

TO BE A CELEBRATION

Little Falls Will Fittingly Observe the Day of Independence

Little Falls will celebrate on the Fourth. Enough funds have been secured to assure a proper observance of the day. Although the time is short, the different committees to be appointed will immediately go to work to make this year's celebration one of the best ever held in the city. It would be of no particular credit to Little Falls not to have a Fourth of July celebration. Without that that day means, the wealth and prosperity of many would never have been, and there would not be the opportunity which so many have had to succeed in a free land, to escape militarism, to be free from oppression, and to rule themselves. The Herald very strongly believes that funds for celebrating the Fourth of July and Memorial day, if not also other days, should be provided for in the city's tax levy, and thus make the entire tax paying body pay for that which makes their property rights secure. It will be a very sorry day for America when the Fourth of July is like other days.

DIED

James Delahunt passed away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Phil S. Randall at 6 o'clock Tuesday morning, aged 84 years, of old age. The deceased had been in ill health for several years but it was not until about three weeks ago that he began to fall noticeably, and then he failed rapidly to his death.

Born the 13th day of July, 1823, in Feathard, County Tipperary, Ireland, Mr. Delahunt came to America when a young man 28 years of age, landing in Quebec in the month of July, 1848. After a year's residence in that city he crossed the line and settled in Buffalo, N. Y., a little later locating in Troy, N. Y. Here Mr. Delahunt met Miss Bridget Flynn with whom he was united in marriage in the spring of 1853, and after four years residence in that city removed with his family to a farm in Russell county, Sheboygan county, Wis. Mr. and Mrs. Delahunt resided there until the summer of 1895 when they moved to Little Falls, and have resided here for the past twelve years.

The deceased leaves, besides his wife, who is still living, six daughters, Mrs. N. E. Stanton of Tacoma, Wash., Mrs. Wm. O'Shea, Mrs. Phil S. Randall, Mrs. T. W. Gannon and Mrs. J. F. O'Neil, all of this city, Mrs. Geo. Keenan of Elkhardt, Wis., and three sons, James of this city, Walter of Willmar, Minn., and Edward P. of St. Paul, Minn., all of whom, with the exception of Mrs. Stanton of Tacoma, who was unable to attend, were present at his death. The deceased also leaves forty grand-children, and one great-grand-child, besides many friends.

The funeral was held from the French Catholic church at 9 o'clock Thursday morning, interment taking place in Calvary cemetery. The deceased was a kindly old gentleman highly esteemed and one whom it was a pleasure to meet. Previous to his failing health, Mr. Delahunt made frequent visits to his numerous friends, and they will bear with deep regret of his demise. Many beautiful floral offerings were received.

A telegram was received by Chas. Simmons Thursday morning saying that Alonzo Root, of Ft. Ripley, had died at Detroit, Minn., that morning. No cause of death was given.

Mr. Root had been on a visit to his sister, Mrs. E. S. Mooers, at White Earth, and also to take in the celebration at that place. As the deceased seemed to be in good health, it is thought that he must have been taken very suddenly, possibly with heart disease.

The remains will be received at Ft. Ripley today. Alonzo Root was about 36 years of age, was born in this city where he spent his boyhood days, and is well known by the old settlers. The family removed to Ft. Ripley several years ago.

With the death of Alonzo, the last male member of this well known family is removed, Jerry, a brother, having been murdered at Bemidji about eight years ago, and Delbert having been killed in a sawmill accident in Idaho a couple of months ago.

Besides a mother, deceased leaves a wife and family, and four sisters, Mrs. D. S. Mooers, Ft. Ripley; Mrs. G. G. Simmons, this city; Mrs. Wilce Vanepus, Pine River, and Mrs. S. E. Mooers, White Earth.

Mrs. Carrie Fretz died Thursday night, June 13, at 12 o'clock in a sanatorium at Minneapolis after an illness of several months, aged about 58 years.

Last fall Mrs. Fretz was attacked with rheumatism, while on a visit here from Minneapolis with her brother, A. L. Erickson, until recently a resident of this city, and a peculiarity of the disease made her bones so brittle that the thigh bone broke as did also a bone in one of her arms a little later from very slight cause. Later paralysis set in and she was taken to a sanatorium in Minneapolis for treatment, but death overtook her after she had been there a little over a week.

Born in Norway, Mrs. Fretz came to this country with her parents early in life and settled in Kansas, where the family lived for several years after which they came to Minnesota. The deceased had lived in this city fifteen years, previous to moving to Minneapolis about a year and a half ago.

She leaves, beside two small children, a father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Erickson of Gravelville, three brothers, S. O. Erickson of Fargo, N. D., Arne Erickson of Fergus Falls, and A. L. Erickson of Pequot, and one sister, Miss Annie Erickson of Gravelville.

The remains of the deceased were brought to the city Friday evening accompanied by Miss Annie Erickson. The funeral was held from the Norwegian Lutheran church Saturday afternoon, interment taking place in Oakland cemetery.

While loading salt on a wagon in front of Frederickson Bros. Saturday, Mr. Carlson fell from the wagon with the above stated results. For a time it was thought that Mr. Carlson would pull through.

