Snake Coiled Around Sleeper. F. E. Feve, an employe of the Northern Electric, had a thrilling experience with a snake Tuesday morning. Feve, with two companions, occupies a tent made out of gunny sacks in the western portion of Oroville.

He was awakened by a feeling of strangulation. He attempted to cry out, but so tightly was his throat bound that he could not make a sound. As he became fully awake he realized that something must be done or he would choke. He grasped frantically for his throat and his hand slipped over the scales of a huge snake which had coiled itself around his neck. He frantically pulled the coils loose, the reptile resisting him and biting him in the cheek.

His two companions, awakened by the noise, came to Feve's rescue. The two pulled the snake away and threw it to the floor, where it glided away while the men attended to Mr. Feve's wound. The reptile was a gopher snake.—Redding Correspondence San Francisco Call.
