NEWS IN MINNESOTA

EVENTS OF THE WEEK THROUGH-OUT THE STATE.

Frank Cardigan, fourteen years old, touched a match to a can of gasoline at St. Paul and was badly hurt by the explosion. Mrs. Mary Lehr, aged sixty-eight years, who had been a resident of Stearns county since 1854, was found dead in her bed Friday. Fire at Millroy destroyed the big elevator belonging to Nelson Bros. The origin of the fire is unknown. The loss is estimated at $10,000. John Noel died at the Minneapolis city hospital from the effects, so the physicians say, of drinking impure whisky, purchased at a Mill City saloon. James W. Fisher, aged seventy-eight, a pioneer of St. Paul, died suddenly at Breckenridge Oct. 22, where he and his wife had been visiting for a short time. Peter Swenson, a carpenter, fifty years old, was found dead in bed at Minneapolis. He had been drinking heavily and death is believed to have been due to alcoholism. While playing with matches at her home in St. Paul Vera Warner, five years old, set fire to her dress and she was so severely burned that she died at the city hospital in a few hours. There are 8,165 more pupils enrolled in the public schools of the state this year than there were last. The total enrollment, according to figures compiled by J. W. Olsen, state superintendent, is 423,000. Rev. J. B. Gillilan, formerly of White Earth Indian mission and who for years represented the White Earth Indian in Washington, is dead. He was an Episcopal clergyman and well known in Northern Minnesota. A report received by the state board of health shows 63 cases of smallpox in the state, 49 of which are at Farmington, Stearns county. The disease was thought to be chickenpox for four weeks before its real nature was determined. Rev. C. O. Wright, pastor of the Baptist church at St. Cloud, has resigned and his resignation has been accepted by the board of trustees. Mr. Wright has accepted employment as night watchman in the boiler room at the state reformatory in that city. In the Ramsey county district court Miss Anna Mohr recovered $14,322.50 from Dr. Cornelius Williams, one of the most prominent eye and ear specialists in the state, because of an operation on her left ear when it was to have been performed on the right ear. By a decision of the state supreme court the Wilder and Appleby charities are held valid. The decision holds that a provision for "the worthy poor of St. Paul" is sufficiently definite to constitute a valid trust. There is about $3,500,000 available for the charities. Eddie Dupont, aged eighteen, living in Corcoran township, in Hennepin county, was shot and killed while hunting rabbits. It is believed he was beating the brush with his gun when it was discharged and the shot entered his head and face, tearing away the flesh and leaving the brain bare. John Essenstein, the thirteen-year-old son of W. F. Essenstein of Racora, was accidentally shot in the forehead with a 22-caliber rifle and lived only a few hours. A neighbor picked up the rifle, asked if it was loaded, was told by the boy that it was not and upon examining it accidentally shot the boy. To save himself from being crushed to death by a freight train James L. Farrel of Austin leaped from the railroad bridge over the Mississippi at St. Cloud, falling fifty feet to the bank of the river below. Both of his wrists were broken, his elbow dislocated, a rib fractured and his face and scalp cut and torn. Harry E. King, the man who was apprehended at Mankato while attempting to impersonate a United States army officer, pleaded guilty to the charge and was sentenced to a term of eight months in the St. Cloud reformatory. King claims to be a nephew of General Charles King, the author, and went about in the uniform of a first lieutenant. A large quantity of money, composed principally of bills, was taken up by the sons of a Brockway (Stearns county) farmer while plowing. There was also some silver, but the great bulk of the find is in bills. It is estimated that there are at least $50,000, but it is doubtful if the finder will realize anything, as the paper money is badly decomposed. Patents have been received by State Auditor Iverson conveying 65,969.55 acres of swamp land in St. Louis and Roseau counties to the state of Minnesota. These lands are located in the far northern part of the state and are some that were but recently surveyed, there still remaining a large section of the counties bounding on Canada, one of which the state will receive upon land.

BOTH CONFIDENT OF VICTORY.

Hoisting Engineers in Illinois Coal Mines Strike. Chicago, Nov. 1.—With both employees and employer confident of victory, a strike of 800 hoisting engineers in the bituminous coal mines in Illinois went into effect at 12 o'clock Monday night. The engineers declare the strike will be bitter and long and will result in a victory for them. The operators declare their victory is a foregone conclusion and that there will be a break in the ranks of the strikers before long. The cause of the strike is the refusal of the engineers to accept a reduction of 5 1/2 per cent in wages, the same reduction having been accepted by the miners at the last adjustment of the scale with the operators. The strike affects about 50,000 workmen, but the operators are confident that many of their mines will be running within a few days.

JURY UNABLE TO AGREE.

Fourth Trial of Former Mayor Ames of Minneapolis. Minneapolis, Nov. 1.—In all probability former Mayor Albert A. Ames will be a free man and never again will be tried under the indictments returned as a result of the alleged "grafting" during his administration as chief executive of this city. That he is a free man he owes to Judge Charles D. Burnes of Minnetonka Mills, who stood by him for sixty-nine hours and refused to allow eleven other men to vote Ames into the penitentiary. From the first eleven men voted for conviction, but Burnes stood firmly for acquittal. It is stated that in all probability the charges will be dismissed, the former mayor not having to stand a fresh trial.

Employees Accept Reduced Wages.

Augusta, Me., Oct. 31.—The Edwards Manufacturing company's cotton mills were started during the day after a shutdown of four months, due largely to dullness in trade. A 10 per cent reduction in wages went into effect, but about 75 per cent of the 1,200 operatives went into the mills.
