

THE LID IS ON

The Several Bar Keepers are Notified to that Effect Thursday

The expected has happened. As a consequence of the decision recently handed down by the supreme court in the St. Cloud law enforcement case, which decision will be found on our third page, Mayor Moeglein has deemed it a wise course to follow the letter of the law, and consequently on Thursday afternoon Chief Gannon notified all interested of the situation. The saloons hereafter will be closed throughout the day on Sundays and will also close at 11 o'clock on week days.

Some of the saloon keepers are not opposed to the closing, while others are strenuously so, saying that they may retaliate on other lines. This action on their part, however, is improbable.

CUT OFF ENDS OF FINGERS.

Chas. Gravel, Sr., while at his sawmill at Vineland Thursday last week had the ends of the second and third fingers of his right hand cut off at the roots of the nails, by coming in contact with a saw. Mr. Gravel, who was standing near the saw, was called by one of the workmen and in turning around swung his hand against the fast moving saw with the above stated results.

SUES FOR $50,000 DAMAGES.

Roscoe Bryan, a former Little Falls boy, has sued the Gogebic Boiler Works, according to the Duluth News-Tribune for $50,000, for the loss of an eye, sustained while working for the company at Coleraine. Mr. Bryan claims that the use of a defective hammer caused chips of steel to fly into his eye, which destroyed the sight and the eye had to be removed.

LARGE SETTLEMENT.

The June apportionment which will be ready for distribution shortly, will be the largest in a number of years. It will amount to about $87,000.

M. S. Jacobson came down from Deerwood Thursday for a short visit.

Carl Englehorn has accepted a position as apprentice at the C. W. Willing drug store.

Miss Mildred Jensen was taken to her home Tuesday from the hospital, having recovered from a recent operation for appendicitis.

The summer school will open at the High school Monday afternoon. It is to be of six weeks duration. A large attendance is expected.

Elias Brown, who was released from the hospital Sunday, where he underwent an operation, will be at his old post at the postoffice in a day or two.

A special term of the district court will be held next week. The case of the county vs. Samuel Trebby over collection of paving assessment will be heard.

John Batters came down from above Willmar last Saturday, where he has been employed on the Soo line. John will leave for Leeds, N. D., where he will be employed as cook in a restaurant.

J. C. Barrall attended the Minnesota department encampment of the G. A. R. at St. Paul this week as delegate from the local post, and also represented the local lodge of I. O. O. F. in that city.

A beautiful statue of St. Anthony of Padua, the gift of John Gleason of Minneapolis, has been placed in the Church of St. Francis Xavier. Mr. Gleason married Miss Addie Raymond of this city.

Philomin Grenier, who has been a prominent farmer in Belle Prairie for several years will leave Monday for Chisholm, where he has purchased a dray line. His many friends will wish him success in his new undertaking.

John N. Klinger opened up the saloon on Broadway, formerly run by Fred Valentine, Wednesday morning. Mr. Klinger is recently from Dakota, but formerly lived here. He is well known here and no doubt will do well.

Miss Janet Priest, formerly of this city, was married the 12th to T. Robb, Jr., a wealthy clubman of Philadelphia. Miss Priest is an actress and has gained an enviable position in her profession. Miss Priest was well known by many of our young folks, having attended school here many years ago.

In the case of the State vs. Mattice Ringwald, Peter Knopik, member of board of Pike Creek, complaining witness, for obstructing the highway, verdict was rendered against defendant, fine and costs amounting to $32, in Justice Gaudet's court Saturday. The defendant had fenced in part of a culvert that had been used as road for the past twenty years.

The coal sheds for the Little Falls Pipe and Fuel Co. are being rapidly brought to completion. They are located between Third and Fourth avenues northeast on the west side of the tracks, and are 14x125 feet, with a capacity of about 90 car-loads of coal. The company intends to fill them to their full capacity immediately and therefore the work has been rushed. An office will be established at the sheds and some one will be there during the fall and winter months to tend to the coal business. The scales will be placed on the west side of the sheds.

TO CELEBRATE THE 4TH

Arrangements to be Made for an Excellent Program for the Day

A meeting was held at the city hall Monday evening by the committee appointed by Mayor Moeglein to see to the arrangements for a proper celebration of the Fourth of July, all members, with the exception of those of the West side, being present.

The general opinion of the members was that the Fourth should be celebrated this year with much greater pomp than in past years and that a change in the program should be made.

Members of the committee thought that a first class Fourth of July program would draw large crowds to this city and that a gala day should be had.

