

SWAN RIVER

May 20.—Mrs. Caroline Larson and daughter Thora visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Larson of Royalton Tuesday and Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Peter Gregersen, Fred Hanfner and Miss Ross called on friends in Elm Dale Thursday. Miss Rose did not return until Sunday. Mrs. Gust Benson and son John came out from Little Falls to attend the picnic in the school district No. 9. Those who graduated from the eighth grade in the school district No. 9 are: Miss Agnes Koskelo, Miss Rose Anderson, Everett and Alvin Skoog. The raffling of Paul Jabas' goat took place Sunday. A dance was given in the evening, there being about twenty couples present. Mr. Hayes was the lucky man to get the goat. A good time was had by all. Mr. Madison and son George and Miss Eva Jacobson went to Little Falls Monday. Supt. Sheldon came out to the picnic Monday. Miss Amanda Christenson closed a successful term of school in District No. 9 Monday. Miss Sadie Anderson, who is attending school in Little Falls, has the appendicitis. An operation may be necessary. A picnic was had in Paul Krottschinsky's woods Monday by the school children in District No. 9. The day was very sunny and fine, so the day could be enjoyed by young and old. Cake, ice cream, lemonade, nuts and candy were served. A fine program was given at 2 o'clock which lasted for quite a while which was very interesting. We all thank Miss Christenson for all her time practicing with her pupils. Geo. Wolters had their baby boy baptized Thursday in the Danish Lutheran church. The child was christened Christ Frederick Wolters. Christ Larsen will have a DeLaval cream separator put up in a few days, bought from Eich and Murphy. Wednesday being Decoration day many from here went to Little Falls.

SWAN RIVER EXTRA

May 20.—Mike Kowalzik wheeled to town Monday. Invitations are out for the wedding of Ignatz Walkowicz to Miss Kattie Glazik which will take place June 5th. The town of Swan River purchased a road grader last week. Mrs. Mike Kowalzik is reported dangerously ill and not expected to live. Mr. and Mrs. Martin Trettel drove to Royalton Monday afternoon where they attended a wedding of their friend. Martin Larson and James Hanson are employed at George Larson's building a grain house. Robert Gessner and Norm McLeod of Two Rivers attended the dance at Paul Dalabas Sunday. Chas. Hanfner drove to town Saturday on business. Adolph Wittke of Elm Dale visited friends here Sunday. Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Albert Piersinski, May 24th, a daughter. School in Dist. No. 9 closed Monday with a picnic. Mrs. Joseph Kupka of Little Falls was here a few days visiting relatives last week. A heavy frost visited us Sunday night which caused considerable damage to vegetables and fruit. Chas. Matzko of Royalton was out here Sunday. Saturday was monthly market day, but not many went to town on account of the rain. Rev. J. Moede will conduct English services at the Elm Dale Evangelical church Sunday evening at 7:30. Miss Amanda Christenson closed a very successful term of school in Dist. No. 9 Monday. Mr. Sheldon was present and made a few remarks about the school. He also made a few remarks to the eight grade graduates who graduated a few weeks ago. Fred Hanfner drove to town Tuesday on business.

GREEN PRAIRIE

May 29.—Mr. and Mrs. Hollmick and children of Randall visited at O. Larson's Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. E. Michelson and children of Randall visited at J. Jarvis' Friday. Wm. Hall of Little Falls was a caller here Monday. Mrs. Baue and children of Grey Eagle are visiting at Mr. Neill's this week. Mrs. Munson and son Oscar visited on the Prairie Sunday. Misses Emma Wallace and Etta York were the guests of Misses Pearl Eckerson and Minnie Laiture Sunday afternoon. Miss Peattie Foreman visited her parents Saturday and Sunday returning to her school at Lincoln Sunday. Mrs. Skimmerhorn and children of Randall visited at Mrs. J. Swanson's. Miss Selma Seberg, who has been the guest of friends here, returned to her home at Clough Monday. Miss Regina Eckerson visited her parents Saturday and Sunday, returning to her school at Belle Prairie Sunday evening. Word has been received by friends here that Mrs. G. Nelson formerly of this place, but lately of Omaha, died of consumption last week Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Carlson and son Harry attended church at Little Falls Sunday. Lizzie Swanson, who was kicked by a horse last week, is able to attend school again. Friends here of Ralph Hall of Clough are sorry to hear that he is very sick with measles. Report of Dist. No. 13 for month ending May 25th: No. days taught 20 No. enrolled 23 Average daily attendance 22 Those not absent during the month were: Bonnie Eckerson, Dewey Eckerson, Nettie Eckerson, John Swanson, Bessie Swanson. Those absent two days or less: Pearl Eckerson, Minnie Laiture, Lillian Swanson, Alma Wallace. Clara B. Stickle, Teacher. A TERRIBLE SOAKING. That is what I got for not taking advantage of the bargains offered by the Farmers Exchange on top buggies, storm aprons and side curtains. They are giving bargains in everything they have to sell. 10ct

