To make good bread, you must have good yeast. It's the first requisite. You never saw a sweet, well-raised loaf without it. Every loaf made with Yeast Foam is sweet and well-raised, good to look at and better to taste.

The root of indigestion is sour, heavy bread which forms acid in the stomach. The cure is light, digestible bread raised with Bread made with this wholesome, vegetable yeast retains its moisture, freshness and wheaty flavor until the last of the batch is gone.

The reason is simple: Yeast Foam leavens perfectly, expanding and bursting the starch cells and permeating every particle of dough.

WARRANT ISSUED FOR REPKA.

A warrant was issued Tuesday for Will B. Repka, who married Miss Luella Brown of Motley last week, although he had a wife and family at Cromwell, as related on our second page. O. L. Brown, father of the young lady, made the complaint.

Mr. Brown runs the City hotel at Motley, and Repka, who is of gentlemanly appearance, stayed at the hotel during his labors for the McCormick company, and later when working for a nursery concern. He told the Browns that he was a divorced man. He seemed to be a careful young man of good habits, so that Miss Brown's parents consented to the marriage. After the marriage someone in Motley was told by a salesman that Repka had a family at Cromwell. Mr. Brown was informed and began looking into the matter. The young man left Sunday morning, telling his wife he was going to speak to his father, who had arrived the night before. Monday night wife No. 2 got a letter from Repka telling her he was divorced but couldn't prove it and to meet him at the Little Falls station Tuesday. The young lady came to this city, but Repka never arrived.

Repka is of German descent, 26 years of age, 5 feet and 8 inches in height, weight about 140 lbs., thin visage with large nose, dark complexion, no beard, had black suit and black overcoat when last seen.

The man's parents live at Cromwell, where his family is located. There has been some suggestion of a settlement, which is hardly likely.

It was said that Repka's father gave him money to get out of Motley, but this is denied. Mr. Repka Sr. said that his son had two children. Repka's parents had been looking after the family all winter.
