JACKSON IS PRESIDENT

Buckman Man Heads the Minnesota Farmers' Exchange.

The Minnesota Farmer's Co-operative Exchange was organized at a meeting held at the Merchants' hotel, St. Paul, on Wednesday. The following officers were elected:

President, C. C. Jackson, Buckman; vice-president, J. P. Carey, Glencoe; secretary, J. S. McDonald, Rush City; treasurer, W. S. Weatherstone, West Concord

The officers immediately took up the work of drafting a constitution and by-laws

The officers feel confident that they will be able to rouse general interest in the scheme throughout the state

The St. Paul Dispatch says: The proposed Minnesota Farmer's organization did not start out with any to great an enthusiasm

At the meeting in the afternoon there were but six farmers present to listen to the organizers who were here from Chicago to urge state organization. Those present thought there was some very grave obstacles in the way.

J. S. McDonald, of Rush City, said that he had attended three meetings which had practically the same purposes as the organization proposed, but that nothing ever came of any of them. Farmers were too busy to take up the work of organizing themselves. The essential thing was money with which to pay expert organizers who would give all their time to the work.

S. M. Owen, of Minneapolis, said the question had been agitated for twenty years without result, and organization on such gigantic lines was futile. Before farmers thought of forming an immense national combination they must first learn to co-operate at home, which they have not done yet.

ED. FARNHAM'S SUCCESS.

FORMER LITTLE FALLS BOY A SUCCESSFUL INVENTOR.

The following from the Delano Eagle, refers to a former resident of Little Falls:

"Ed. Farnham, son of E. H. Farnham, has perfected his mangle machine which has been placed on the market and is in successful operation. Mr. Farnham has sold the right to manufacture the machine and receives a royalty of $750 on each one sold. He has also been engaged to superintend the manufacture of the same at a salary of $250 a month. The inventor was at one time a compositor in the Eagle office and afterward a linotype operator on the Minneapolis Tribune."

DRAY LINE SOLD.

Gish & Ream have sold their dray line to Mike Jansen, from whom they bought it last year. Mr. Gish will probably go to farming again.

Esaukatoon, N. W. T. Phenix 2: Mr. C. P. Risley, of Grand Mound, Iowa, called on the Phenix on Wednesday. Mr. Risley has been visiting his son-in-law, Mr. L. B. Sunderlin, south of town, for a month and is greatly elated over prospects of this district. He came here upon the recommendation of Mr. Sunderlin and Mr. F. W. Dabels, and will likely become "Canuck" next spring.

Robt. Kluge returned Sunday morning after several months absence, and will remain here till spring. He tried to reach his old home at Orange, Texas, but couldn't get through the quarantine lines. A large part of Louisiana and Texas is under quarantine for yellow fever, and armed guards prevent the people going through. Thousands of people have left the afflicted region. Mr. Kluge went around by way of Denver to get back to Minnesota and was in North Dakota two weeks before returning.

The following telegram from Bloomington, Ill. is of interest to all Modern Woodmen: Walter Crandell today pleaded guilty to four indictments for embezzlement of $12,000 from the Modern Woodmen, while he was clerk in the head office at Rock Island. He was given an indeterminate sentence in the penitentiary. Crandell's peculations consisted in drawing orders for the payment of dummy claims. The mortuary department of the order declined to prosecute Crandell when his bondsmen had made good the shortage, and the state prosecuted the case.

A BAD CRABBE APPLE.

SWINDLER HELD TO GRAND JURY IN DULUTH.

Duluth Herald 3: Harry F. Crabbe, a nephew to R. H. Ingram, president of the Empire Lumber company, Eau Claire, Wis., was held for the grand jury by Judge Gearhart in municipal court this morning. Crabbe is charged with having forged the name of the Empire Lumber company to a check for $60, which he passed on Frank Ferker, one of the proprietors of the California winehouse, May 27, and also indorsing the name of E. P. Ingram to the check.

MARRIED.

The following from the Brainerd Dispatch of Oct. 6th, refers to a gentleman well known in Pierz:

This morning at 9 o'clock the marriage of Mr. C. W. Koering and Miss Katherine Hunt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hunt, of East Brainerd occurred at St. Francis Catholic church. The weather was anything but pleasant but the church was filled with friends and relatives of the young people not withstanding. Father Koering of St. Paul, an uncle of the groom, assisted during the ceremony by Father Lynch, of St. Francis church officiated.

The bride was attended by Miss Lizzie Murphy and the groom by Mr. Ed. Somes. Miss Hunt was beautifully attired in a gown of soft taffeta silk trimmed with silk applique and fagoting and she carried a beautiful bouquet of bridal roses. The maid of honor, Miss Murphy, was dressed in a gown made of blue organdie.

After the ceremony at the church a wedding breakfast was partaken of at the home of the bride's parents, none but the bridal party and a few intimate friends being present.

Mr. Koering is a poultry East Brainerd butcher. He has friends galore in this city who will wish him and his charming bride much happiness. They left this afternoon for Hastings where they will visit for a short time before returning to Brainerd to make their home.

Chas. Hall is recovering from a severe attack of typhoid fever.

The planing mill and yard crew have been laid off most of the week. The continued rains have put the mill yards in such shape that little could be done. A ditch was dug across the wagon road east of the depot, which drained some of the water off into the river.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Rosnagel, old residents of the county, and Mr. and Mrs. Oyprien Duolos, left Tuesday for their future home at Bakersfield, Cal. Mr. and Mrs. Rosnagel formerly lived near Darling, but of late years have resided at the Brickyard. Mrs. Duolos is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rosnagel. Mr. Duolos has been assisting his father O. Duolos, in the brick business.