FLENSBURG

May 20.—Mrs. V. Backowski is recovering from her recent illness. Miss Matilda Petros came over from Little Falls for a visit. Rev. Tokars and J. Wotska called on Rev. Belsowski at Swan River Sunday. The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lemonski was christened at the Catholic church Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Davis entertained a number of their friends at dinner Thursday evening. The marriage of Joseph Super, of this place and Miss Tillie Gustea of Swan River was announced for the first time last Sunday. Mrs. Peter Blair was at home to thirty-two guests Sunday evening. Clement Mrosek returned from the brickyards last week. The village school will close Friday June 1st. A program has been arranged which will be rendered in the evening.

FAWNDALE

May 20.—Peter Rossa purchased a new bicycle from Sears, Roebuck & Co. Simon Sobiek purchased a new cream separator. Fred Getzkow of Upsala visited friends here Sunday and Monday. Mr. and Mrs. John Matcziej were guests at Henry Brown's party. A swarm of bees flew away from Henry Brown's Wednesday and flew into a tree and he sawed the tree down and brought them back Monday morning. Mielke Bros. have bought a big planing mill from the Pine Tree company. Herman Getzkow and Ben Twist were in the county seat Monday. Mielke Bros. started the planing mill Monday. Peter Rossa left for Swanville Sunday where he is running an engine for Mielke.

GILBERT

May 28.—Sam Tough was in town Tuesday. C. L. Nelson came up from the Falls Wednesday. A very serious accident occurred here last week which was thought at first would prove fatal. L. O. Ripley and Erick Schols were hauling a large load of lumber from the Magnan mill, when going down a small decline in the road the horses became unmanageable and the last named person was thrown in front of the load and the front and hind wheels passed over him. He was however, able to get up and was taken to S. Bement's, where the wounds were dressed. A doctor was called, who said the case was serious but with rest and proper care he would pull through. Later—He is improving and may not be so badly hurt as was first thought.

FREEDHEM

May 29.—There will be services in the Swedish Lutheran church Sunday, June 3rd at 2:30 o'clock. John Isaacson is working at the Falls. There will be an ice cream social at the Swedish Free church Saturday evening, June 9th. A program will be given. Admission 15 cents for adults and 6 cents for children. S. Lindberg lost one of his horses Sunday. Anyone wishing to buy a bicycle all on Ed. Bloom. Our mail carrier says some of the roads need a little fixing. Victor Beckman and family drove to Little Falls Monday. There were services in the Swedish Free church Sunday. Don't forget the dairy meeting at Freedhem June 7th.

SOUTH ELMDALE

May 29.—Andrew Oravets and son Ralph went to Royalton Tuesday. Henry Anderson went to Minneapolis Thursday where he will be employed. Prince, our watch dog, was around Sunday night. John Hiesick went to Holdingford Thursday. Paul Peka visited at John Solte's Sunday. Val Westrah went to Royalton Tuesday. Geo. Swartz went to Little Falls Saturday. Thure Anderson returned from Minneapolis Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Mike Rudie visited with relatives here Thursday. Ralph Oravets went to Little Falls Monday.