They appointed the following committee to solicit subscriptions in the different wards towards this celebrating this national holiday: F. E. Cawley and S. R. Snow in First ward; W. H. Ryan and C. W. Willing in Second ward; Carl Colander and T. H. Dewey in Third ward.

MARRIED.

Saturday, June 8th, at high noon occurred the wedding of L. D. Brown and Miss Sadie Barton at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. C. K. Barton, on Seventh street northeast.

Rev. C. A. Billig performed the ceremony in the presence of immediate relatives of the contracting parties. The bride was attired in a brown traveling dress, and the ceremony was very simple. The wedding party repaired to the dining room after the wedding ceremony, where the wedding dinner awaited them.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown are very well known in this city and have a host of friends who will wish them the best to be obtained in their wedded life. The groom is a well known druggist of the city, having been in business for the past twelve years. The bride is a very estimable young lady, and has taught in the city schools for the past eleven years with very good results. It was with great reluctance that the board of education accepted her resignation.

The happy couple made a short trip to the Twin cities and will reside in this city, occupying Mr. Brown's residence on Sixth street northeast.

Among the out of town guests present at the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Barton of Mason City, Iowa, and Lester Barton of Staples.

Another popular June wedding took place Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock when Edward N. Ebert and Miss Lottie Josephine Hayes were married at the church of St. Francis Xavier, Rev. Fr. Lamothe officiating. Flowers and ferns decorated the church for the occasion and the wedding was a very pretty one.

The bride was gowned in white net over white tulle and carried a cluster of white bridal roses. Miss Katherine Dennis, the bridesmaid, was attired in green silk and carried a bouquet of pink roses. The groom wore the conventional black. Albert Ebert of Charles City, Iowa, was best man. Special music was furnished for the occasion by Prof. John Gans and Leigh Cary.

Many friends of the contracting parties were present at the wedding despite the threatening weather. Immediately after the wedding ceremony the wedding party repaired to the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Hayes, where a very sumptuous wedding breakfast was served.

The home was beautifully arranged with flowers, ferns and evergreens and here the happy couple received the congratulations of their solicitous friends.

The bride is a very amiable young lady, has lived here all her life and held a most enviable place in the esteem of her many friends and the groom is to be congratulated on his choice. Mr. Ebert is a well known business man of this city, is a member of the Ebert Bros. grocery firm and is a prominent member of the local lodge of Elks. Both of the young couple are very well known in this community.

Many beautiful and useful presents were received by the bride.

Among the out of town guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Ebert of Duluth, Albert Ebert of Charles City, Iowa, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. McCulloch of St. Cloud, and Mrs. H. F. Chase of Fountain, Minn., who has been spending the winter here.

The happy couple left for a trip to the cities and points in Iowa on their honeymoon Tuesday and will spend a good part of a month visiting. They will take up their residence in an apartment in the Buckman block on their return, where they will be at home to their many friends.

Daniel H. Campbell and Miss Clara Edden were married Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Edden of Green Prairie, Rev. C. A. Billig of the First Congregational church of Little Falls officiating.

Miss Etta Edden and Frank Edden, sister and brother of the bride, acted as bridesmaid and best man respectively.

The bride was gowned in cream-white and carried white bridal roses, and the bridesmaid was dressed in pink and carried pink carnations.

The affair was a quiet one, only relatives being present.

The bride is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Edden and has resided in Green Prairie the greater part of her life. The groom is one of Caldwell's industrious young farmers, who is well known in Little Falls as

TOWN OF CENTRAL VALLEY

New Town to be Platted on the Line of the Soo

Joe Billmeyer of Hillman was the city Saturday and stated that a village would be platted by himself and Matt Meyer on the Soo line.

The place selected is at the site of the Zerk postoffice and will be on land, owned by the gentlemen mentioned, on the east side of the track. The name of the new village will be Center Valley, and will be located on the line midway between Piers and Hillman, being about seven miles to either of the stations. It is the intention of the owners to build roads from the village connecting with all the country roads in the vicinity.

The promoters claim that it is the ideal town for a station, being centrally located, and in a beautiful valley, the ground gently sloping away on all sides.

Mr. Billmeyer also has great confidence in the place being headquarters for heavy mining operations in the vicinity, as he claims to have submitted specimens of gold bearing quartz taken from this region, which have proven to be of a superior quality, and that it is in paying quantities.

DIED.

Miss Florence Baker died early Saturday morning of tuberculosis of the lungs at her home on the West side, aged 21 years.

