

DEFENSE OF HAYWOOD

Opening Statement by Attorney Darrow of Chicago.

ORCHARD STORY IS DENIED

Asserted That Self-Confessed Murderer Killed Steunenberg Because of a Private Grudge.

Boise, Ida., June 25.—In an address that occupied two sessions of the district court Clarence Darrow of Chicago outlined to the jury the detailed defense of William D. Haywood to the charge that he murdered former Governor Steunenberg. In broad description it is to be a denial of every material count in the testimony of Orchard with a showing that Orchard killed Steunenberg because of a private grudge due to the loss of a rich share in the great Hercules mine and explanations of the independent circumstances that tend to connect three co-defendants with Orchard's life and operations.

Haywood will take the stand to make personal denial of Orchard's accusations, Moyer may be called to testify solely to events and circumstances affecting the Western Federation of Miners, but Pettibone will not be a witness in this case.

Mr. Darrow denied the existence of the great conspiracy to murder alleged by the state with Orchard's testimony as a basis; denied that the federation was anything but an earnest fighting labor organization with higher wages, shorter hours, tolerable working conditions and the care of its members and their wives and children as its high and only motives; denied the intimacy with the three co-defendants that Orchard laid claim to; denied the several conferences and conversations that Orchard swore to; denied that Orchard had ever committed many of the crimes he had boasted of and promised to make proof of his contentions with many of the men named by Orchard when on the stand and many witnesses of credible character not connected by any tie with the federation or its leaders.

Conspiracy is Charged.

Mr. Darrow charged that agents of the Mine Owners' association of Colorado and the Pinkerton detectives had joined hands in a conspiracy to destroy the Western Federation of Miners. Agents of the mine owners had, he asserted, committed many minor crimes to discredit the federation and he promised that the defense would show that it was a reasonable inference that they had engineered the independence depot outrage as an "attempt" that had miscarried into a tragedy. He asserted that this trial was the culmination of the conspiracy to kill the organization by killing the leaders; that the organization and not "Bill" Haywood was on trial and that Harry Orchard under the manipulation of Detective McParland was trying to kill Moyer, Haywood and Pettibone that he might save his own life.

In explanation of the draft for $100 which Haywood sent to Jack Simpkins on Dec. 21, 1905, Mr. Darrow promised that the defense would show that Simpkins had an expense account for $228 against the federation and that after Simpkins himself had cashed the check for that amount in Denver he gave Haywood $100 with the request that he mail it to him at his home in Spokane.

Of the personal relations between Orchard and Pettibone, Mr. Darrow declared that any one could make friends with Pettibone and that Pettibone had fog Orchard as he would "any other dog." As to his financial relations, Mr. Darrow said that when Orchard left Denver for Wyoming he gave Pettibone his money, his Masonic badge and other trinkets and some papers for safe-keeping. From time to time Pettibone forwarded parts of the money to Orchard.

OVERRULED BY JUDGE WOOD

Motion for a Directed Verdict in Haywood Case.

Boise, Ida., June 22.—On motion of the defense to take the Haywood case from the jury and instruct for an acquittal on the state's evidence there were four hours of argument. Richardson and Darrow, for the defense, made eloquent pleas for Haywood. Senator Borah combated the plea of the defense and asserted that the state had proven a general conspiracy, of which Governor Steunenberg was the victim, among the officers of the Western Federation of Miners and that the issue should go to the jury. Judge Wood made an immediate ruling. He said:

"The court is satisfied that this is a case which should be submitted to the jury. Ordinarily it would be the duty of the court to give his reasons for a decision in such an important matter. This would be done in this instance were it not that others are involved besides this defendant. Three others are accused and two are in jail awaiting trial. The motion is overruled."

Six Freight Cars Demolished.

Springfield, Mass., June 24.—The noon express from New York, running about thirty miles an hour, crashed into a freight train in the local yard of the New Haven road here. Six or eight freight cars were demolished and several passengers somewhat injured.

SHORT TALKS BY L. T. COOPER.

MEDICINE.

It's curious what some people believe a medicine will do. They seem to think because I advertise my preparations I claim they will cure anything and everything. Well, I don't.

MISS ISAACSON.

The other day I got a letter from a woman who said her husband had been in bed eighteen years with paralysis. She had bought seven bottles of the Cooper medicines and her husband was still in bed.

She stated that I was a scoundrel, a robber and various other pleasant things.

Now the only thing I claim for Cooper's New Discovery is that it will put the stomach in working order. I know that if this is done, rheumatism, constipation, kidney and liver troubles, nervousness, and the general tired out, despondent feeling will disappear in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred. I know this medicine to be a fine tonic which used twice a year will throw off impurities and add flesh, strength and tone to the entire system. But it will not do the impossible. No medicine on earth will do more than help nature. Certain diseases are beyond all medicine, although God in his wisdom may some day give us frail humans a knowledge of how to cure them. At present I know Cooper's New Discovery to be as thoroughly efficient a medicine as was ever on the market, and people who will take it for the common ills to which flesh is heir will be more than satisfied.