JUSTICE VALLEY

May 28.—Anna Sunda visited Peter Sunda for a few days last week. J. Socher called at the justice's last week. G. Leeb visited last Sunday. A Skunk Valley man caught a skunk a while ago. It was pretty "strong." Yes, Skunk Valley, Mr. C. was in Platte, but not at the time you mention. Be careful in your remarks. Mr. G. and P. L. were visiting at Billstein's Sunday. E. L. of Bachelor's home got caught in the rain Sunday, but found shelter, and someone to take him home.

HUFF

May 28.—Mrs. Wm. Strahl and Mrs. Emma Sharon returned from Long Prairie Thursday. The ball game did not come off Saturday, too much rain. Miss Lulu Palmer closed an eight months term of school in District 65 last Thursday and departed Friday morning for her home at Sherburne. Frost Monday morning, but no serious damage. Our land is not yet over wet and we still have hope of a good crop. School report of District 22, for month ending May 25th: No. days taught 23 No. pupils enrolled 48 Average daily attendance 40 Present the whole month: Alice Carlberg, Jenny and Edward Miskfeldt. Absent two days or less: Emil Hedlin, Myrtle Larson, Charles Nelson, Selma Anderson, Minnie Nelson, Elliot Johnson, Mabel Peterson, George and Rudolph Nelson, Annie Sundeen and Rena Lofstedt. Jessie M. Taylor, Teacher.

RICE LAKE

May 20.—C. E. Briggs, agent for McCormick & Co. was here Monday and Tuesday. Thomas Lamb and daughter Hazel visited at Mr. and Mrs. John Randall's of Buckman Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Love, George Monk and Miss Elsie Love were here Monday night. It is reported that Miss Ella Lamb, daughter of Thomas Lamb, who is attending school at Little Falls, is suffering from a relapse of measles. John Schmolke passed through here on his way to town last week. George Monk has been putting in some corn on shares on Frank Love's place. Miss Ethel Lamb, who is attending school in town, was home Monday and informed her parents of Ella's illness. One of Frank Love's cows had twin calves last week, both heifers, but unfortunately they both died. Someone poisoned Thomas Lamb's dog Saturday night, but it has not been learned who the party was. Mr. Lamb said he would not have taken $25 for it. Jesse Skinner and Buff Kobe were at the lake Sunday. Ulysses Morrill of East Bellevue was a Rice Lake visitor Tuesday and Wednesday of last week. Graham's ditching machine was ditching Mr. Chourhill's farm and the crew were boarding at John Lamb's. Some of the Rice Lake and Agram kids were practicing baseball on the Rice Lake grounds Sunday. A number from here attended the surprise party at J. Manley's Saturday night. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Love drove to Little Falls Thursday last. Mrs. Thomas Lamb went to Little Falls Wednesday to see her daughter Ella, who is sick there. In spite of the rain a number from here went to Little Falls Saturday. The rain of last week put the farmers back some about corn planting. John Vertin of Little Falls passed through here last week. Frank Love is very busy grubbing this week.

ELM DALE

May 29.—Charles Lundia has returned from Little Falls where he has been staying for a few days. Mrs. L. P. Anderson of Swanville called on Miss Eva Jacobson. Andrew Martinson of Upsala is around here assessing. G. R. Vallett, Miss Hattie Weaver and Henry Peterson went to Royalton Friday. Miss Weaver took the train for the Twin Cities, where she will remain for Memorial day, as her husband and father are buried there. Miss Maggie Gessner of Two Rivers is the guest of her sister, Mrs. L. D. Hanson. Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jendro, a daughter. Jens Jacobson is sick. Mrs. John Sobiek called on Theresa Kobe Thursday. E. W. Larson was employed at W. Davies' Wednesday and Thursday. Knute Gunderson went to Royalton Wednesday. The Hanson and Gessner sawing rig sawed for Frank Madison and Frank Kukla Friday. Henry Olson called on Ed. Larson Wednesday. Charles Mokros, Cornelius Olson, Carl Johnson, Henry Mokros and Nels Twist made a fishing trip Friday. Mrs. J. Albertson visited relatives in Elm Dale. Jane Boye came home Friday from her school in Swanville, to bid her cousin Arthur Page, good bye. He has been visiting at William Boyle's for a short time and will leave for New York this week.