Miss Baker, who was the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russel Baker, took sick with pneumonia while teaching the Wadena schools about a year ago, which developed into tuberculosis of the lungs, and since then she gradually failed until death ensued.

Born in St. Paul Dec. 9, 1885, Florence Baker came to this city with her parents at the age of four years and had resided here ever since, excepting when away from home teaching. She attended the local schools, graduated with the class of 1903 of the local high school and attended the St. Cloud Normal school during the 1904-1905 term, graduating from the same in the spring of 1906. She then taught a term of school in the city schools of Wadena, during which time she contracted the disease which ultimately resulted in her death.

The deceased was of a pleasing personality, beloved by her many friends and admired by all who knew her, and it is with deep regret that they will bear of her demise.

She leaves a father, mother, and three brothers, John, Russel and Alward Baker, all residing in the city.

The funeral was held at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon from the Episcopal church, interment taking place in the Oakland cemetery. Many beautiful floral tributes were received.

The four-weeks-old child of Stanislaus Jasowski of Flensburg died Tuesday and the funeral was held on Thursday.

THE GREATER LITTLE FALLS.

If you want to see our city lead all others in the state, if you'd like to see her people busy, strictly up to date, if you favor growth of business in the town where you belong, Get in line and be a booster and you'll help the cause along.

If you'd see her own and operate her factories by the score, Giving labor, homes and comfort to a million or more, If you want our town a Mecca where the men of business meet, Take right hold and work together till the thing is quite complete.

Let us demonstrate the prowess of our city every way; And rejoice to see it growing bigger, better day by day. And if each and every one will do what hope and courage calls, There's no question but we'll get it soon the Greater Little Falls.

C. E. Vassaly attended the C. O. F. meeting at Faribault, as a delegate from the local lodge.

The ladies' society of the Swedish Lutheran church will hold an auction in church Saturday evening, June 15. They will have a grab-bag and refreshments will be served at 10 o'clock. Everybody invited.

Alton Bates, who has for several years been a sawyer in the Pine Tree mills, has resigned his position here and has accepted a similar position in the Scanlon mills. The many friends of the young man will greatly miss him, but will unite in wishing him the best of success.

well as in that community. He was born and raised in Cullman and will reside there in the future with his bride.

The happy couple took the afternoon train Thursday at Little Falls for a trip to the Twin Cities and will be at home to their many friends after July 1st.

THE COUNCIL MEETING

Board of Public Works Present—the Paving Question Discussed

An adjourned meeting of the city council was held Tuesday evening. Aldermen Lane, Bastien, Dewey, Germain, Enke and Kiewel, being present.

The liquor license of John N. Klinger, with Henry Nathe and Joe Gendron as sureties was granted.

No bids were received for the construction of the sewer intended to run south through the alley from Third avenue southeast between 1st and 2nd street. And if the residents still wish the improvements, bids will have to be asked for in other proceedings.

The work of repairing the upper bridge and the tightening of the iron rods was reported as having been completed.

The board of public works—Messrs. W. H. Ryan, John Wetzel and Hokan Nelson—met with the council to confer on the matter of paving on First street, taking up the question of curbing, gutters, etc.

It was suggested that in the new paving the crown or center of the street be at a height of fifteen inches, six inches higher than on Broadway, and that 8-inch cobble stones, wedged in, be used for the gutters.

The sentiment seemed to be that to get the work done properly, a competent engineer should be employed to make the plans and to supervise the work from start to finish. There seemed to be some question with the aldermen as to the power of the council to employ an outside engineer, but there is no question but that the employment of such a person is within their right.

Some of the council as well as the board of public works, thought that a better paving than that on Broadway should be put in, and Mr. Nelson, of the board of public works, will make a trip to Minneapolis and Duluth to look into the idea of tar macadam.

Previous to putting in the paving an order will be issued as to the laying of sewer and water pipes running to the several properties along the frontage of the proposed paving.

It was also suggested that the intersections be raised so as to slope from the center to all streets and that cement crossings, slightly raised, be put in.

The matter of allowing the laying of sidewalk on First street northeast, north of 2nd avenue, on the natural grade, came up for discussion, and brought the remark from Mr. Ryan that if it could be done in one case, it certainly should be considered in the case of the sidewalk ordered lowered on First street. Mr. Ryan had, some meetings previous, asked for a right of six inches leeway in the grade in putting in a sidewalk in front of the building he occupies on First street and the request was turned down. The matter was finally dropped for the time being.

A petition for a lot of sidewalk on the West side was read and referred to the board of public works.