Here is a letter from one who has tried:

"For a long time I have suffered from severe headaches, weakness, and pains in my back and sides."

"Nothing I tried gave me relief, and a friend advised me to try your medicine. I improved from the first week. My backache and headache left me and I felt myself growing stronger. My appetite increased and I felt greatly improved in every way. I am indeed thankful for the benefit I have received." Miss Jennie Isaacson, No. 18 15th Avenue, West, Duluth, Minn.

We have sold and are selling great quantities of these famous medicines.

For a Consideration.

"James," said Rakeley, caught in the act, "I believe you—er—saw me saluting the maid."

"Yes, sir," replied the butler.

"Well, remember, it's well sometimes to practice silence."

"Yes, sir," said James, with outstretched palm, "I've heard, sir, that 'silence is golden.'"

A Model Tenant.

Applicant—"I see you advertised for a janitor, sir. I am married—no children; neat, honest, patient and tactful!"

Agent—"I regret to say you would hardly do as a janitor, my friend, but wait. Couldn't I get you as a tenant?"

FIGHT WAVE OF PROHIBITION

Liquor Dealers Fear Anti-Saloon Plank in National Platform.

Atlantic City, N. J., June 21.—Injection of anti-saloon sentiments into the platforms of both great political parties in the next national campaign was predicted at a session of the National Wholesale Liquor Dealers' association convention in this city. Call was made for the federation of liquor interests in the United States not only to meet the present sweep of prohibition agitation but to prepare to check the movement in the presidential conventions of 1908, speakers declaring that the growth of the crusade against liquor will force the party leaders to recognize the necessity of placing some "platform doctrine" dealing with the subject before the people at the coming election. Organization of a great campaign fund to meet the new conditions was advocated by the protective bureau of the association and big contributions to this fund from every liquor interest were urged.

PATHETIC SCENE IN COURT

Milwaukee Clerk Sentenced to Prison by His Bosom Friend.

Milwaukee, June 22.—Frank E. Woller, for sixteen years clerk of the municipal court of this city, was brought into the court of which he had been an official so long, pleaded guilty before his bosom friend, Judge Braze, of embezzlement of $30,000, on which charge he was arrested Thursday, and was sentenced to three years at hard labor in the Milwaukee county house of correction.

The scene in court was sad in the extreme, surrounded as the prisoner was by friends on all sides, including the court, the prosecution and a large number of attorney friends. Many attorneys pleaded with the court for a lenient sentence. The prosecutor did not suggest a measure of punishment further than to insist that justice be meted out.

MOTHER AND SON DEAD

Struck by Lightning in Yard of Their Home at St. Paul.

FRANK DAY DENIES STORY

Did Not Launch Johnson Presidential Boom at Omaha—General State News.

Mrs. Clara N. Lemon, wife of Dillon Lemon, a clerk in the Minnesota Transfer office, and her son, Clarence Loraine Lemon, aged fourteen, were instantly killed by lightning in the yard of their home at St. Paul.

The mother had been cleaning house during the day and fearing rain from the threatening clouds was gathering clothes on the line to take into the house. The last article to be taken in was a piece of carpet. The carpet had been thrown over two wire clotheslines about five feet apart, stretched from two oak trees to a corner of the house. Mrs. Lemon's two children, Clarence, aged fourteen, and Mount, aged twelve, were playing under the tentlike covering which the carpet made. She called the boys to help her take in the carpet and they came from under the shelter ready to help pull it off the line.

The mother was standing near a tree and under the clothesline. Clarence was a few feet away and under the same line, while the younger son was six or eight feet to one side. Two bolts struck the trees and mother and son received a shock. The younger boy was not hurt.

DENIES STORY FROM OMAHA

Presidential Boom of Minnesota's Governor Not Launched.

"I did not announce in Omaha, as reported in a news dispatch from that city, that I was authorized to announce Governor John A. Johnson's candidacy for the Democratic presidential nomination."

This statement was made by Frank A. Day, secretary to Governor Johnson, when he reached St. Paul from a trip to the coast.

A telegram in the morning papers said Mr. Day had officially announced the Johnson boom at Omaha. The announcement in the telegram was unwarranted and untrue, declares Mr. Day.

"What I did say," explained Mr. Day, "was that Governor Johnson had discouraged the efforts of his friends to make of him a presidential candidate. Anything else I am quoted as saying is a manufactured story."

Governor Johnson said before Mr. Day's arrival at the capitol that he did not credit the interview, inasmuch as he had not authorized Mr. Day to make the announcement attributed to him.

Charles Anderson, stationary engineer, and George Lenemir, brakeman, were killed and W. C. Greenbaugh, locomotive engineer, was very seriously injured by the derailment of a train of flat cars and caboose near Detroit, this state.

The accident occurred to a work train which was hauling gravel for a fill that is being made on the Northern Pacific right of way. The men were just about to quit work for the day, it being about 6:30 o'clock when the accident happened. The gravel train of flat cars was being cleared with a plow hauled across the cars by the stationary engine when the tracks, which were not solidly laid, became unstable and dumped the cars into the ditch.