RAIL PRAIRIE

May 29.—Alfred Hanson was up from town for a few days visit. T. A. Olson came home from the drive last Thursday. L. Lucken was in Little Falls Wednesday. H. H. Olson, who has been working on the section at Lucy, Minn., returned home for a couple weeks visit. Miss Emma Olson gave a tea party Saturday afternoon and those present were Miss Mabel Halverson, Krist Lucken and Adolph Olson. A dance will be given in Frank Cota's barn next Saturday night. Everybody invited. Miss Emma Olson spent Saturday and Sunday with Miss Mae Halverson. A dinner was given at G. A. Olson's last Sunday by the Ladies Aid society. Light refreshments were served. A number of young folks gathered at A. K. Johnson's Sunday evening. A midnight lunch was served and a good time is reported. T. Davies and Mrs. O. Hogan were married last Wednesday. They have the best wishes of their many friends for a long and prosperous married life.

AUSLAND

May 9.—Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Snow and daughter Stella went to Motley last Sunday for a visit with relatives and friends. Mrs. F. G. Page was at Ft. Ripley Monday. Arnold Page arrived home last Friday and returned to Duluth last Sunday, where he is employed as fireman on the road. Merton Smith, Ralph Bowder and Israel Tatro went to Staples last Sunday to work in the brickyard. John Knudson went to Ft. Ripley last Wednesday. Ernest Newstrom returned home last Friday. Eli Bowder and Jim Davidson were at the Fort Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Cook went to Rosling for a visit. We had a very hard windstorm last Friday. The flag and flagpole all blowed down on Jabe Smith's place. Report of school in District 107, Rail Prairie, for month ending May 25th: No. enrolled 27 Days taught 26 Average attendance 23 Those perfect in attendance were: Lottie and Rollie Swanson, Alvin, Ivan and Lucile Bonk, Edith and Agnes Anderson, Clayton and Walter Rohl. James G. Joslin, Teacher.

CLOUGH

May 20.—A road meeting was held at Chris. Christenson's last week and some road work was let on the new road. Hugh Fugh, C. W. Pierce and C. Christenson got the job. Tom Davis and Mrs. Mary Hogan were quietly married at Little Falls Wednesday morning, May 28. They will live at Mr. Davies' farm in the future. We all join in wishing them a long and happy married life. Miss Ella Zetterberg, teacher in Dist. 70, spent Saturday and Sunday at her home in Little Falls Monday morning. Frank Coby went to Randall Monday. L. C. Quimby of Randall and Miss Florence Pierce called on friends at Rail Prairie Sunday. C. Quimby and son Roy called on Frank Coby last week. Mrs. A. K. Johnson and children attended the Ladies Aid at G. Olson's Sunday. Tom Davies was in Randall Monday. A dance will be given at Frank Coby's Saturday night. Everybody invited. C. W. Pierce drove to Randall Tuesday. Mrs. P. Anderson was called to Minneapolis by the death of her niece last week. Oh, where is Bachelor No. 21 Has anybody seen him lately. Miss Mabel Halverson spent Wednesday with Miss Emma Olson. Frank Hortenbach drove to Randall Wednesday. Mr. Christensen is working on the road. Sunday school was held at John Husmann's last Sunday afternoon. Tom Davies attended the road meeting at Christenson's last week. Misses Florence Pierce and Ella Zetterberg, L. C. Quimby and E. W. Pierce, went to the dances at Rail Prairie last Saturday night. A fine colt was born at Chris Christenson's farm Wednesday.