A sidewalk was also ordered in in front of the Marjory property on Second street southeast. Mayor Moeglein was assured that the city would employ the band for the Fourth of July celebration as in the past.

AUGUST SAMUELSON DAMAGE CASE.

The case of August Samuelson vs. the Hennepin Paper Co., which was appealed to the supreme court by the Hennepin Paper Co., from a verdict for $3,800 damages in favor of the plaintiff, August Samuelson, rendered in the fall term of the district court under Judge L. B. Baxter, came up before the supreme court at St. Paul Monday, Attorney A. F. Blanchard representing August Samuelson. It is very likely that the supreme court's decision will be made known in a short time. The case is very generally known, was originally brought on as the result of injuries the plaintiff received at the paper mill about a year ago, in which he had an arm broken in about seven places, rendering it useless.

The late Dan Bruckart, formerly ex-mayor of St. Cloud who died in the West some years ago, was a man of large heart and genial disposition, two traits which had much to do with putting him at times into the state which the dramatist Sheridan said was one to stimulate every faculty, that of impecuniosity. And Sheridan knew by experience. Bruckart's creditors could do no other than love him. A Little Falls lawyer told a story recently which illustrated Bruckart's ways. A tailor who had often and often tackled the brilliant lawyer, only to be put off, was overjoyed one day when Bruckart told him to come to the office and get the amount of his bill. With beaming countenance he arrived at the hour and day appointed. The attorney cordially met him, talked a while, charming the business man, as he well knew how to do casually inquired the amount of his bill, leisurely took out a check-book, wrote and folded a check, and handed it to the tailor, who, thanking him profusely, thrust the check into his pocket and strode forth, determined to say what a fine man Dan Bruckart was. But, horror of horrors, when the tailor went to deposit the check, he found that it was for four million dollars.

CLEVER WORK BY JOHN BAILEY.

It appears that Deputy Sheriff John N. Bailey of Bemidji did a clever piece of work in landing Peter Mathieson, who is to answer to the charge of killing John Jobanson, at Ten Strike last February. Mathieson had written a letter to the postmaster at Ten Strike, using Jobanson's name, asking him to forward all mail to Portland. This is the clue that was followed up and by which eventually led to the capture of the accused by Deputy Bailey.

Mathieson admits the killing but claims the act was done in self defense.

THE ADVERTISING PAMPHLETS.

The pamphlets, to be used to advertise the merits and opportunities to be offered by the city and county have arrived and are being distributed.

The pamphlet is made up of twenty-four pages of printed matter interspersed with various cuts of buildings, scenes, etc., in and about Little Falls, and is enclosed in a finely embossed cover, on which is a print, resembling water color, of a portion of the dam. The title of the work is, Little Falls, Minnesota, Its Present and Future.

The subject matter is well taken care of, and is, all in all, a very acceptable pamphlet.

J. H. Koop of Brainerd was here Wednesday, attending to some real estate business with the Pine Tree Lumber Co.

WRECKING ATTEMPTED?

West Bound Freight Said to Have Struck Obstruction West of Pillager

According to a story said to have been brought from Staples this morning an attempt was made to wreck a freight train on the Northern Pacific railroad between Motley and Pillager. The story, as told by a train crew that came east this morning, is that extra No. 410 west, struck a pile of ties on the track at the point named. The fireman, according to reports saw the obstruction and kollerled to the engine and jumped. The engineer struck by his post and the engine being a heavy one held the rails. Neither the fireman nor engineer were hurt.

Local railroad men, when seen regarding the matter, denied all knowledge of any such incident. The men who brought the report to the city, however, are reliable parties and there is thought to be foundation for the story. The fact that the obstruction was placed on the track so early in the evening would look more like spite work than an attempt to get the passenger train, which does not pass that point until three or four hours later.

A member of the crew of the train which struck the obstruction was in the city this afternoon and in conversation with a Dispatch representative stated that they struck two bunches of ties, one two miles east of Motley and the other one mile east of the station. In the first pile struck there were five, but the gentleman did not know the number in the second bunch. The statement was given out this afternoon that ties, which fell from a carload passing along, were the obstructions, but this is thought hardly probable, and may have been given out to prevent knowledge of the attempt reaching the public.—Brainerd Dispatch.

BY THE WAY.

