, to testify as to the truth of the allegations.

F. W. Lyon has been retained as attorney by the prisoner, who secured his release from Court Commissioner Collins on habeas corpus proceedings, but his liberty was very brief, as County Attorney Lindbergh, immediately swore out a complaint before Justice Collins charging him with the same crime. Attorney Lyon gave notice that his client would stand preliminary hearing.

A hearing will be had before Justice Collins Jan. 29th. Bail was fixed at $1000, and it was furnished by Ed. Lathrop of Motley and F. W. Lyon.

Woodmen Install

The Woodmen installation exercises on last Friday evening was one of the most enjoyable of the season. After the officers were installed, a team drill had, and the literary and musical program given, which was exceptionally fine, the floor was cleared for dancing. A delicious lunch was served in the banquet hall. About three hundred people attended.

The new officers are as follows: V. C.—G. M. A. Fortier. W. A.—Wm. Crossfield. Banker—S. C. Vasaly. Escort—N. N. Bergheim. Clerk—W. A. Butler. Asst. Clerk—W. T. Tourtillotte. Watch—Peter Lyon. Sentinel—Henry Peterson.

Petition For Rehearing Denied.

The petition for a rehearing in the Supreme Court in the case of George V. Clark vs. E. P. Anderson, filed by Clark's attorneys, came up before the court on Monday, the 19th, and was promptly denied. This is a final determination of the case, and there will be no new trial, as formerly reported.

Strictly first class fabrics at your own price. These goods must be sold at this great sale. Minneapolis Salvage Co's sale of the Turner stock.

The case of the State vs. Joseph Pekarski, in which James Dunn had the defendant arrested for stealing a load of rock, was settled by Pekarski paying the costs. The case was up before Judge Sheldon.

The town of Clough will soon vote on the proposition to raise $800, to be used in moving the present wagon bridge from this place to Clough. The bridge will be put across the Mississippi near Ft. Ripley. A committee will go to St. Paul next week to see if state aid can be got through the legislature in placing the bridge.

Following are some of the reports filed by the county officials representing the receipts of their offices during the year 1902. Clerk of Court Brick, $1311.30, Sheriff Tanner, $1762. less expenses of $600, $1162; Register of Deeds Hall, $4-255.65; Surveyor Penn, $529. F. A. Lindbergh, $1200, Supt. Seal, $1323 Auditor Butler, $847.50; Chairman Gross, $156.20, Commissioner Lakin, $97; Commissioner Jacobson, $96 00

Dancing Classes

Dancing class at Elks Hall. Beginners class, Friday, Jan. 23, 7 to 11, p. m. Lessons 50 cents. Ladies, and children's classes, Saturday, Jan. 24th, 2 to 4.30 p. m. Lessons 25 cents. Special rates for clubs. Private lessons if desired. Your patronage solicited.

H. A. WARD

About Minnesota.

Lieutenant Pike made a treaty with the Dakota Indians at the site of Fort Snelling in 1805. The corner stone of Fort Snelling (then called Fort St. Anthony) was laid Sept. 20, 1820. A beautiful view of this historic fort is had from the trains of the famous North-Western Line enroute from Twin Cities to Omaha.

Pres. Cawley Names Committee.

M. V. Wetzel, C. E. Gravel, F. A. Joesting and A. Simonet were appointed Monday by President Cawley of the Commercial Club, to act with him as a committee to collect dues from the members who belonged to the club during the past year and also to solicit for new members. The dues last year were $10 and membership fee $5. This year the dues have been cut down to $5 and the membership fee, will remain the same $5. The committee will soon be around, and should be most successful, as an organization of this kind cannot help but be of great value to the city's interests.

Harry Taylor who has been with the Minneapolis Transfer has resigned his position and will move to Livingston, Mont., where he will act as bill clerk for the Northern Pacific.

The Result Of Cultivation

Southwest Missouri was once a rock covered and almost barren district; today, it is known as one of the finest fruit-producing sections in the United States and its fruit is known from coast to coast. With human beings the results of careful training are even more marked. The man who will use golden grain belt beer regularly, together with regular exercise in the open air, can develop his body and mind to the hope and should be in every home. Order of your nearest dealer or be supplied by Joseph M. Ledoux, Little Falls.

Farm trade for city property.

STEPHEN C. VASALY.

Lost—Lap robe, between Brick yard and 3d St., finder will please leave same with the Herald.

Denies Mrs. G. R. Vallet Divorce.

The divorce case of Mrs. Alice Vallett vs. Gilbert R. Vallett, which was taken under advisement by Judge Searle at the special term of court last week, has been decided against Mrs. Vallett. Cruel and inhuman treatment was alleged but the court finds that it was not proven by the evidence.

In the case of Blackwood vs. Spencerbox, which was tried at the special term of court and later argued at St. Cloud, Judge Searle finds that writs of attachments issued in each case should be dismissed. Each case was an action on a farm contract and a note, when writs of attachments had been issued.

House for sale near Columbia school house.

STEPHEN C. VASALY.

The Swanville News has changed hands. A. J. Hunt who has run the paper since it started has sold it to his brother Earl. A. J. will go into the hardware business at Concord.

The lady that lost her pocket book containing $100 last Tuesday at the Salvage Sale of the Turner stock, rewarded the young boy, Iver Johnson who found it, by purchasing him one of those small Newmarket suits, mittens, etc.

In the case of State vs. Dengl, which came up before Justice Hubbs of Royalton, at that place Friday, County Attorney Lindbergh dismissed the case, as it was found there was no cause of action. Dengl was charged with stealing a trunk from Miss Hohn, the complainant. Both parties are from Buckman.

A Carpenter's Union.

The carpenters of this city met at the city hall Tuesday night to see what could be done as to forming a union. The sentiment of the meeting was unanimous, in favor of such a procedure and they will have another meeting on Monday night at which an organization will be affected. Every journeyman carpenter in the city should be present at the meeting Monday night. Organizer Hughes of the Brotherhood of Carpenters who many remember assisted at the organization of the Millworkers union, will perfect the organization.

A Fine Structure

North Prairie District No. 6, is to have a fine school building very soon. It will be of solid brick, 26x40, two stories high. It will be a semi-graded school. This will be a very commodious structure and will be finished up in modern style. On Monday there were twenty-one teams hauling brick to the site where the building will be built. The structure will be put up the first thing in the spring.

Immaterial what skeptics say the Salvage Sale of the Turner stock certainly is a hummer as to prices.

A social will be given Feb. 12, by the A. M. Guild of the Episcopal church at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Tanner.

BRUNN the optician, who seems to be the only man in his profession that gives satisfaction to his patients, will be at the Hotel Buckman Jan. 29, 30 and 31. Examination and consultation free.