Pike Creek

May 30.—Ignatz Walkowski and Miss Kattie Glazik were announced to be married June 5th, wedding taking place at Mr. and Mrs. John Glazik's of Swan River. "Jack Frost" was back again Monday night and did some damage. No apples for Pike Creek this year. Cream separators are the go now a days. Among those who purchased cream separators from B. Muske the past week were: Steve Treseblatowski, Mike Schwartz, Frank Ringwelski, Mike Novak, John Kadroski, John Wotsorek and Mike Podrasa. Miss Kattie Berend was visiting at the Falls Tuesday. Mrs. Frank Bokowski, after a long lingering illness, is recovering. C. A. Lindbergh is again building. Mr. Lindbergh is rushing the work and will move in the cottage as soon as completed. John Ceminaki has a crew of men out working their poll tax. John being road overseer. Pike Creek certainly wants better roads. Mrs. John Drellock of Little Falls visited her folks here Tuesday. Robt. Muske and Robt. Resohke drove through here en route to Swanville and reported the roads being very poor.

PEACEFUL VALLEY

May 29.—Mr. and Mrs. A. F. McDonnell left for South Dakota, where Mr. McDonnell will work this summer while Mrs. McDonnell will visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Warren, formerly of this place. A number from here attended church at Philbrook Monday. Mrs. Morgan Sams went to Motley Monday where she will visit her son James and his family. Miss Jennie McDonnell, who has been visiting in Staples, has returned home. Sam Killian purchased a pony from B. Draper. Now "she" will have some more good rides, won't she, Sam? Miss Enke, one of our teachers, went to Little Falls Friday.

SULLIVAN LAKE

May 19 to 26.—Frank Britton came up to his father-in-law's Sunday last. Ray Sims visited C. E. Look Sunday at his home on Platte lake. T. S. Look and Mrs. Mosgrove were on the west side of Platte lake on business Tuesday last. Mrs. Ford was very sick Wednesday with neuralgia of the heart. Ray Sims is preparing to take a course at the Business College the coming fall. Frank Britton has taken his household goods to Eden Valley where he will reside. C. E. Look and D. W. Sims were at Vineland on business Thursday last. Report of school in Dist. No. 48, East Clough, for term ending May 25th: No. pupils enrolled 20 No. days taught 19 Average daily attendance 20 Those not absent during month were: Laura and Fern Adams, Kate and Anna Kimball, Susie Nichols, Lucy, Mae and Eddie Roff. Ray Cook, Teacher.

CANDIDATE FOR LEGISLATURE.

I wish to announce myself as a candidate for the republican nomination for representative from the 48th district. M. N. YOUNG.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

By request of a large number of my old and new acquaintances, that I should be a candidate for the office of register of deeds, I therefore did decide and announce that I will be a candidate for the nomination, for the office of register of deeds, of Morrison County, at the primaries of the democratic party to be held September 13, 1906, and earnestly solicit your vote and support. Respectfully yours, Peter Medved.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

I am a candidate for the democratic nomination for register of deeds and respectfully ask the support of democrats throughout the county. Very sincerely yours, Chas. E. Vasily.

BURTRUM

May 28.—Grain is looking fine and the late rain was good for the corn and potatoes. Three members of the local G. A. R. post visited the school Thursday. School will close Friday and graduating exercises will be held in the evening. Eight will graduate. Professor Nese has been very successful and we are sorry to see him leave. Rev. H. G. Washington was at Long Lake and saw Mr. Basil, who has a cancer on the lower lip and is in a serious condition. He realizes that there is no help for him, and the final result is only a question of time. Mrs. C. W. Willson visited her daughter, Mrs. P. C. Budd, near Long Lake. C. E. Harrington finished planting 15 acres of corn last Wednesday, and is now preparing the ground for several acres of fodder corn, and an acre of potatoes. Clarence is a hustler. Wm. Young, who formerly lived here, but moved to the city this spring, came up from Minneapolis to see about his farm last week. He is working as a carpenter. Hall Bros. are moving to their own store the goods they purchased from the assignee at the Helbron sale. Fred Heffron has gone to Montana with Ben Biset to shear sheep, and will be gone till the last of July. Wanted—1000 farmers to subscribe for The Herald, chuck full of county news. Chas. Dimon, Sam Miland and Chas. Mandigo went to Pillsbury to build a house for Mr. Johnson. J. L. Hosford has rented his blacksmith shop to Mr. Davis of Grey Eagle, who takes possession soon. Wm. Stephenson is putting in cement walks in front of his residence in the east part of town, a decided improvement. Chas. Vane is home from Minneapolis. Chas. Sanders has a fine family tombstone erected in the G. A. R. cemetery. John Hall will soon occupy his new residence in south town. We are gratified to learn that Jesse Ross has secured a position in the Little Falls postoffice. He is well qualified. We notice by The Herald that Ray Ross is employed at the Giant Grip factory—so the three Ross boys are now all in the city. Mrs. F. E. Rose will soon go to Mendota to visit her daughter, and will also visit her mother and sisters at Minneapolis. Strawberries and other plants were somewhat injured by the frost Sunday night. Dr. Walman, H. F. Browning, D. H. Parsons and "Chet" Melias were initiated at the last meeting of the Elks. 35 ct

