PIERZ

Oct. 17.—Jos. H. Hennon of St. Paul, who is working with the Minnesota Farm and Land company, was here a few days last week, visiting with his father, Nick Hennon.

Jacob Blake informs us that the baled hay which was stored in his warehouse all summer has been sold to P. Nelson, Soo contractor. He is well pleased that it has been taken out on account of fire. He says he has felt uneasy all summer.

Dr. John Henneke, V. S., has moved into the village. He now lives in John Schwankl's house in the north end of the village.

Louis Spanteller made a business trip to Kent, Minn., where he formerly lived.

P. Schneider of the Austin Mower Co., Austin, Minn., was here last week, visiting with Arnold Nagel and looking over his farm. He is the owner of the John Becker place about four miles south of Pierz.

Mrs. Louis Spanteller is in the hospital in Minneapolis for medical treatment.

John Schaefer has completed his fine residence on Edward street and has moved into same. He has one of the finest residences in the village of Pierz. His son-in-law, John Faust, lives with him.

Annie and Lizzie Eisel returned home from Brainerd last week. They were employed there during the summer.

J. F. Sheehan has accepted the position as storekeeper for Foley Bros. in this place in the village in place of P. Lynch, who resigned.

Geo. Kiewel of the Kiewel Brewing company of Little Falls called on his many customers last Tuesday.

J. B. Krautkraemer of Jordan, Minn., is here visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Wermerskirchin. He is at the same time taking orders for the Empire Cream separator.

Frank Bourras and Dana Brown were visitors in Pierz last Tuesday.

Jacob Neisius has put a row light in his store. It is the best in the village.

A. P. Stoll and F. X. Viraig went to Sullivan lake last Tuesday and Frank Faust followed them last Wednesday. They will camp there for about a week and hunt and catch fish.

Before leaving they made the broad statement that they would shoot nothing larger than mouse.

Mr. Ekstrand and a row other hunters went to Rice Lake last Wednesday. They are after the ducks that are reported to be so plentiful there.

P. Nelson left Pierz Wednesday for Mocselske, Carlton county. He will finish his work on the Soo line, about five miles east of Pierz in about three weeks and is looking for another job of grading in Carlton county.

Paul Eller returned from Parks Prairie, Minn., last Saturday, where he was employed as harnessmaker. He intends to go to Grantsburg, Wis.

Below we give the names of a few of our farmers that have threshed, giving the amount threshed per acre. It will be seen that the estimates made before harvest were nearly correct. Some farmers got a little

A recent census taken of Fergus Falls gives the population at 7,487.

County Superintendent of Schools Barnes visited several of the county schools during the past week.

Phillip Guerin and F. N. Ferrell went out to Rice lake Monday, where they established a camp and will enjoy a week's duck hunt.

Charles Renick left Monday for Frazee, where he is employed by the Nichols-Chisholm Lumber company, after a short visit with relatives in the city.

A party of business college attendants composed of Bertha and Benjamin Olson, Earl Arnold and Hilda Carlson visited over Sunday with their parents in Brainerd, returning to this city Monday.

Robert Wallace is seriously ill at his home on Fourth street northeast, suffering from attack of pneumonia. Although he had not been feeling well for several days previously, the sickness did not affect him seriously until Monday morning.

John Currie of this city went to Minneapolis Monday and will make his home at the Soldier's home in the future. He is an old soldier and is one of the earliest residents of this city, having resided at this point some 52 years.

Stanton Cawley, formerly of this city, who is attending the "U" of Minnesota, has been selected secretary of the Adelphton club. The club is a strong one, being an organization of all the members of the Greek letter societies of the "U" and the office is a very desirable one among the fraternity boys.

The six cement crossings which the city council recently authorized to be constructed in the Second ward have all been laid.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Kemp have arrived in the city from Annandale, N. D., and will make their future home on the West side.

H. Maynew of Tower, N. D., arrived in the city Monday, being called here by the illness of Louis Gravel, his father-in-law.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Germain wish to express their heartfelt thanks to those who so willingly extended to them their assistance and sympathy in their great bereavement in the loss of their son, Adolord; especially so to the Red Men and the Little Falls Fire department also for the beautiful floral offerings.

Mark Millsbaugh had a runaway while out driving Sunday night. The horse became frightened at something or other and it was not many minutes before it was unmanageable. After coming down the avenue at a rather good rate the horse finally came to a stop at the corner of Fourth street and Third avenue northeast, the rig having fastened in such a way to the wire and post supporting an electric light post that the horse could neither pull away nor back out. Some kind gentleman put his shoulder to the wheel and the interrupted drive was once more resumed without any serious results.

Frank Faust has now completed work on his Grand Opera House. The stage is finished, all scenery is put up and the Opera House is now ready for any theatre performance or any other entertainment that may come to Pierz.

Notice is hereby given that all parties owing me are requested to pay their account on or before November first. Accounts not paid by that time will be given an attorney for collection.

—P. A. Hartmann, Pierz, Minn.

Barney Barton, who has been spending several days on his farm at Herrman, Minn., where he had been to see to the threshing, returned home Tuesday. He reports a fair crop in that vicinity.

Farmers Attention.

Hereafter you will find me at the Gravel feed store on Broadway at which place will have my office. The warehouse will be continued at the same place.
