NELSON'S STUDIO

When in town don't forget to call and see samples and get prices.

F. A. NELSON, Photographer

The people of this county are now offered a Chicago daily paper for $1 a year. The Chicago Daily Review is sent to subscribers for $1 a year, 75 cents for six months, 50 cents for three months, and stopped when the time is out. The Daily Review is a delightful family daily with all the news of the day condensed into four pages, hence the low price. It is printed in large, clear type, easily read by young and old, and publishes a brilliant magazine feature by a popular author every day, besides much good poetry and interesting departments devoted to science and invention, art, literary, music, education, hygiene, home management, fashions, humor, sport and recreation, travels, matters of interest to women and children, etc. It is a clean family paper and admits nothing to its readers or advertising columns that cannot be read aloud in the family circle. The Daily Review has subscribers in every state of the Union and every county and township in this and surrounding states. It is just the paper for the busy farmers and business men, professional men and their families. Subscribe for the Daily Review today. Send one dollar to Chicago Review Co., Room 499, No. 1322 Wabasha ave., Chicago, Ill., and receive this fine paper every day except Sunday, for a whole year. 4 12t.

NURSERY STOCK.

The great "laughter" in nursery stock, such as apple trees, 3 years old, regular price $5.00, for the next four weeks will sell them for $2.50 per dozen. Everything in the nursery line will be sold at half price. Come one, come all, while this sale lasts, as it will never appear again.

WIFE AND CHILDREN KILLED.

Minnesota Farmer Leaves Dynamite in Kitchen Stove.

St. Cloud, Minn., May 4.—One woman and two children were instantly killed and one boy probably fatally injured on a farm three miles from Bridgman by the explosion of dynamite.

James Hunter was clearing his farm of stumps, using dynamite for the purpose. Before he went to work he put a stick of dynamite in the kitchen stove to warm it. Soon after this he found it necessary to change his plans and go to town for some repairs, forgetting to take the dynamite from the stove.

Soon after Hunter left his wife and three children, who were in the kitchen, were blown up by an explosion, which instantly killed the mother and two children. A boy about six years old was blown through a window and thus escaped instant death. He will die, however.

WEALTHY WIDOW SUICIDES.

Unfortunate Love Affair Cause of Rash Act.

New York, May 6.—Mrs. J. W. Gray, believed to be wealthy and said to be the widow of a Chicago broker and who was described by her friends as a remarkably beautiful woman, committed suicide in the Hotel Imperial here by shooting. She was found lying unconscious before a mirror in her bedroom with a bullet wound in her head and died a few hours later at a hospital without regaining consciousness. Letters left by the suicide indicated that she was the victim of an unfortunate love affair and that, although possessed of ample means, she had no desire to live without the man she loved.

JURY FAILS TO AGREE

THIRD TRIAL OF NAN PATTERSON ENDS WITHOUT A VERDICT BEING REACHED.

New York, May 4.—Having failed to reach a verdict and declaring that they were hopelessly disagreed, the jury in the Nan Patterson case was formally discharged at 2:20 o'clock Thursday morning.

It is understood that a majority of the jury was for acquittal, but in what proportion cannot be ascertained.

Miss Patterson collapsed on the jury's announcement and fainted dead away. She was assisted from the court by one of her counsel and several court attendants and revived in an ante room.

Future procedure in the case is uncertain. The district attorney's office may not attempt another trial. Should this be the case Miss Patterson would be released either on nominal bail or under her own recognizance and the indictment eventually be quashed.

DR. KOCH NOT THE MAN.

Asa P. Brooks Says Defendant Did Not Kill Gebhardt.

Mankato, Minn., May 5.—"The man I saw bending over the form of Dr. Gebhardt as I gazed through the tram on the night of Nov. 1, 1904—the night of the murder—was not the defendant, Dr. Koch."

Asa P. Brooks, the New Ulm newspaper man, who is the only direct witness in the Koch murder trial, made this statement during the afternoon while on the stand.

Unless Brooks' testimony is impeached in such a forceful style as will leave little doubt as to its lack of authenticity, it will prove a crippling blow to the prosecution.

John Walter, aged fifty-five years, a wealthy farmer and cattle buyer living two miles south of Norwood, hung himself in his barn. Mr. Walter was a pioneer of Carver county, having settled there in 1859. His wife died a year ago, since which time he has been dependent.

The Stearns county grand jury has returned eight indictments against Charles A. Bernick, formerly deputy county treasurer. Seven of the indictments charge him with embezzlement, each on a separate and distinct offense, and the eighth charges grand larceny in the sum of $3,000 from the county.

Miss Helen Schutte, a member of the class of 1906 of the St. Paul central high school, broke the world's high jump record for girls at an informal field meet in the school gymnasium. She cleared the bar at 4 feet 6 inches, which is two inches higher than the world's record, formerly held by a Vassar girl.

A cyclone passed through the village of Round Lake, near Worthington, one evening last week. Although only about ten feet in width it swept everything in its path. Four homes were destroyed, besides a blacksmith shop and several barns. One woman, Mrs. Meyers, was blown across the street and dangerously injured. She will probably die.

If Minnesota buttermakers continue to improve as they have improved in the past it will not be long before their product is perfect, or as nearly so as human ingenuity can make it. The average score of 192 buttermakers who took part in the third monthly scoring contest, the results of which have just been announced, was 94, the highest average made in a butter scoring contest in the history of the department.