The office of judge of probate has many unpleasant incidents connected with it, especially in regard to insanity cases, the circumstances of which are sometimes very sad. There are, however, pleasant incidents as well. Judge Shaw joins in matrimony many couples. Why the officer who has matrimonial purposes in one of the things that might be worth attention, other than the pleasing personality of his Honor. One of the poets says love is a cheerful lunacy, a species of aberration to which all are subject, and perhaps, from a psychological standpoint, this may explain the preference for Judge Shaw's kindly ministrations. Nor is the occasion devoid of ceremony, simply because it does not occur in church or home. The other day a couple sauntered into the judge's office. The judicial eye at once noted that Cupid had captured the happy pair. Inquiring whether they could be better or for worse be "joined" then and there, the judge answered in the affirmative, and seeing that perhaps something special should be appreciated, asked the manly groom if he had a ring. Receiving a favorable answer, the judge remarked: "Well, then, we will have the ring service" And they did. Although in what part of the statutes the judge found the said service, affiant doth not further say.

Cumulative advertising is a great thing, and yet hard to measure. The influence of an advertisement may linger on long after the paper on which it was printed has moldered away, or the firm which advertised gone out of existence. In the last leap year, The HERALD kindly advertised several of the eligible bachelors of Little Falls. It is pleasing to note that the advertisements are bringing fruit, although there are still incorrigibles, there are hopes even for them.

BOND FOR APPEARANCE

Given by Jos. Polluck to Appear Witness in Wiehersi Case

Jos. Polluck of Swan River was arrested Sunday on a charge of complicity with Theodore Wiehersi, in the shooting of Mrs. Gertrude Kuffel in Swan River a few weeks ago, and was taken before Justice Gaudet Tuesday morning. The case against him was dismissed, and he was released upon furnishing a personal bond of $500 to insure his appearance as a witness in the Wiehersi case at the fall term of the district court in this city. As he is the only eye-witness to the shooting, the county attorney was naturally very desirous of making sure that he will be on hand when the case comes for trial.

PIERZ

June 11.—Frank Otremba sold his house and lot in the village of Piers to John Schmitt, who has been living on the Bergerhausen farm for the last twelve or fifteen years. Mr. Schmitt will not occupy the premises until next fall, after the harvest. Consideration $1,100.

The Pierz base ball team went to Little Falls last Sunday to play the Little Falls team. Shortly after the game started it began to rain and playing had to be given up. Our boys are confident they would have won if the game could have been finished. At the time they had to stop the score was 1 to 0 in favor of Pierz.

Mr. and Mrs. Schrefel from Dodge county, Wis., were visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Louis Feucht, also with Mrs. Anna Feucht. From here they will visit with relatives in Cooperstown, N. D.

John Abram and two daughters, Mrs. Mary and Annie Schlugh, of Wheeler, Wis., were here last week visiting with John Leidenfrost.

The St. Joseph church choir gave an entertainment in the Parochial school in Little Falls last Sunday evening, which was not very well attended on account of the rain.

We are informed that the Little Falls base ball team is to come to Pierz next Sunday to play with our team.

DIED—Wenzel Nespori, for many years well known resident of the village of Pierz, died suddenly last Tuesday, June 11th, at 6 o'clock p. m. at the age of 84 years. Mr. Nespori came over to this country from Austria, Europe, about 25 years ago and settled on a farm three miles north-west of here, until he moved to the village several years ago. He was a stone mason by trade. The deceased is survived by his wife and one daughter in Austria.

The Pierz creamery is now doing a good business. Mr. Ekstrand, the manager informs us that he is now receiving large quantities of cream and milk every day. Last Friday he received 7000 lbs. of cream. This proves that the creamery has come to stay.

Frank Faust's new Grand Opera House will be completed in a few days. The plasterers have finished their work and the carpenters are now laying the floor. The building is 40x100 ft. and 18 feet from floor to ceiling. In the back end of the building there will be a stage 24 feet deep and in the front part 6 feet are reserved for a ladies' dressing room, wardrobe room and ticket office, with a gallery above. This is the largest and best hall in Morrison county, and Mr. Faust has saved no expense to make it first class in every respect. This building will be opened for the public for the first time Thursday, June 20th, 1907, by a concert at 8 o'clock and a dance to commence at 9 o'clock p. m. Come and see the new Grand Opera House.

Next Sunday evening an entertainment will be given by the children of the school under management of the sisters G. S. B. A good program has been selected and a cordial invitation is extended to all.

Robert Kluge went to Wilton, N. D., last Monday, where he is employed as bricklayer on the Washburn coal buildings. He will not return until about the first of December.

Christ Faust is building a new dwelling house on his farm about three miles west of Pierz. Wm. Eller has just completed the mason work of the foundation.

The work on the new Soo line had to be stopped for the last five days on account of the rain.