The deceased had been living with two sons, aged 18 and 14 years on a farm near Darling.

THE C. O. F. CONVENTION.

The editor of The Herald attended the C. O. F. state court meeting at Faribault last week as a delegate from the local court.

The citizens of Faribault have reason to be proud of their city. It is one of the most beautiful small cities the writer has ever seen. The city is located at the confluence of the Straight and Cannon rivers. On the high bluff overlooking the city are located, amid beautiful grounds, the state institutions for the blind, the deaf and dumb and the feeble minded; the Episcopal institutions—Seabury divinity school, Shattuck school, and St. Mary's Academy.

The city has a shoe factory and a piano factory, both flourishing. It has many fine residences, the hilly nature of the location giving opportunity for beautiful terraces.

The Foresters were magnificently treated. There was a ball, a base ball game, special initiation work, reception, and banquet by the Knights of Columbus to all the Foresters, a drive around the city, and other attractions. All were pleased at the entertainment given.

Dr. Smith, head of the arrangements committee, was ubiquitous, and earned golden opinions from all. He had able helpers in Messrs. Ochs, Fayant, O'Neill, and many others who deserve mention.

Little Falls won the convention hands down, Winona getting 1 vote, Mankato 10 and Little Falls something like 170. The convention comes in 1908.

ARRESTS MOTLEY MAN FOR BLIND PIGGING.

Geo. Lavoy was brought before Justice Harrison of Motley Wednesday, on the charge of running an unlicensed drinking emporium. It seems that Motley voted no license at the spring election, and since then it is alleged that defendant still kept on selling the different brands of good beer. Plaintiff claims that since the "no license" went into effect he has sold nothing but soft drinks. The justice thought otherwise, however, and Lavoy was fined $50 and costs, amounting to about $75 or 80 days in jail.

J. A. NICHOLS MOVES TO FRAZEE.

The family of J. A. Nichols left Wednesday for Frazee, where they will make their future home. Friends of the family will greatly regret their departure as the family has been held in very high esteem. Mr. and Mrs. Nichols have resided in the city for the past eleven years during which time they have gained the respect of all. Mr. Nichols was one of Little Falls foremost citizens and has considerable business interests in this city.

ACCUSED GIVES BOND

Theodore Wiehersi Gives Bond of $1,000 and is Released

Anton Wiehersi and John Kollis, father and brother-in-law of Theodore Wiehersi, who was bound over to the grand jury in the sum of $500 at a preliminary hearing before Justice Gaudet, for the killing of Mrs. Gertrude Kuffel of Swan River some weeks ago, have furnished the required bond, which was raised to $1,000 and the young man was released after it had been approved by Judge Taylor Tuesday afternoon.

The young man went directly to Minneapolis, where he will be employed during the summer. He will appear before the grand jury at the fall term of court when he will be tried on the charge of manslaughter.

HE HAS SUCCEEDED.

F. J. Weis, the popular and efficient manager and operator of the Freedom creamery, tried for first place with the highest score in the six month educational butter scoring contest conducted by the state dairy and food department. Mr. Weis' success begins with the year of 1904, when he started the creamery at Freedom with the Freedom Creamery Co. entered butter at the Minnesota state fair in the year 1904 and won out with a score of 95. In 1905 he entered the scoring contest conducted by the state and won out with an average score for six months of 94.1-2 points. At the Minnesota state fair his butter scored 97. His butter that year was served at the fair with bread baked of Little Falls flour. His butter was served as premium butter of Morrison county by Geo. Lafond. In the year of 1906 he again entered the contest and won an average score for six months of 93. He also entered in the World's Fair National Educational test of St. Louis and won a score of 94. Mr. Weis has held the highest honor in the county of Morrison for the past three years, and has again entered the contest this year in the hand separator class.

His wide experience in the creamery business and thorough knowledge and business ability has won him the place he holds in the county of Morrison. The Freedom creamery is one of the most successful in this state. Its butter sells constantly at from one to two cents per lb. above top market prices. Stockholders and patrons are proud of their creamery and butter-maker. Their reasons are strong. —Otto J. Eckel.

THE CURFEW THAT COUNTS.

The Virginia-Katepiss philosopher writes the following prescription and administers it to his readers at a single dose: "Every family should have a curfew which should positively 'ring tonight' and every night if needed. These curfews are inexpensive and can be made at home. Take a piece of siding two feet long and whittle one end down to a handle then take the child that needs the curfew and bend him over a barrel. Now take the piece of siding in the hand and use it for a clapper. Put it on hot. Divide the strokes evenly and see that none miss. Good boy or girl up to the age of sixteen, and applications are warranted to cure the most pronounced cases of street loafing that exist. The music this curfew makes is finer and far more effective than singing 'Where is my wandering boy tonight'."

A GREAT TRIP.

Otto Metzroth has returned from his trip up river in a steambot with Will Barfall. They went nearly to Little Falls and had a delightful run. Metzroth is greatly taken up with the grandeur of the scenery along the Mississippi between here and Little Falls, and thinks that there ought to be something done to develop some of the beauty spots as summer resorts. —St. Cloud Times.
