SYBIL SANDERSON DEAD.

Well Known American Opera Singer Passes Away in Paris. Paris, May 18.—Sybil Sanderson, the well known American opera singer, died suddenly during the day of pneumonia, resulting from an attack of the gripple.

The announcement of the death of the famous artist caused a profound shock in the American colony here, where she was well known, and throughout musical and theatrical circles. She returned to Paris from Nice six weeks ago, suffering from a slight attack of the gripple. Her condition was not regarded as serious, but she gradually grew worse and her sickness finally developed into pneumonia.

SYBIL SANDERSON.

The doctors continued to hold out hopes of her recovery, but the singer sank and finally succumbed. Miss Sanderson's mother, the widow of Judge Sanderson of California, with whom she lived in apartments at 1 Avenue du Bois de Boulogne, and other relatives and friends were present at the time of her death, including her sisters Edith and Marion, and Mary Garden of Chicago, the soprano of the Opera Comique.

OWING TO BAD WEATHER.

Final Trial of the Shamrock III. Abandoned.

Gourock, Scotland, May 18.—The final race between the Shamrocks on this side of the Atlantic had been arranged for Saturday, but the severity of the weather prevented the yachts from leaving their moorings. Sir Thomas Lipton, in expressing his regret, said to a representative of the Associated Press:

"I would have liked at least one more trial in fresh weather. This, however, is no time to take risks. The yachts, therefore, will immediately be stripped and prepared for the voyage across the Atlantic. I am quite satisfied with the challenger's work in every kind of weather in which she has sailed."

GIVEN VARYING SENTENCES.

Russians Arrested for Jewish Massacre at Kishineff.

St. Petersburg, May 18.—The majority of the persons arrested for participating in the anti-Semitic outrages at Kishineff, Bessarabia, have been tried and sentenced to varying punishments. Although they were mostly arrested on returning to their homes after the second day's pillage with their arms full of plunder, all the prisoners protested their innocence and pleaded that they found the things in the streets and were taking them to the police station.
