WORK OF CONGRESS.

Wednesday, Dec. 13.
House—Greater part of the session devoted to a wrangle between the Democratic leader, Mr. Williams, and two members of that party. The result accomplished was a defiance thrown at the minority leader by Representative Lamar of Florida and another by Representative Shackelford of Missouri.
Senate—Nearly the entire session devoted to executive business. Panama canal appropriation bill favorably reported.

Thursday, Dec. 14.
Senate—Practically the entire day devoted to consideration of the Panama canal emergency appropriation bill. There were set speeches by Messrs. Teller, Scott and Morgan and they were followed by a general debate in which all phases of the controversy were exploited.
House—Debate on the recommendation of the president's annual message regarding insurance regulation occupied the entire day without conclusion. The pending resolution refers the question to the ways and means committee.

Friday, Dec. 15.
House—Four and three-quarter hours devoted to debate on the possibilities of controlling insurance companies. Two set speeches were the features. One by Mr. Sherley (Ky.) bore on the doctrine of state's rights and the other by Mr. Cockran (N. Y.) related to the actions of the officers who manage the big life insurance companies of his state.
Senate—Panama canal bill again under consideration. Mr. Tillman occupying most of the session in a speech criticising the methods of the commission.

Monday, Dec. 18.
Senate—Standing committees for the session announced and the status of a member convicted in court of misconduct discussed at length.
House—Insurance, hazing, the suffering Russian Jews and immigration were all topics of discussion under the general leave of talk. The only business done was to send the canal appropriation bill to conference.

BLOWN INTO SHREDS

FIVE MEN KILLED BY EXPLOSION AT POWDER WORKS NEAR MARQUETTE, MICH.

Marquette, Mich., Dec. 16.—Five men were killed by an explosion at the Dupont company's dynamite works here. About 1,400 pounds of nitroglycerin exploded in the mixinghouse of the company's factory, which is three miles distant from Marquette. The explosion badly damaged the plant and caused much excitement in Marquette. The dead are all workmen employed by the Dupont company. The men were blown into shreds. Of the thirty buildings in the plant few escaped damage and some were badly wrecked. The mixinghouse was utterly destroyed. In Marquette windows all over town were smashed and in the business district much plate glass was splintered.

TRIPLE TRAGEDY IN TEXAS.

Negro Kills Two Men and is Himself Slain.
Beaumont, Tex., Dec. 18.—The negro district of this city was the scene of a triple tragedy during the day. Bryan Merritt, a motorman, and Elisha Perita, a deputy constable, being shot and almost instantly killed by Henry Powell, a nineteen-year-old negro, who was in turn killed by Deputy Sheriff Tevis.

NEWS IN MINNESOTA

EVENTS OF A WEEK THROUGHOUT THE STATE.

Himmle Blumenthal, a St. Paul photographer, had his right hand blown off at the wrist while taking a flashlight picture.

Itch has become epidemic in the Minneapolis public schools and the officers of the health department say that hundreds of children are afflicted with it.

Alanson Pollard, an old resident of Minneapolis and a veteran of both the Mexican and Civil wars, is dead at the Soldiers' home at Minnehaha after a brief illness.

The legality of an ordinance passed several years ago by the Minneapolis city council requiring that all city printing bear the union label is to be tested in the courts.

A stable belonging to the Portland Stone company at St. Paul was destroyed by fire one night last week. There were twenty-two horses in the barn and only six were rescued.

A. H. Lindeke of the wholesale dry goods house of Lindeke, Warner & Sons of St. Paul, has announced himself as a receptive candidate for the Republican nomination for governor.

Mrs. H. L. Woltman, wife of the assistant pastor of Trinity Lutheran church, Minneapolis, was struck by a runaway in that city, thrown under a southbound street car and instantly killed.

Rev. Father John Preis, rector of St. John's Bohemian Catholic church at Winona, is dead. Father Preis, who was well known in the Northwest, came to Minnesota from Texas about five years ago.

Miss Mayne Quill of Chicago has recovered a judgment for $7,500 in the Ramsey county district court against Thomas F. Tierney, a St. Paul commission dealer, for an alleged breach of promise to marry.

Louis Schultz of Winona, a workman forty-two years old, fell from a gas tank on which he was hammering rivets to instant death. He fell a distance of over twenty feet, striking on his head. His neck was broken.

On the recommendation of Representative Steenerson orders will soon be issued at the interior department opening to settlement the township in the northwest corner of Kittson county, this state, abutting on the Canadian line.

A Wisconsin Central passenger train crashed into the rear end of a Great Northern cattle train in the Union depot yards at St. Paul. Thirteen head of cattle were killed and several more were so badly injured that they had to be shot.

St. Paul is threatened with a soft coal famine as a result of a lack of cars during the past few months for coal shipments. The Northwest is said to be 500,000 tons short. Dealers fear that the visible supply will practically disappear in a short time.

J. H. Hawley of Sandstone, aged sixty-five years, was run over by cars while walking on the company's tracks in the yards at that place and his left arm and leg entirely severed from the body. He died several hours later without regaining consciousness.

Wolves to the number of forty-one were killed in Hennepin county in the year 1904-5, from Dec. 14 to Dec. 14, according to the figures on record in the office of County Auditor Hugh R. Scott. Of these twenty-five were adult wolves and sixteen were cubs. Three were killed inside the city limits of Minneapolis.

Three Winona men and much Winona capital is interested in a new lumber company that has been launched in the Pacific Northwest. The company is known as the Old Oregon Lumber company and the officers are: J. W. Lucas, president; R. H. Jackson, treasurer; F. S. Bell, secretary, all of Winona, and H. A. Muffley of Minneapolis manager. The capital is $200,000.

Notice has been received from the United States government that the state is entitled to $13,533 from the proceeds of government sales of federal land in Minnesota. Under the act of congress the state receives 5 per cent of the proceeds of all government land sales in this state. The amount certified to by the government represents 5 per cent of the sales for the past year.

Mayor Benson of St. Cloud has issued a statement declaring that all saloons would be closed at 11 p. m. and all day Sundays beginning Jan. 1, 1906. For the past sixty years not a Sunday has passed that liquor has not been sold in St. Cloud. The mayor's action is the result of recent saloon and other scandals which have already caused the revocation of one liquor license and the raiding of one disorderly house.

Charles A. Bernick, for seven years deputy treasurer of Stearns county, who last spring was indicted by the grand jury on seven counts for falsifying accounts and embezzling county funds to the extent of $4,000, pleaded guilty and received a sentence of a fine of $500 from Judge Baxter. Bernick paid the fine at once. The outcome of the case has caused much popular disapproval, the proceedings being considered by many a travesty of justice.

A verdict of not guilty was returned by the jury by order of Judge Morris in the United States district court at St. Paul in the trial of John C. Hanley, indicted on a charge of using the mails in furtherance of a scheme to defraud. In granting the motion for a directed verdict Judge Morris stated that he did not believe that the indictment was bad, but that the verdict was directed on the ground that the evidence did not prove the charge made in the indictment.
