BOODLING IS CHARGED.

Warrants for Arrest of Former Officials of Grand Rapids, Mich. Grand Rapids, Mich., Nov. 23.—Warrants have been issued for seventeen former city officials charging them with accepting a bribe in connection with the famous German-Cameron scheme for supplying the city with water from Lake Michigan. All of the warrants are the result of the confession made by former City Attorney Lant K. Salisbury on his return last week from serving a two years' term in the Detroit house of correction for breaking the federal banking law in connection with the scheme. While in prison Salisbury's conviction on a bribery charge in the state courts in connection with the same matter was affirmed by the supreme court and with the prospect of being returned to prison Salisbury went to the prosecutor's office and made a lengthy confession, which resulted in the issue of warrants. Following are those indicted: Former Mayor George R. Perry, State Senator David Burns, Corey P. Bissell, former member of the board of public works, and the following ex-aldermen, who were in office when the attempt was made to put the water deal through: James McColl, Peter Depagter, Jacob Ellen, Malachi Kenney, John T. Donovan, Jacob Mol, Abraham Ghyssels, Charles Johnson, Ryner Stonehouse, Daniel Lozier, John McLachlan, Clark Slocum, John Muir and Adrian Shriver.

The amounts the respondents are charged with having received out of the alleged boodle fund range from $200 to $3,333.

MANY MOROS KILLED

THREE HUNDRED NATIVES OF JOLO SLAIN IN A BATTLE WITH AMERICANS.

Manila, Nov. 24.—Three hundred Moros are known to have been killed and many others were carried off dead or wounded as a result of five days' severe fighting on Jolo between the American troops under General Leonard Wood and the insurgents. Major H. L. Scott of the Fourteenth cavalry and five Americans were wounded.

General Wood landed near Siet lake, in Jolo, Nov. 12. The Moros were soon located and fighting began immediately and continued until Nov. 17.

The fighting took place in a country covered with swamps and rocks. The Moros were driven across the country from Siet lake to the town which Panglima Hassen, the Moro leader, had made his headquarters, and where it was reported the Moros were 2,000 strong.

The rebel position was attacked in the flank by the American troops, who occupied the town, and it is said fifty were killed. Hassen, with a small party, surrendered. Most of the Moros went into the swamps, out of which they were driven on the 16th. On Nov. 17 the American forces renewed the attack on the remaining Moros, of whom forty more were killed.

The rebel forces have been literally destroyed by these operations of General Wood, who says the indications are that there will be no extension of the uprising, which was handled without difficulty.

Maurice Prince of Minneapolis was drowned while skating on Lake Minnetonka. Mrs. Lillian Harrington of Minneapolis was robbed of $960 which she placed under her pillow on retiring.

Fire at Minneapolis damaged the Leonard Paulie show case factory and other buildings to the extent of $94,000. The state board of pardons has refused to grant a parole to Frank H. Hamilton, who was sentenced to seven years in prison for the murder of Leonard R. Day of Minneapolis.

A masked man entered the rooms of the Metropole club, Minneapolis, and forced eight members who were there, at the point of a revolver, to empty their pockets. He secured about $90 and made his escape.

Alec Lewis, a lumberman, was held up and robbed half a block from the central police station in Minneapolis. Three men did the work and secured a gold watch, valued at $40, and about $2 in cash.

Harry Penrose, alias Porter, who was convicted of seduction in the district court at Fergus Falls, was sentenced to five years at Stillwater, Judge Searle giving him the highest penalty allowed by law.

The state dairy and food department has received word that Minnesota buttermakers captured the first and second prizes in the national buttermakers' contest which has been held during the last twelve months at Chicago.

Senator Clapp last week presented to the president a delegation of Chippewa Indians. The Indians urged the president to direct the interior department to modify the regulations of the department regarding the sale of pine lands belonging to the Chippewas.

Coroner Williams of Hennepin county has written a letter to Governor Van Sant urging him to offer a large reward for the capture and conviction of the men who robbed and murdered Cotton C. Gordon and Leonard Dare on freight trains coming into Minneapolis.

The Ramsey county grand jury has returned a "no bill" against James W. Johnson, St. Paul agent of the whisky trust, who was charged with embezzling $20,000. He claimed the alleged shortage was due to the method of bookkeeping designed to cover rebates.

Edward S. Dampier, a prominent young attorney of Pelican Rapids, has been indicted by the Otter Tail county grand jury on the charge of forgery in the first degree, the allegation being that he altered a deed, changing the name of the grantee after the instrument had been signed.

Willie Burlitt, the fourteen-year-old son of Casper Burlitt, living near the Minnesota river between Le Sueur and Henderson, while opening large clam shells with his knife in order that he might feed them to pigs, found four large pearls and seven small ones which he sold for $1,100.

The title to a tract of land near Hibbing, which is estimated, contains from $10,000,000 to $15,000,000 worth of iron ore, is contested in the case of F. S. Kosmerl et al., respondents, vs. Mrs. Katherine Mueller et al., appellants, which was argued Friday in the state supreme court.

Salvatore Battaglia was murdered at Minneapolis by unknown parties and the police of the Flour City believe that he was killed by the Mafia. Battaglia's body was found near the Franklin avenue bridge. It was covered with clotted blood and twenty-one stiletto wounds, made with many knives, were counted by surgeons.

Three indictments have been found against Casper Ernst, the St. Paul mortgage broker, one charging forgery and two grand larceny. Fearing that some half crazed victim may attempt to take the life of Ernst none but the immediate members of his family and his counsel are now permitted to see him at the Ramsey county jail.

Mrs. Mary Kovarik of St. Paul, fearful of death at her approaching confinement, drank carbolic acid and then gave the poison to her seven-year-old daughter, Annie, and to her five-year-old son, Frank. The mother was sent to the city hospital, where the Cesarean operation was performed by the physicians. The infant will live, the doctors say, but the mother will probably die. The two children who drank the carbolic acid are in a serious condition, but will recover.

The annual convention of the South-eastern Minnesota Educational association at Winona closed Saturday afternoon after a two days' session with the election of the following officers: President, County Superintendent G. F. Howard of Rochester; secretary and treasurer, Superintendent W. J. Mosher of Plainview; members of the executive committee to act with those officers, Professor Guy E. Maxwell of the Winona normal and Miss Ora Featherstone of the Zumbrota high school.

Counsel for the Northern Securities company has filed a motion in the United States supreme court to dismiss the appeal of the state of Minnesota from the decision of the District of States circuit court of the District of Minnesota in the case of that state vs. the Securities company. The motion is made upon the ground that no question of constitutional construction is involved in the case and that therefore no direct appeal from the circuit court to the United States supreme court is permissible.

Two deaths from freezing are reported from Hegerb, a town in Swift county. Iver Wolden, a prominent farmer, left Appleton late in the afternoon for his home and must have fallen out of his wagon, after being benumbed with cold, as he was found in the morning in the road near his home, frozen so badly that he died in a few hours. An old man eighty years of age, living with his nephew, Andrew Akre, went out after dark to look after some calves and wandered away. Although search was made for him he was not found until morning under a hay stack, frozen stiff.