SWANVILLE

May 20.—Miss Olga Niemi returned from Melrose Wednesday. Gust Reihke moved to the Glants building Tuesday where he will start a shoe shop. Mr. Latham from Little Falls was here last week moving J. J. McRae's barn. Ned Bowman and wife of Pine River are visiting relatives here this week. Rev. Chadwick of Howard Lake was here Thursday visiting friends. C. Blair was in Little Falls Thursday. Services were held at the German Lutheran church Thursday. Dr. Okersten was a caller in the village Wednesday. Wm. Graham, the pure food inspector of Long Prairie was here Thursday. Mrs. Files is visiting with her daughter at Sank Centre this week. Miss Mary Barber of Pillsbury was a caller Thursday. John Harrington came back from Morris Wednesday. Hans Olson and wife were here this week visiting his brother Hoken. They returned to Minneapolis Friday. Dr. Okerstrom was a Little Falls visitor Wednesday. Dr. Storey of Grey Eagle called here Friday. J. H. Law of Sank Centre, traveling for Geo. R. Newell & Co. of Minneapolis, was here Friday calling on local merchants. Mrs. Green left Friday for Aberdeen, S. D. to visit relatives. Frank Smidt returned Friday from St. Joe, where he has been attending school. The farmers held another meeting Saturday to decide about the creamery proposition. Misses Rhea Champlain, Myrtle Stith and Mr. Vanzile attended the picnic at the Bain school Saturday. Dr. Campbell of Burtrum was here Saturday. Madames Stith, Vanzile, Siema, McRae, Wilkie and Flood drove to Little Falls Wednesday to attend the Decoration exercises there. Mrs. Ida McDaniel has returned from Albany, where she visited her brother John Christen, who was injured in a runaway. Mr. Christen's lower limbs were paralyzed, but he is slowly improving. Rev. M. O. Stookland delivered an address at the graduation exercises in District 105, Little Falls town, Thursday last week. Emil Swanson and Vernon Brooks were the graduates. Miss Vera Harrison has been teacher of the school, which has been markedly successful. —You can get more and better meat for your money at Wilcock & Wilcock's. West side, than at any other place in the city. 35 ct

FOLSOM'S

The Best Line of CARPETS In LITTLE FALLS is to be found at our store, where we are daily supplying scores of satisfied patrons with high grade patterns of undisputed merit. Our carpet stock is the largest in the city and we are making prices that appeal to careful and intelligent buyers. With us it has always been "Once a customer always a customer" and this applies not only to carpets, but to every department in our immense establishment. Just now we are talking carpets and for the purpose of interesting you, we quote a few prices: A good Velvet Carpet with border at per yard 79c An all wool yard wide Ingrain, the best value ever offered at per yard 57c An extra heavy all wool Ingrain, full 22 ounce, an honest piece of goods a yard wide 67c A Royal Velvet Carpet, new and up-to-date patterns, the best floor covering made, per yard 98c Our celebrated extra heavy Ingrain Carpet wears better than the old-fashioned 3 ply brand, known as the "Rajah" at per yard 77c Fine effects in body Brussels, accredited leaders for honest work at per yard $1.35 All Carpets Ordered Now Will Be Sewed, Laid and Lined F R E E SIMONET Furniture and Carpet Co.