RANDALL

Dec. 5.—Since it has become generally known that the N. P. R. company is going to double track the road through here next summer and going to take ties made of almost any kind of timber that grows around here, there is going to be a regular scramble for ties and no doubt but many thousands will be put in here. It is a regular harvest time for the blacksmiths here just now. The roads are in such a condition that it is impossible for a team to get along without sharp shoes so they are working hard late and early every day except Sunday, and a little has been done even that day. Mr. Skelton of the Lucas house has purchased a team and is now prepared to do driving for those who may need such service. He has also some nice young cows he wishes to dispose of and is offering them at low prices. Franklin Lucas has shipped his saw mill from Randall to some place near Duluth, where he expects to have a three years job of sawing. Andrew Hancock has gone with him to scale. Miss Julia Sullivan, who is attending school in Little Falls, is home for a few days rest. Geo. E. Calhoun started on Monday morning to run Rural route No. 2, while W. R. Campbell, the regular carrier, takes his fifteen days vacation.

Nursing baby? It's a heavy strain on mother. Her system is called upon to supply nourishment for two. Some form of nourishment that will be easily taken up by mother's system is needed. Scott's Emulsion contains the greatest possible amount of nourishment in easily digested form. Mother and baby are wonderfully helped by its use. ALL DRUGGISTS: 50c. AND 90c.

RAMEY

Nov. 30.—George and Sidney Ogg have returned home from South Dakota. Jos. Smith has had the misfortune of losing three young horses with distemper, within a week. M. Mansfield, who has been on the sick list, is improving. Revival meetings are being held at the M. E. church this week. Children's meetings and preaching services were held at the Dunkard church Thanksgiving day. Mrs. Martin Ogg and children started for Illinois last Tuesday where they will spend the winter. Rev. Carter returned to Ronneby, Saturday. Mrs. Sam Wildasin visited Mrs. Robt. Mann Tuesday. Mrs. Isaac Pett, who has been sick for several weeks, is improving slowly.

ROYALTON

Henry Broker, father of W. J. Broker of this village, died on Sunday at his home at Collegeville, Stearns county, at the advanced age of 88, of old age and complications. The funeral will be held Wednesday morning from St. John's Abbey church and interment will be made in the Catholic cemetery.

Mr. Broker was the oldest settler in this county and has lived in that vicinity all his life. For many years he taught school at Jacob's Prairie and from there he went to New Munich, where he also taught several terms. From New Munich he went to Collegeville, where he made his home until the time of his death. For nine years he was postmaster at that village and was well known and respected among all his associates. He leaves to mourn him an aged wife and seven children, among whom is Mrs. Ubrecht of Melrose.

The Eden Valley Journal has the following account of the marriage of a sister of Miss Mary Schneider of the local telephone exchange: Michael Murphy, of McCumber, N. D., and Miss Julia Schneider, of Forest City, were married at the Catholic church in Forest City Tuesday by the pastor, Rev. Father Dobbin. The bride is the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Schneider, of Forest City, and a young lady whom all admire for her many good qualities and winning ways. The groom was raised within a mile of Eden Valley, where he has a farm. He is a hard working and industrious young man with many good traits of character. All who know him like him, and all will be pleased to learn of his marriage to such an estimable young lady.

The Taking Cold Habit

The old cold goes; a new one quickly comes. It's the story of a weak throat, weak lungs, a tendency to consumption. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral breaks up the taking-cold habit. It strengthens, soothes, heals. Ask your doctor about it.

"I had a terrible cold, and nothing relieved me. I tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and it promptly broke up my cold, stopped my cough, and eased every part of my body. It is a wonderful work for me."—M. J. P. Lewis, Toledo, Ohio.
